Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa,2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard s phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited      Italian Women Filmmakers and the Gendered Screen Maristella Cantini,2013-12-17 Featuring essays by top scholars and interviews with acclaimed directors this book examines Italian women s authorship in film and their visions of reality The contributors use feminist film criticism in the analysis of their works and give direct voices to the artists who are constantly excluded by the conventional Italian film criticism      The Italian Cinema Book Peter Bondanella,2019-07-25 THE ITALIAN CINEMA BOOK is an essential guide to the most important historical aesthetic and cultural aspects of Italian cinema from 1895 to the present day With contributions from 39 leading international scholars the book is structured around six chronologically organised sections THE SILENT ERA 1895 22 THE BIRTH OF THE TALKIES AND THE FASCIST ERA 1922 45 POSTWAR CINEMATIC CULTURE 1945 59 THE GOLDEN AGE OF ITALIAN CINEMA 1960 80 AN AGE OF CRISIS TRANSITION AND CONSOLIDATION 1981 TO THE PRESENT NEW DIRECTIONS IN CRITICAL APPROACHES TO ITALIAN CINEMA Acutely aware of the contemporary rethinking of Italian cinema history Peter Bondanella has brought together a diverse range of essays which represent the cutting edge of Italian film theory and criticism This provocative collection will provide the film student scholar or enthusiast with a comprehensive understanding of the major developments in what might be called twentieth century Italy s greatest and most original art form

Italian Film in the Light of Neorealism Millicent Marcus, 2020-03-31 The movement known as neorealism lasted seven years generated only twenty one films failed at the box office and fell short of its didactic and aesthetic aspirations Yet it exerted such a profound influence on Italian cinema that all the best postwar directors had to come to terms with it whether in seeming imitation the early Olmi in commercial exploitation the middle Comencini or in ostensible rejection the recent Tavianis Despite the reactionary pressures of the marketplace and the highly personalized visions of Fellini Antonioni And Visconti Italian cinema has maintained its moral commitment to use the medium in socially responsible ways if not to change the world as the first neorealists hoped then at least to move filmgoers to face the pressing economic political and human problems in their midst From Rossellini s Open City 1945 to the Taviani brothers Night of the Shooting Stars 1982 The author does close readings of seventeen films that tell the story of neorealism s evolving influence on Italian postwar cinematic expression Other films discussed are De Sica s Bicycle Thief and Umberto D De Santis s Bitter Rice Comencini s Bread Love and Fantasy Fellini s La strada Visconti s Senso Antonioni s Red Desert Olmi s Il Posto Germi s Seduced and Abandoned Pasolini s Teorema Petri s Investigation of a Citizen above Suspicion Bertolucci s The Conformist Rosi s Christ Stopped at Eboli and Wertmuller s Love and Anarchy Scola s We All Loved Each Other So Much provides the occasion for the author s own retrospective consideration of how Italian cinema has fulfilled or disappointed the promise of neorealism
