Grief and the Healing Arts Sandra L. Bertman,2018-02-06 For nearly three decades Sandra Bertman has been exploring the power of the arts and belief symbols metaphors stories to alleviate psychological and spiritual pain not only of patients grieving family members and affected communities but also of the nurses clergy and physicians who minister to them Her training sessions and clinical interventions are based on the premise that bringing out the creative potential inherent in each of us is just as relevant perhaps more so as psychiatric theory and treatment models since grief and loss are an integral part of life Thus this work was compiled to illuminate the many facets that link grief counseling and creativity The multiple strategies suggested in these essays will help practitioners enlarge their repertoire of hands on skills and foster introspection and empathy in readers      Military Chaplains' Review ,1983      Father Loss Elyce Wakerman,2015-11-03 As Elyce

Wakerman found in the scores of interviews she conducted the loss of a father through death divorce or abandonment is the event that shapes a girl s life and all her future relationships In my fantasy one woman commented he remains the perfect all giving man a difficult role for any other man to fill Based partly on the author s experience partly on her in depth interviews and partly on a questionnaire she developed with psychologist Holly Barrett to which almost six hundred women responded Father Loss provides the clearest portrait yet of a very special group of women As a group they express their insecurities Sometimes I wonder if I ll ever be able to love a man totally because that would mean I didn t love my father anymore Leslie Yet individually many have become outstanding achievers including Eleanor Roosevelt He dominated my life as long as he lived and was the love of my life for years after he died Helen Gurney Brown People in business my bosses I look to them all as fathers Barbara Streisand Gloria Steinem Geraldine Ferraro and many others A bestseller when it was first published twenty five years ago and now updated and revised Father Loss gives information and insight to fatherless daughters to widows and divorcees with daughters and to every father who needs to understand the vital role he plays in his daughter s life as the first man she ever loves      On Children and Death Elisabeth Kübler-Ross,2011-07-26 On Children and Death is a

Christ, Kalman Flomenhaft, 2012-12-06 The past decade has brought extraordinary gains in the outlook for children stricken with cancer Though cancer remains a leading cause of death for children and young adults more victims of child hood cancer today will survive than will die The therapeutic advances and the optimism they instill have prompted researchers and clinicians to analyze the impact of cancer upon young patients and their families and to devise more effective intervention strategies Hope and survival juxtaposed with the continuing high mortality associated with certain forms of the illness add new challenges to management of the psychosocial aspects of cancer To respond to these challenges we need research as rigorous as that which continues to make inroads in treating the physical illness This specific concern for the needs of children suffering from cancer and their families has paralleled an increasing sensitivity on the part of the medical community and the public at large to the limitations of specialized high technology health care practices      A

Traumatically Brain-Damaged Barry A. Edelstein, Eugene T. Couture, 2013-11-22 This book developed out of the editors longstanding interest in the retraining of traumatically brain damaged adults and the management of their behavior by family members A search for relevant experimental evidence to support the clinical use of behavioral principles for retraining which began in 1977 turned up little empirical support Moreover the literature on retraining was dispersed among a variety of journals published in various countries Nowhere was there a compendium of literature that addressed issues of assessment and retraining There was no place to turn if one wanted to move from a standard neuropsychological evaluation to the retraining of skill deficits revealed in the evaluation We have attempted to edit a book that represents what we had hoped to find in the literature and could be used by professionals in clinical psychology clinical neuropsychology rehabilitation medicine physical therapy speech therapy and other disciplines that address rehabilitation of brain damaged adults a book that addresses assessment and rehabilitation issues and is sufficiently detailed to offer the reader a starting point in developing behavioral assessment and rehabilitation programs The book contains conceptual foundations reviews of research descriptions of successful rehabilitation programs and relatively detailed approaches to the retraining of specific skills A shift from an assessment based practice to one encompassing both prescriptive assessment and treatment has become a recognized transition in the neuropsychological literature and was best articulated in an article by Gerald Goldstein in March of 1979 Health, Medicine, Society M. Sokolowska, Jacek Holówka, A. Ostrowska, 2012-12-06 This volume contains a selection of papers presented at the International Conference on the Sociology of Medicine held between August 20th and 25th 1973 in Warsaw Jablonna The Conference was organized by the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology of the Polish Academy of Sciences in collaboration with the Research Committee on the Sociology of Medicine of the International Sociological Association The participants included medical sociologists from the United States and from the countries of Western and Eastern Europe including a delegation of general sociologists and physicians and also a group of young medical sociologists from Poland Dr Leo Kaprio Director of the Regional Office for Europe of the World Health Organization together with a member of his staff was also present The Conference was opened by the Deputy Minister of Health and Social Welfare of the Polish People's Republic Dr Ryszard Brzozowski The first Chairman was Prof Jan Szczepanski Vice President of the Polish Academy of Sciences and Director of the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology The first speech was delivered by Prof Jivko Oshavkov from Bulgaria then Vice Chairman of the International Sociological Association The Conference had several objectives which we believe were successfully achieved It was intended first to provide an occasion to bring participants of East and West together and give them a chance to exchange information on the state of medical sociology in different countries Clinical Training in Serious Mental Illness, 1990 Personality, Roles, and Social Behavior W. Ickes, E.S. Knowles, 2012-12-06 Personality and Roles Sources of Regularities in Social Behavior For behavioral scientists whether they identify primarily with the science of psychology or with that of sociology there may be no challenge greater than that of discovering regularities and consistencies in social behavior After all it is such regularities and consistencies that lend predictability to the behavior of individuals in social contexts in particular to those events that constitute dyadic interactions and group processes In the search for behavioral consistencies two theoretical constructs have emerged as guiding principles personality and roles The theoretical construct of personality seeks to understand regularities and consistencies in social behavior in terms of relatively stable traits enduring dispositions and other propensities for example needs motives and attitudes that are thought to reside within individuals Because it focuses primarily on the features of individuals the construct of personality is fundamentally psychological in nature By contrast the theoretical construct of roles seeks to understand regularities and consistencies in social behavior in terms of the directive influence of coherent sets of rules and prescriptions that are provided by the interpersonal occupational and societal categories of which individuals are continuing members Because it focuses primarily on features of social structures the construct of roles is fundamentally sociological in nature
