SOFIA

Wir alle tragen Masken, um der Welt ein Gesicht zu zeigen, das nichts über unsere Abgründe verrät. Manche davon sitzen mit der Zeit so fest, dass man zu vergessen droht, wie es in Wahrheit dahinter aussieht. Bis man sich selbst nicht mehr wiederkennt.

Meine aktuelle Maske besteht aus verschmiertem Mascara und den zweifelhaften Entscheidungen der letzten Nacht. Sie ist mittlerweile so sehr zu einem Teil von mir geworden, dass ich nicht einmal mehr zusammenzucke, wenn ich in den Spiegel schaue. Das ist nicht das Gesicht einer Fremden, sondern das Ich, das ich inzwischen bin.

Um bloß keine Geräusche zu verursachen, schlürche ich auf Zehenspitzen durch die dümmrige, mir völlig fremde Wohnung. Meine Sachen liegen quer über den gesamten Boden verteilt und bilden eine Spur, die von der Eingangstür ins Schlafzimmer führt. Die Unterwäsche und meinen Rock habe ich gestern Nacht offenbar achtlos direkt neben dem Bett fallen gelassen und einer meiner Schuhe ist unter das Sofa geschlüpft. Meine Bluse finde ich schließlich als trauriges Krümel in einer Ecke wieder. Als ich mich bücke, essential resource for anyone interested in women's lives and sexuality as well as scholars in the field Love Letters from Fathers HRI, 2015-12-15 Remember the fathers from Chosun Dynasty who wrote letters out of love and worry for their children. The gentlemen from Chosun such as Lee Hwang Yoo Sung ryong and Park Ji won they were fathers before they were scholars, officers and writers. Through the letters to their sons we aim to explore their life style and the value systems including education methods, studying skills and attitudes towards others. We can also learn the distinctive personalities of the fathers who taught their children according to their personalities, strengths and weaknesses. Who could possibly know a person better than his or her parents? We will read the letters of the great men from Chosun who were fathers before they were scholars, officers and writers. What kind of letter did Lee Hwang Toegye (1501-1570), scholar and civil servant from the mid Chosun era, send to his son who had lost confidence and have given up the state exam? A writer from the mid Chosun era Baek Kwang hun Okbong (1537-1582) was relieved to find out his two sons safely entered into the exam station but still expressed his nervousness in his letters. The father who lived in Seoul alone working as a low officer to another worries more and more about his wife at home and the unreliable children. Yoo Sung ryong Seoae (1542-1607), a civil servant in the mid Chosun era, writes about his education experience for his children who had lost the time to study due to household problems and wars. He is sorry about the lost time when every second is precious for young people and kindly teaches his children about studying with curiosity and preciseness. Park Ji won Yonam (1737-1805), a writer from the late Chosun period, expresses his joy about his newborn grandson by writing that he can almost hear the baby's cry from the paper. He also talks about how to take care of the sick daughter in law after childbirth. Ahn Jung bok Sunam (1712-1805), a scholar in the late Chosun period, writes a letter to his 10 year old young son who is on his way to the bride's house to marry, worrying that he might make mistakes. Park Je ga Chojung (1750-1805), a civil servant during the late Chosun period, sends letters to his son about every detail of his exile life. Even within the complicated situation, the love and longing for his family can be easily traced in the letters. The letter he first sent to his three sons as soon as he arrived at the exile place starts with "Don't worry." Kim Jung hee Chusa (1786-1856), a scholar and artist from the late Chosun era, does not lose his interest in objects such as how to write and draw and telling the story of making his own stuffs even in letters to his son. He delivers the heart and advice as a father proud of a son who asks for advice on writing. Kang Se hwang Pyoam (1713-1791), a civil servant and artist of the late Chosun period, writes a letter to his son about the conversations he had shared with his companions and sons and advice about his memorial service after death. Lee Sik Taekdang (1584-1647), a civil servant from the mid Chosun era, acknowledges the worries of his son regarding the health of the father and soothes him to stop worrying and take care of himself instead. Also he sends his love by sharing the secrets to accept poverty and to grow minds in an attempt to calm him and guide him to dream big. As a scholar and civil servant during the late Chosun era, Park Se dang Seogyu (1629-1703) is proud that his son is trying to read a history book and further writes a letter to teach him how to read history books. Let's listen to the father's voice reminding his son that reading is to move the letters on the pile of papers directly into the heart Lee Hwang leaves a message to his nearly 30 year old son who is taking off to take the state exam about how to study and how to behave around friends He expresses his feelings of not wanting his son to be left out from others because of lacking any sense by just being older than his colleagues The father who lived in silence far away writes a letter before the son s wedding imagining the whole family getting together at home Also the father who didn t hid his proudness when his son was praised by many teachers including Zhuangzi reminds the son that no one stays young forever to emphasize doing one s best at everything The father who excitingly welcomed a grandchild at the age of 60 scolds the son for not letting him know how the baby looks like through his letter He also shows that he is slightly hurt of not hearing from the son even after sending the