Ritual Communication From Everyday Conversation To Mediated Ceremony:

Ritual Communication Eric W. Rothenbuhler, 1998-06-24 Ritual and ceremonial as formal modes of conduct are equally ubiquitous appearing in everything from modes of talk and rules of politeness to elaborate protocols for events of state Ritual and rite ceremonial and ceremony are symbolic social actions modes of communication that implicate individuals in the social order creating realities whilst expressing ideas and attitudes about them This book combines bibliographic essay and theory construction to provide a unique perspective on ritual as a special and powerful form of communication Being Present:

Mobile Cinema in Kham Tibetan Areas Jianbin Guo, Jingjing Chen, 2024-07-31 This book presents the restoration of rural mobile cinema network in the Great Triangle region at the conjunction of Yunnan Sichuan and Tibet in China in the new century which has added a new chapter to the long standing complex relationship between cinema and social change Based on five years of multi sited fieldwork abundant interviews and oral history narratives this work shows the entanglement of the State the projectionists and local film viewers in the historical and social context in a holistic analytic framework By using the key concept of being present to examine the tangling relations between the actors in mobile cinema as social practice the work argues that mobile cinema and contemporary Chinese society are mutually constructed in both textual and practical level

Trading Up Lynne Chisholm, Bryony Hoskins, Christian Glahn, 2005-01-01 Proceedings of the Research Seminar on Non formal Education Learning in the Youth Sector and the Third Sector under the Partnership Programme on Youth Research 2002 2005 between the EC and the Council of Europe held in Strasbourg in April 2004 Living with

Algorithms Ignacio Siles, 2023-04-25 A nuanced account from a user perspective of what it s like to live in a datafied world We live in a media saturated society that increasingly transforms our experiences relations and identities into data others can analyze and monetize Algorithms are key to this process surveilling our most mundane practices and to many their control over our lives seems absolute In Living with Algorithms Ignacio Siles critically challenges this view by surveying user dynamics in the global south across three algorithmic platforms Netflix Spotify and TikTok and finds surprisingly a more balanced relationship Drawing on a wealth of empirical evidence that privileges the user over the corporate Siles examines the personal relationships that have formed between users and algorithms as Latin Americans have integrated these systems into the structures of everyday life enacted them ritually participated in public with and through them and thwarted them Sometimes users follow algorithms Siles finds and sometimes users resist them At times users do both Agency lies in the navigation of the spaces in between By analyzing what we do with algorithms rather than what algorithms do to us Living with Algorithms clarifies the debate over the future of datafication and whether we have a say in its development

Concentrating on an understudied region of the global south the book provides a new perspective on the commonalities and differences among users within a global ecology of technologies Historical Pragmatics Andreas H. Jucker, Irma

Taavitsainen, 2010-09-22 The Handbook of Historical Pragmatics provides an authoritative and accessible overview of this versatile new field in pragmatics devoted to a diachronic study of language use and human interaction in context It covers all areas of historical pragmatics from grammaticalization theory to pragmatic entities such as discourse markers speech acts and politeness to individual discourse domains from scientific writing to literary discourse Each contribution written by a leading specialist gives a succinct representative and up to date overview of research questions theories methods and recent developments in the field

The God Strategy David Domke, Kevin Coe, 2008 This volume offers a timely and dynamic study of the rise of religion in American politics examining the public messages of political leaders over the past seventy five years The authors show that U S politics today is defined by a calculated deliberate and partisan use of faith that is unprecedented in modern politics Beginning with the election of Ronald Reagan in 1980 America has seen a no holds barred religious politics that seeks to attract voters identify and attack enemies and solidify power Domke and Coe identify a set of religious signals sent by both Republicans and Democrats in speeches party platforms proclamations visits to audiences of faith and even celebrations of Christmas The updated edition of this ground breaking book includes a new preface an updated analysis of the last Bush administration as well as a new final chapter on the Jeremiah Wright controversy the candidacies of Mike Huckabee and Sarah Palin and Barack Obama s victory

Nonlinear Models for Archaeology and Anthropology William W. Baden, 2016-12-05 The dominant social theory used by archaeologists has tended to focus on either small scale agency or large scale cultural patterns and processes of change The authors of this volume argue that archaeologists should use nonlinear models to more accurately model the connections between scales of analysis and show how micro scale variation can lead to macro scale cultural change This work examines the applications of nonlinear systems models within archaeology and evaluates the range of approaches currently encompassed within Complexity Theory

