Wilson, 2001 Scratching The Surface Dr. Will Boyd, 2011 Claude Cahun Gen Doy, 2020-08-13 This is the first single authored book in English on the photographer Claude Cahun whose work was rediscovered in the 1980s Doy moves beyond standard postmodern approaches instead repositioning the artist born Lucy Schwob in the context of the turbulent times in which she lived and seeing the photographs as part of Cahun's wider life as an artist and writer a woman and lesbian and as a political activist in the early twentieth century Doy rethinks Cahun's approach to dress and masquerade looking at the images in light of the situation of women at the time and within the prevailing beauty culture Addressing Cahun's ambivalent relationship with Symbolism and later relationship with Surrealism this highly readable book also looks at Cahun's unusual approach to the domestic object Aristotle's Gynecology Mariska Leunissen, 2025 In Aristotle's Gynecology Mariska Leunissen examines Aristotle's methods for the establishment of gynecological facts within his natural science arguing that many of the gynecological phenomena at stake such as menstruation and the nature of menstrual blood the role of female pleasure during sex and women's experiences of erotic dreams and their knowledge of conception and their experiences of false pregnancy and childbirth were mostly for socio cultural reasons not at all or not immediately accessible for a male natural scientific observer such as Aristotle Given this lack of immediate empirical evidence Aristotle employed alternative methods for the establishment of facts such as relying on signs and circumstantial empirical evidence or using analogical and probabilistic reasoning and relied heavily on existing expert reports such as mainly early medical sources but also sometimes verbal reports from women themselves Moreover Aristotle used a secondary standard for testing the results of this inquiry namely one which he originally developed for investigations into physically remote meteorological and cosmological phenomena that are not apparent to observation and according to which statements of facts are credible if they are ontologically possible Leunissen thus reconstructs Aristotle's gynecology in the context of his commitments to empiricism and his scientific methods for the fact establishing phase of natural science and elucidates the role his concepts of evidence credibility and signs play in his natural scientific research However through its focus on Aristotle s use of gendered knowledge and his reconstruction of natural phenomena believed to be characteristic of women Leunissen s book also offers a glimpse of the lived experiences and reproductive beliefs of women in Ancient Greece Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1912

Perspective Peter Kerestur,2014-12-22 An ordinary man leaves his house for a routine drive to work in order to earn his daily bread Ten minutes into his drive he is stopped by the utility workers working on a piece of road damaged by the last night s torrential flood storm and his trip is inadvertently delayed Pressed by time to be still on time for work the legal system shows its true teeth and catches up on him Wrapping its claws around him the system arbitrarily turns his normally innocent trip into an unexpected nightmarish show of bureaucratic power on loose Perspective A driver s tale is an inexorable product of the modern democracy in its present decline and metamorphosis into yet another monstrous police state with some of its subliminal and chameleonic workings exposed The pen that catches only a fraction of the highly diversified destructive forces responsible for its decline is sometimes vitriolic never apologetic always striving for objectivity and reason and its language at times effusive at others laconic all in service of clarity Its vocabulary ranges from simple homebound to complex technical in support of the moods that shift from funny hilarious sarcastic and ironic to iconoclastic expository satirical and heretical the dichotomy presupposed The panoply of expression is however and above all direct and unceremonious On the Fascination of Objects Sally Waite,2016-02-29 The Shefton Collection in Newcastle upon Tyne contains a fine array of Greek and Etruscan objects and takes its name from its founder Professor Brian Shefton 1919 2012 In spite of the importance of this collection it has not been widely published and remains something of a hidden gem Brian Shefton was an insightful collector as well as a distinguished scholar of Greek and Etruscan archaeology and the 14 papers presented here reflect the broad scope of the collection ranging across pottery jewelery terracottas and metalwork The contributions written by leading experts in the field focus on specific objects or groups of objects in the Collection providing new interpretations and bringing previously unpublished items to light The history of the Shefton Collection is explored Together these contributions provide a tribute to a remarkable individual who made a substantial and notable contribution to his discipline Galileo's Visions Marco Piccolino,Nicholas J. Wade,2014 In a fascinating and accessible style Marco Piccolino and Nick Wade analyse the scientific and philosophical work of Galileo Galilei from the particular viewpoint of his approach to the senses and especially vision as a means of acquiring trustworthy knowledge about the constitution of the world