meat and food prepared by himself The father who was trapped inside Namhansansung during the Manchu war of 1636 communicated with his brothers and children through letters As his wife grew sick due to worrying and his son became extremely sensitive at any kind of rumors related to the father he writes about his worries and requests in his letters rabbis and Jewish community leaders into a taken for granted truth Hollywood Exile, Or How I Learned to Love the Blacklist Bernard Gordon,2001-03-01 Movingly describes how the blacklist cut short his screenwriting career in Hollywood and forced him to work in France and Spain A success story that includes the films El Cid 55 Days at Peking The Thin Red Line Krakatoa East of Java Day of the Triffids Earth vs the Flying Saucer Horror Express and many others Civilisation Daryl Conant M. Ed.,2015-02-23 civilisation The Undeniable Truth is an in depth look at what we are who we are and the ultimate purpose of our existence The cosmos is a grand miracle and though we dont know its origin or purpose one thing does remain true and that is that the entire cosmos is made up of energy the energy of creation The Earth is a living biosphere that is a product of the atomic expansion of the universe The Earths containment system allows for the sustainability of life During the early stages of civilization life was reckless barbaric and uncontained It would take thousands of years for the primitive energy to evolve into a sophisticated civilized energy One of the key factors for a shift in human behavior was through the conception of ego energy The ego would be responsible for the governing power of civilization known as The Mass of Collective Energy Civilisation explores illusionary perceptions projections and reflections of the ego Civilisation is a presentation of conscious awareness The Psychology of Love Michele A. Paludi,2012-03-09 From arranged marriages to online dating this four volume work presents everything from personal accounts to empirical evidence to document what creates love in our culture as well as around the world The field of biology views love as a hard wired mammalian drive akin to thirst and hunger In contrast psychology views love from a social and cultural perspective where our drive to find love and our responses to it are highly dependent on societal norms In The Psychology of Love esteemed author and educator Michele A Paludi examines love through all lenses thereby providing readers a deeper understanding of the ways we can express caring sensitivity empathy and respect toward one another Each chapter in this comprehensive four volume work includes a scholarly overview of empirical research and theories about the psychology of love In addition individuals own definitions of love are included Special attention is paid to accepted standards of love across a variety of cultures the ways individuals express liking and love across the lifecycle and patterns in dissolutions of friendships and romantic relationships making note of gender and race differences For Love of Drama Rolf McEwen,2004 This book is about acting It s about money It s about people who love the arts It s about performing arts and how to make them happen in high school how to make them affordable by selecting great scripts to attract paying audiences The sale of tickets provides the revenue to pay all costs of play production with a profit margin to boot The book provides practical suggestions for budgeting cost control play selection auditions casting rehearsing planning discipline and performance The book exudes the joy that accompanies working with artistic young people who are intent on excellence It communicates the director s personal philosophy of allowing actors to begin a play by creating their own character development which can be shaped by the director over time It promotes the concept that the students not the directors do the work The students study the play rehearse the play and perform the play with guidance from the director but without excessive direction The director for example allows students to do the stage management the lighting design and operation and the sound effects The director does not go back stage at all during rehearsals or performances leaving students to solve their own problems and to make the production happen without adult assistance The result is serious student responsibility and determination The result is team work and cooperation Ideas for publicity are provided in the text as well as suggestions for play selections planning arrangements budgets for various plays and ideas for acting and directing The director's philosophy is revealed including persuasive arguments for the great value derived from participation in performance activities The book is a manual for creating and maintaining a drama program which brings out the best in the actors stage hands and technical workers It makes an argument that there is no need to curtail or eliminate drama dance music and other performing arts when finances grow tight because these programs can pay for themselves if quality shows are performed for a public that is willing to pay for good performances For Love of Drama makes a passionate plea for the establishment of artistic programs in the schools which allow students to inspire their minds develop their skills and enjoy working with other talented young people in creating excellent performances Go ahead treat yourself to a little love for the arts by reading this lively book It is accompanied by 94 dramatic stage photos taken during rehearsals revealing quality acting costuming and set design It's a wonderful manual filled with practical ideas on how to keep a performing arts program thriving for the sake of gifted young people
