McCarthy, Ph.D,2014-09-25 Any attempt to produce a change of mind or a change in behaviors is doomed to fail given our human natures While we may have thoughts of creating this process in our personal life we are unable to sustain our focus given the constant barrage of worldly distractions Slowly or quickly our resolve ebbs away and once more we re caught up in the choices that bring pain and shame into our life and the lives of those we love Nothing changes until we experience a change of heart This is not an event but rather a journey that guides life and transforms character This change of heart is a gift that is extended to those who have come to the realization that of themselves they can do nothing Surrender is the key word and that is likely a difficult concept to tolerate in our human condition Yet as you surrender your will on a regular basis your life purpose will slowly and consistently be revealed in the opportunities that arise With each succeeding door that opens there will come a flow of challenges blessings and gifts that serve to sustain and nourish continued growth Out of this process you will come to fully understand that there is a purpose for life and that the greatest joy comes from fulfilling that promise This is not a preachy book filled with solemn sayings rather it is a tribute to Jesus Christ who can work His purpose in any surrendered life My desire is that you join me on this pathway to personal transformation Your faith will grow as you come to understand the dynamic of surrender Out of your faith will grow a new and profound sense of hope that will complete its work in your life You cannot buy this gift or steal it as a possession yet it is offered freely to those who are committed to finding the truth

Edge of the Map Pilgrim Tyne,2013-10-12 I can t tell you my name I can t tell you where I live I can t tell you who I work for or any details about the people with whom I work Because where I live my line of work is not exactly legal But if you can pardon the vagueness I have a story for you Edge of the Map is a memoir of the calling and adjustment success and failure of our first year as missionaries to a closed country in the 10 40 window It tells the story of how my family and I lived out the challenges and blessings of the lives we tried to lay down for Jesus It is the book I would have wished for had I known the right questions to ask How do I know that I m called overseas How do I move beyond callousness and distraction What do I do once I ve accepted a call to the nations What issues arise after I step into my calling How do I go about resolving those issues Edge of the Map speaks to these questions in hopes that our journey to a closed country will help nudge the souls of a young poised generation toward the calling God is whispering over their lives      Community Ecology of Neotropical

Practising Community-Based Participatory Research Shauna MacKinnon,2018-04-10 There is increasing pressure on university scholars to reach beyond the ivory tower and engage in collaborative research with communities But what does this actually mean What is community based participatory research CBPR and what does engagement look like This book presents stories about CBPR from past and current Manitoba Research Alliance projects in socially and economically marginalized communities Bringing together experienced researchers with new scholars and community practitioners the stories describe the impetus for the research projects how they came to be implemented and how CBPR is still being used to effect change within the community The projects ranging from engagement in public policy advocacy to learning from Elders in First Nations communities were selected to demonstrate the breadth of experiences of those involved and the many different methods used By providing space for researchers and their collaborators to share the stories behind their research this book offers valuable lessons and rich insights into the power and practice of CBPR

THE TRANSITION OF DANWEI-COMMUNITY AND URBAN COMMUNITY REBUILDING Tian Yi-Peng,2021-11-18 In this work the author endeavors to treat Danwei system as a special and highly organized form of community and sets about his study from the perspectives of Danwei community's change and urban community reconstruction. When it comes to the construction and development of urban communities in contemporary China, academic circles at home often attempt to unravel its intimate and indissoluble connection with the Danwei system and seek to lay emphasis upon the great complexity of their interactive relationship with each other. However, academic circles generally incorporate the Danwei system taken as a national system as well as a universal institution into their fields of research, whereas they rarely enter into a critical examination of the variations in its multiplicity of specific denotations by taking account of such variables as space, region, and culture, nor do they show much concern about the existence of different types of Danwei. In view of the foregoing difficulties in which the study of the Danwei system gets entangled, this study attempts to accomplish the following main purposes. Firstly, this study shall introduce such a variable as locality into the research on the Danwei community by starting off from the research perspectives of the Danwei community's origin, formation, and change. Secondly, several super-large industrial communities in the old industrial bases shall be chosen as classic cases in illustration of long-standing complications and entanglements enmeshed in this study. And thirdly, it seeks to reveal the mode and experience of urban community development against a background of the Danwei system reform so that by gaining a full understanding of as well as making an in-depth analysis of their rich implications, we can enrich the theory of urban community construction in the Chinese context and hence grapple successfully with some theoretical problems confronting urban community reconstruction against a background of the Danwei community change which shall eventually bring about a smooth transition of the Danwei society. This book will assuredly open an exceptional window to the transition of China from traditional to modern society, the transition of Chinese society from planned economy to market economy, and the change track of the interplay between the Chinese government and modern Chinese society after the founding of New China in 1949 at the present time and even in the foreseeable future.
