OF THE GERMAN BATTLESHIP
—— BISMARCK ——
—— 27th MAY 1941 ——

After sinking HMS Hood on the 24th May Bismarck disengaged heading south. At midnight HMS Victorious sighted her and attacked with her Swordfish scoring one minor hit. All contact was then lost. RAF Coastal Command joined in the search and reported a sighting mid-morning of the 26th May HMS Ark Royal was the first to the scene scoring two hits damaging her rudders, propellers and steering gear. HMS's Rodney and King George V caught up on the 27th May, opened fire, but was unable to sink the battleship. HMS Dorsetshire attacked at close range firing three torpedoes. It is not certain whether this or, the order by Admiral Lutgens to scuttle that spelled the end of the Bismarck. Of the crew on board of 2200 only 107 were to survive.

Levy,2003-10-23 This book marks the first comprehensive history of Britain's naval bulwark the Home Fleet It illuminates the vital role that fleet played in preserving Britain as a base of operations against Hitler We see portrayed the hard days of blockade patrol and battle that encompassed the Home Fleet's war And we see how that war was made harder by weaknesses at the Admiralty and by the damaging interference of the Minister of Defence Winston Churchill

We Can Take It! Mark Connelly,2014-07-10 We Can Take It shows that the British remember the war in a peculiar way thanks to a mix of particular images and evidence Our memory has been shaped by material which is completely removed from historical reality These images including complete inventions have combined to make a new history The vision is mostly cosy and suits the way in which the Britons conceive of themselves dogged good humoured occasionally bumbling unified and enjoying diversity In fact Britons load their memory towards the early part of the war Dunkirk Blitz Battle of Britain rather than when we were successful in the air or against Italy and Germany with invasions This suits our love of being the underdog fighting against the odds and being in a crisis Conversely the periods of the war during which Britain was in the ascendant are perversely far more hazy in the public memory Status of National Direct Student
