Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History, 1958-1977 Joshua Glick, 2018-01-23 Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History 1958 1977 explores how documentarians working between the election of John F Kennedy and the Bicentennial created conflicting visions of the recent and more distant American past Drawing on a wide range of primary documents Joshua Glick analyzes the films of Hollywood documentarians such as David Wolper and Mel Stuart along with lesser known independents and activists such as Kent Mackenzie Lynne Littman and Jesus Salvador Treviño While the former group reinvigorated a Cold War cultural liberalism the latter group advocated for social justice in a city plagued by severe class stratification and racial segregation Glick examines how mainstream and alternative filmmakers turned to the archives civic institutions and production facilities of Los Angeles in order to both change popular understandings of the city and shape the social consciousness of the nation

Global Encounters Iris Guske, 2011-05-25 Scholars throughout the world have come together again in a second book to share their most successful teaching practices and concerns in the areas of cross cultural studies and international education Many disciplines are represented and diverse subjects are discussed science literacy and worldview perspective second language acquisition student mobility and international universities teacher professional development and government programs for disadvantaged children zoos industrial paintings and dress designs as cultural artifacts Presentations on these topics are the result of papers given at the annual meeting of the Worldwide Forum on Education and Culture founded 10 years ago in Rome Italy The organization regularly attracts some 100 scholars and practitioners in the fields of education literacy language learning communication and inter cultural studies from all five continents to its annual congress in Rome These conferences as well as this up to date compilation of multi disciplinary academic papers are meant to highlight the growing need for culturally sensitive education that draws on the strengths of both traditional teaching methods and technology rich forms of instruction as well as a host of national and international programs designed to empower teachers and students alike Engaged educators whose research and or critical discourse in classrooms all over the world has given rise to the present volume thus hope to share with a wider audience how they impart knowledge foster skills and nurture qualities in the next generation of global citizens that will enable them to negotiate their personal and professional lives in our modern world Even though communities may no longer be characterized by physical distances as barriers to communicative interchanges perceived and real rifts between different cultures are nevertheless coming alarmingly close to preventing meaningful communication from bringing about true understanding at the individual and societal levels The ontogenesis of the Worldwide Forum on Education and Culture is seen here clearly in the perspectives and presentations of diverse academics who are dedicated to teaching and learning toward the greater goal as Matthew Arnold said in Literature and Science of knowing ourselves and the world Korean War Filmography Robert J. Lentz, 2016-05-01 The Korean experience changed the way Americans viewed war The lack of a clear cut victory inspired filmmakers to try to make sense of fighting another country's civil war and risking American lives for an unpopular cause This filmography details more than 90 English language films Each entry includes complete cast and credit listings a plot synopsis evaluation review snippets and notice of video availability This book places each film in its historical context assesses the essential truthfulness of each film and evaluates its entertainment value and discusses how and why Korean War films differ from other Hollywood war genres Four appendices list the films by chronology production company and studio level of historical accuracy and subject and theme Additional appendices list films with incidental references to the Korean War documentaries on the Korean War and South Korean films about the war Photographs a bibliography and an index are included Adult Subject Catalog Orange County Public Library (Calif.), 1971 Screen World John Willis, 1968

Lentz, 2015-09-15 Lee Marvin did not receive his first starring film role until he was 40 but in three short years following the successes of Cat Ballou for which he won the Academy Award as Best Actor The Professionals and especially The Dirty Dozen he was the most popular film actor in America Marvin was a fascinating man a loving husband and father and one of the most natural effective actors of his time This is a comprehensive reference of the Oscar winning actor s work It includes biographical information on Marvin an analysis of each of his 64 movies chapters on his two television shows M Squad and Lawbreaker a listing of his television appearances and a complete filmography which includes video availability The work is supplemented with dozens of photographs and film stills The Publishers Weekly ,1972 The Voice of the Screen ,1928 Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915 Edge of the Screen Murray Pomerance,2024-11-14 This book is a series of seventeen meditations that revolve around the notion of the viewer s placement at the edge of the screen Every page is an opportunity to think about an aspect of film or of film viewing in new ways and to begin reconsidering deeply ingrained ways of unthinkingly characterizing and accounting for what it is that we watch when we watch a film what happens to us and how we make sense of and appreciate it This volume follows from three others by the author Virtuoso Film Performance and the Actor s Magic 2020 The Film Cheat Cinematic Artifice and Viewing Pleasure 2021 and Uncanny Cinema Agonies of the Viewing Experience 2022 All of these including Edge of the Screen meander and interrogate cinema as we watch it both connecting us to and disconnecting us from the moment of pleasure Each meditation is characterized by a deep penetration of the inquiring continually hungry authorial mind and a very extensive set of analyses of filmic moments from myriad films including 2001 A Space Odyssey Memento Zabriskie Point An American in Paris Planet of the Apes 1968 Superman 1978 Possessed The Jungle Book 1942 The Spy Who Came In from the Cold The Toll of the Sea Rope and numerous others These meditations are careful and philosophical as much as energetically ruminative yet are written in an accessible style for all interested readers who both love cinema and wonder about that love Each chapter can stand alone even though all work together to challenge perspectives on what we encounter experience think and feel when we watch films Across its chapters Edge of the Screen takes on a wide range of topics the ontology of film the relation between characters actors and the figures who appear onscreen film s relationships to the other arts especially painting but also novels and theatre the passage of time in film and its momentary character film criticism including deeply held values such as coherence film s relationship to mortality and more Contacting the Autistic Child Jorge L. Ahumada,Luisa C. Busch de Ahumada,2017-02-17 Amid long standing controversy on their causes which most regard as neurological and despite their increasing social impact there has been scant progress in the therapy of the autistic spectrum disorders Currently fashionable attempts at treatment through behavioural cognitive focal approaches do not seek resolution only re education and rehabilitation Contacting the Autistic Child explores the clinical process in the early psychoanalytic treatment of autistic children Organised around five detailed clinical case studies and drawing on the ideas of major clinicians in child analysis such as Tustin Winnicott and Alvarez this book sets out a clear programme for working with and understanding autistic children in a psychoanalytic setting with a particular focus on issues of clinical technique but also conceptual matters Working on the notion that autistic disorders come to be as Winnicott and Tustin saw it from an early rupture of the affective communication between baby and mother this book aims at reinstating such communication in the child analyst interaction By way of detailed description of what goes on in the analytic link the authors strive to make the reader share in what goes on in the clinical setting evincing how though at times excruciatingly hard on the therapist resolution is attainable Once the primal dialogue to use Ren Spitz s terms is reinstated in a stable way in session it flows by itself into the family ambience The clinical accounts of this book make the argument that psychoanalysis carried along Tustin s technical lines and subject to the proviso that treatment starts early preferably in the first three years of life is the treatment of choice for autistic spectrum disorders The strong methodological narrative is important and notable in light of the doubts criticism and uncertainty that have surrounded the psychoanalytic treatment of autism This novel highly detailed narrative of five successful early treatments aims to help dispel the pessimism pervading the field and help to redress the lives of many more children Contacting the Autistic Child will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists endeavouring to obtain results in a major area lacking resolute approaches Technology Transfer in Fibres, Textiles and Apparel Gerard Karel Boon,1979-02-28