Reimagining Journalism and Social Order in a Fragmented Media World Robert E. Media Anthropology Eric W. Rothenbuhler, Mihai Coman, 2005-05-05 Media Anthropology is an interdisciplinary reader that represents a convergence of issues and interests on anthropological approaches to the study of media While other books on this topic examine traditional anthropology and push that field toward the media in this book editors Eric W Rothenbuhler and Mihai Coman take a novel approach by analyzing media studies and guiding that field toward anthropological thinking This anthology charts media anthropology as a field of study and provides examples of current research that identify its major concepts and methods in chapters written by leading scholars from several countries and academic disciplines Key Features Offers original articles and a few selected reprints from leading worldwide scholars in a variety of academic disciplines to provide the most integrated treatment of this interdisciplinary topic Contains introductions that set the context for articles written from varying points of view Includes a Theory into Practice section that shows how anthropological concepts and methods can improve the teaching and practice of media studies Makes the relevant literature accessible in an up to date and even handed organization offering students a broader understanding than they could obtain from other books which are primarily anthropological in disciplinary orientation Media Anthropology is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate students studying media anthropology in communication and media studies journalism anthropology sociology and cultural studies programs

Media Events in a Global Age Nick Couldry, Andreas Hepp, Friedrich Krotz, 2009-10-16 This volume assembles an estimable range of critical analyses of one of the most important mediated artifacts of the modern world the media event The authors challenge the construct extend its usefulness expand its theoretical basis and application and examine media events in a far larger and richer context than ever before Students of global media today are well served by this superb collection of essays David Morgan Duke University USA A welcome and worthy successor to Dayan and Katz s path breaking study that expands and enriches the discourse on global media events Daya Thussu University of Westminster UK This is an excellent collection that will enable new kinds of argument about and hopefully research into the spectacular functions of the contemporary media Graeme Turner University of Queensland Australia We live in an age where the media is intensely global and profoundly changed by digitalization Not only do many media events have audiences who access them online but additionally digital media flows are generating new ways in which media events can emerge In times of increasingly differentiated media technologies and fragmented media landscapes the eventization of the media is increasingly important for the marketing and everyday appreciation of popular media texts The events covered include Celebrity Big Brother 9 11 the Iraq war and World Youth Day 2005 to give readers an understanding of the major debates in this increasingly high profile area of media and cultural research

The SAGE Handbook of Sociology Craig Calhoun, Chris Rojek, Bryan S Turner, 2005 Providing an authoritative guide to theory and method the key sub disciplines and the primary debates in contemporary sociology this work brings together the leading authors to reflect on the condition of the discipline

Media Events Bianca Mitu, Stamatis Poulakidakos, 2016-05-23 Media Events A Critical Contemporary Approach proposes an interdisciplinary and multicultural approach of Dayan and Katz s theory of media events 1992 by applying it to contemporary situations The contributing authors come from a range of countries UK USA Mexico Germany Finland Italy Greece Portugal Ukraine and analyse the theory of media events from different perspectives incorporating social media and offering a re positioning of Dayan and Katz s theory of media events By bringing new perspectives into this field the proposed volume is an important contribution as it grounds the intervention and rethinking of the theory into further empirical research This volume has the potential to function as a cross generational link between one of the early classics of media and communication studies on the one hand and the present generation of researchers on the other

Resisting the News Jennifer Rauch,2020-12-29 Resisting the News brings together unique insights from activists and alternative media users to offer a distinctive perspective on the problems of journalism today and how to fix them Using critical cultural theory and in particular the conceptual frameworks of ritual communication and interpretive communities this book examines how audiences filter their interpretations of mainstream news through the prisms of their identities and experiences with alternative media and political protest Jennifer Rauch gives voice to alternative media audiences and illuminates the cultural resources values assumptions critical skills and discursive strategies through which they make sense of their news environments Drawing on a 15 year research project Rauch employs a variety of qualitative quantitative and quasi ethnographic methods including focus groups media use diaries close ended surveys and open ended questions to paint a layered portrait of liberal and conservative critiques of journalism Shedding new light on popular theories about how news works and about mass audiences this book will be useful to students scholars and teachers of political communication journalism studies media studies and critical cultural studies

Glimpses of the New Creation W. David O. Taylor,Jeremy Begbie,2019-09-03 How do the arts in worship form individuals and communities Every choice of art in worship opens up and closes down possibilities for the formation of our humanity Every practice of music every decision about language every use of our bodies every approach to visual media or church buildings forms our desires shapes our imaginations habituates our emotional instincts and reconfigures our identity as Christians in contextually meaningful ways generating thereby a sense of the triune God and of our place in the world Glimpses of the New Creation argues that the arts form us in worship by bringing us into intentional and intensive participation in the aesthetic aspect of our humanity that is our physical emotional imaginative and metaphorical capacities In so doing they invite the people of God to be conformed to Christ and to participate in the praise of Christ and in the praise of creation which by the Spirit s power raises its peculiar voice to the Father in heaven for the sake of the world that God so loves
