crises It becomes visible again when prosperity seems secure cultural transformation is too rapid or environmental disasters occur Such is the time in which we now find ourselves As the roads clog with gas guzzling SUVs and McMansions proliferate in the suburbs the nation is once again asking fundamental questions about lifestyle Has luxury fever to use Robert Frank's phrase gotten out of hand Are we really comfortable with the Brand Is Me mentality Have we gone too far in pursuit of the almighty dollar to the detriment of our families communities and natural environment Even politicians ordinarily impermeable to questions about consumerism are voicing doubts and polls suggest majorities of Americans feel the country has become too materialistic too focused on getting and spending and increasingly removed from long standing non materialist values From the introduction by Douglas B Holt and Juliet B Schor "We are the Mods" Christine Jacqueline Feldman,2009 Drawing on archival research oral history interviews and participant observation this examination of the adoption and adaptation of Mod style across geographic space also maps its various interpretations over time from the early 1960s to the present The book traces the Mod youth culture from its genesis in the dimly lit clubs of London's Soho where it began as a way for young people to reconfigure modernity after the chaos of World War II to its contemporary country specific expressions By examining Mod culture in the United States Germany and Japan alongside the United Kingdom We Are the Mods contrasts the postwar development of Mod in those countries that lost the war with those that won The book illuminates the culture's fashion music iconography and gender aesthetics to create a compelling portrait of a transnational subculture Book Jacket Scooter Girl Chynna Clugston-Flores,2017 Scooter Girl created by Chynna Clugston Flores
