Leong,2008-04-25 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 2008 Best Reference Library Journal The scope depth breadth currency arrangement and authority of this work reflect the thorough in depth approach of the entire editorial and publishing team Advancing current thought and models in the field this work provides an unparalleled attempt to approach this important subject from many perspectives Moreover each volume has a list of entries a reader's guide and information about the authors and the contributors The reader's guide incorporates substantive topics e.g. assessment testing and research methods biographies coping this is an essential addition to graduate and research collections Library Journal Professional counseling involves helping clients individually or in groups or as couples and families deal with various career vocational educational and emotional problems Whether performed by psychologists psychiatrists social workers psychiatric nurses or counselors thousands of professionals throughout the United States as well as the world are providing counseling services to fellow human beings to help them address and resolve the various problems of living that exceed their coping resources and social support The Encyclopedia of Counseling provides a comprehensive overview of the theories models techniques and challenges involved in professional counseling With approximately 600 entries this definitive resource covers all of the major theories approaches and contemporary issues in counseling The four volumes of this Encyclopedia are flexibly designed so they can be used together as a set or separately by volume depending on the need of the user Key Features Reviews different types of counselors their different professional identities and their different models of graduate education Examines important historical developments that have shaped the evolution of the counseling profession into its current form Provides a comprehensive compilation of information about established and emerging topics in mental health and personal emotional counseling Addresses problems in personal emotional counseling ranging from concerns about normal developmental processes and common life transitions to debilitating problems of great severity Discusses the major social scientific and professional forces that have shaped the evolution of cross cultural counseling and psychotherapy Offers complete information on conventional and up and coming areas of interest in career counseling Key Themes Assessment Testing and Research Methods Biographies Coping Counseling General Economic Work Issues Human Development and Life Transitions Legal and Ethical Issues Organizations Physical and Mental Health Professional Development and Standards Psychosocial Traits and Behavior Society Race Ethnicity and Culture Subdisciplines Theories Therapies Techniques and Interventions This ultimate resource is designed for laypeople who are interested in learning about the science and practice of counseling It is also a useful source for undergraduate and graduate students and professionals from other specialties to learn about counseling in all its forms and manifestations The Musical Times ,1924 Description in Literature and Other Media ,2007-01-01 In contrast to narrative description is a much less researched phenomenon and where it so far has found attention at all scholars have almost always discussed it with fiction in mind The all but exclusive concentration on literature has hitherto obscured the fact that description transcends literature and indeed the verbal media in general and is not only a transgeneric but also a transmedial phenomenon that can be found in many other media and arts This book is a pioneering interdisciplinary study of description since it for the first time undertakes to close this research lacuna by highlighting description and its relevance with reference to a wide spectrum of arts and media The volume opens with a detailed introductory essay which aims at clarifying the descriptive as a basic semiotic form of organizing signs from a theoretical perspective but also provides a first overview of the uses of description as well as its problematics in fiction painting and instrumental music In the main part of the book nine contributions by scholars from various disciplines explore description in individual media and different cultural epochs The first section of the book is dedicated to literature and related partly verbal media and includes a typological and historical survey of description in fiction as well as discussions of its occurrence in poetry nature writing radioliterature and film The second part deals with the purely visual media and ranges from a presentation of the descriptive techniques used in Durer's graphic reproductions to general reflections on the descriptive in the visual arts as well as in photography A third section on description in music provides a perspective on yet another medium The volume which is the second one in the series Studies in Intermediality is of relevance to students and scholars from various fields intermedial studies literary and film studies history of art and musicology

The Performance of Jewish and Arab Music in Israel Today Amnon Shiloah, 2016-01-08 Israel with its highly heterogeneous immigrant society offers to the observer a fascinating instance of multifaceted performance practice Within a relatively limited area there are numerous musical traditions and styles which encompass sacred and secular old and new folk and sophisticated forms The ten contributions included in these issues of Musical Performance represent a discussion of the most significant traditions that were established during the period before 1948 the search for the establishment of a new and typically Israeli art and folk music the attitude of the protagonists of this tendency toward the old exiled traditional heritage of the Jewish people and the struggle of the immigrants after the creation of the State of Israel to ensure the survival of their musical traditions as well as to cope with the new physical and cultural environment Altogether the general scope of these contributions correspond to a large extent to major events which marked the m

From Classicism to Modernism Brian K. Etter, 2019-07-30 This title was first published in 2001 The last century has witnessed the ascendancy of the avant garde in music From Schoenberg to Boulez to Stockhausen the avant garde has defined the modern conception of musical creativity Contemporary serious music demands the new in terms of style form and ways of listening and hearing Implicit in this approach is the rejection of the old from the baroque to the music of the later 19th century symphonists Paradoxically however it is this old repertoire which continues to dominate concert programmes An exploration of this dichotomy lies at the heart of this book Drawing on a wealth of European philosophical and musical texts the author examines the origins of the avant garde and its relation to modernity in tandem with the history of the tonal tradition

Educating in the Arts Lindy Joubert, 2008-06-19 When I was first asked to edit this book the researcher in me delighted at the opportunity to provide case studies from different cultural traditions with a team of like minded fellow artists educators and researchers But as the book took shape I also discovered a true passion for its fundamental messages Educating in the Arts the Asian Experience talks about how landscapes and histories farms and cities the mountains seas and skies interact with lives and form the backdrop for stories that build and link the creative clusters of a place This book has provided a wonderful opportunity to delve into the many worlds that incorporate the arts particularly where the arts inform inspire and look for answers to difficult questions Having attracted a broad range of contributors from every corner of the Asian region a substantial collection of detailed information has emerged Each story has an approach that is universal yet culturally unique Close your eyes and see the colours smell the smells and hear the voices of the children against the background rhythms of song birds urban traffic or whistling winds
