

The background is a romantic-style painting of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sky is filled with soft, warm clouds in shades of pink, orange, and yellow. The water in the foreground is calm, reflecting the colors of the sky. In the distance, a small boat is visible on the water, and a line of trees with autumn foliage separates the water from the horizon.

It is a risk to love.
But what if it doesn't work out?
Ah, but what if it does.

Dangerous Love Ray Norman, 2015-12-01 Ray Norman spent most of his life living in far flung corners of the globe working on long term development projects and living out his calling as a Christian professional By the time he arrived in the Islamic Republic of Mauritania around the turn of the millennium he was veteran of life as an expat at home in countries and cultures not his own But in 2001 the world was about to change and so was Ray s life In the aftermath of 9 11 a time when tensions between Muslim and Western culture were peaking Ray and his daughter Hannah made the short drive from their home to the Mauritanian beach But instead of spending the afternoon enjoying the waves and the water father and daughter found themselves hurtling back to the city each with a bullet hole pumping blood into the floorboards of their jeep Dangerous Love is an account of the Normans brush with violent extremism and of the family s unexpected return to Mauritania in the face of terrifying risks This is the story of a call that could not be denied and of a family s refusal to give up on love

Dangerous Love Chad Ford, 2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today s world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about

The Radicality of Love Srećko Horvat, 2016-01-11 What would happen if we could stroll through the revolutionary history of the 20th century and without any fear of the possible responses ask the main protagonists from Lenin to Che Guevara from Alexandra Kollontai to Ulrike Meinhof seemingly naïve questions about love Although all important political and social changes of the 20th century included heated debates on the role of love it seems that in the 21st century of new technologies of the self Grindr Tinder online dating etc we are faced with a hyperinflation of sex not love By going back to the sexual revolution of the October Revolution and its subsequent repression to Che's dilemma between love and revolutionary commitment and to the period of 68 from communes to terrorism and its commodification in late capitalism the Croatian philosopher Srećko Horvat gives a possible answer to the question of why it is that the most radical revolutionaries like Lenin or Che were scared of the radicality of love What is so radical about a seemingly conservative notion of love and why is it anything but conservative This short book is a modest contribution to the current upheavals around the world from Tahrir to Taksim from Occupy Wall Street to Hong Kong from Athens to Sarajevo in which the question of love is curiously surprisingly absent
