Scrim; Radio Rebel in Retrospect Les Edwards, 1971 Scrim Les Edwards, 2009 The political and broadcasting controversy surrounding Colin Scrimgeour and his radio church programme The Friendly Road during the 1930s and early 1940s Secret History Steven Loveridge, Richard S. Hill, 2023-07-13 In 1900 a handful of New Zealand police detectives watched out for spies seditionists and others who might pose a threat to state and society The Police Force remained the primary instrument of such human intelligence in New Zealand until 1956 when a decade into the Cold War a dedicated Security Service was created Over the same period New Zealand's role within signals intelligence networks evolved from the Imperial Wireless Chain to the UKUSA intelligence alliance now known as Five Eyes The first of two volumes chronicling the history of state surveillance in New Zealand Secret History opens up the secret world of security intelligence through to 1956 It is the story of the surveillers who in times of war and peace turmoil and tranquillity monitored and analysed perceived threats to national interests It is also the story of the surveilled those whose association with organisations and movements led to their public and private lives being documented in secret files Secret History explores a hidden and intriguing dimension of New Zealand history one which sits uneasily with cherished national notions of an exceptionally fair and open society Coates of the Kaipara Fay Hercock, 2013-11-01 In the course of his political career Gordon Coates 1878 1943 experienced the extremes of popular adulation and contempt Handsome young and debonair with the common touch he was a successful minister in the early 1920s and seemed full of promise when he became Prime Minister in 1925 on the death of W F Massey Ten years later after serving as Minister of Finance in the coalition government during the Depression his reputation had sunk to its lowest ebb He went on to serve with distinction in the War Cabinet winning the confidence and respect of former Labour opponents Dying suddenly in 1943 he left many friends and supporters who to this day regard him as one of New Zealand's political giants Michael Bassett follows his successful biography of Sir Joseph Ward with an equally readable life of this younger Prime Minister It is one of the few scholarly biographies of a figure on the right of New Zealand politics With full access to the Coates family papers and to material gathered by other researchers Bassett is able to offer a thoughtful reassessment of the achievements and failures of Coates's political career He provides clear explanations of the sometimes complex issues drawing once again on his own familiarity with the pressures and pleasures of political life The study of the politician is combined with a fascinating account of the private man including his Northland origins his farming background his gallant military service in the First World War his personal and family life and his character The Golden Age of Radio in the Home John Whitley Stokes, 1986 Truth Betrayed William J. Williams, 1981 The New Zealand Journal of History, 2008 The State in New Zealand, 1840-1984 Michael Bassett, 1998 In this study historian and former politician Michael Bassett explores how and why the state became such an active and interventionist player in New Zealand life developing subsidizing and regulating the economy and increasingly protecting citizens from the cradle to the grave It looks in detail at the many schemes in which a paternalistic government became involved especially the extensive social programmes taken for granted by the people but from the 1960s increasingly difficult to sustain economically Bassett makes heavy use of departmental archives and concludes that the continuing process of intervention had to be halted Media Matter John Reynolds, 1984 Global Guide to Media & Communications John A.
