Memories of Jawahar Anand Gokani, Md.,2024-06-07 A Fistful of My Sky memories of Jawahar Dr ANAND GOKANI After graduating as a doctor one is expected to do a year long internship This internship used to be for six months in the urban hospital and six months in a rural hospital This memoir is an account of the six months I spent in Jawhar a remote Adivasi village 160km from Bombay This book is based in 1981 and the characters events and sentiments expressed herein are as accurately real as possible This is an account of life in the village in that era The bountiful Natural beauty unspoilt by urbanisation the simple innocent and loyal people and their lives as they intertwine with ours the excitement of working with bare minimum resources yet delivering medical care to the poor and helpless people is the crux of this little treatise The interning doctors from Bombay the staff of the hospital and the people who knocked on the doors for help are woven together in this intricate meshwork of events emotions excitement intrigue joy sorrow gratitude and loyalty Anecdotes of true grit like the story of Dhavali or the marvel and miracle of modern science that saved Shiva the faith and gratitude shown by the Adivasis to the doctors at the hospital all are a part of the large canvas that spans six months spent in the remotest village with the most backward of humanity Stories of love kindness bravery loyalty gratitude success failure cooperation innovation and simplicity abound in these pages The book has the ingredients of a medical novel yet it is a true to life story It is about the poor who are effectively camouflaged in villages which are tucked away in oblivion far away from the glitterati of the highway community This book this memoir is testimony to their plight It is a story of rural India raw and unexpurgated It is the story of the heart of India Silent Winds of Aikido Don Dickie, The Silent Winds refers to the stillness and internal silence at the centre of all Aikido techniques The silence is infused with awareness awareness of the space surrounding you awareness of the internal landscape of thoughts and emotions and awareness of the technique you are performing This silence nurtures the intuition that guides the choices you make with respect to technique and movement in general The stillness and silence of Aikido allow techniques to flow seamlessly and effortlessly as intuitive choices replace the slower process of conceptual thought However the need for awareness and intuition in martial arts relies on the basic martial principles that form the foundation of the physical practice Appropriate distance alignment and timing of strikes are critical If there are no credible strikes then the need for awareness of what is happening in the space surrounding the nage diminishes as does the need for internal awareness of thoughts or emotions Without the threat of a sudden strike there is no need to make a split second intuitive choice This book is about the silent skill sets that translate from the mats to our life off the mats It is these skills that are important to building a more peaceful world Rather than technique the focus is on how we practice How we develop awareness of the space that surrounds us and find stillness in the waterfall of thoughts and emotions that cascade through our heads while we practice How we create new techniques in response to changing conditions and how the use of intuition can guide our practice and our interaction with people in our daily lives You and Your Forces; Or, The Constitution of Man Elizabeth Jones Towne,1905 Prabuddha Bharata ,2004
