Lost On Everest The Search For Mallory:

Lost on Everest P. L. Firstbrook,1999 In May 1999 when Conrad Anker and his team accomplished their mission on Everest to discover the frozen body of George Mallory legendary British mountaineer their work had only just begun Was their physical evidence to prove that Mallory reached the summit of Mount Everest 29 years before Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay The Lost Explorer Conrad Anker,David Roberts,1999-12-22 This is the adventure story of the year how Conrad Anker found the body of George Mallory on Mount Everest casting an entirely new light on the mystery of the explorer who may have conquered Everest seventy five years ago On June 8 1924 George Leigh Mallory and Andrew Sandy Irvine were last seen climbing toward the summit of Mount Everest Clouds soon closed around them and they vanished into history Ever since mountaineers have wondered whether they reached the summit twenty nine years before Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay On May 1 1999 Conrad Anker one of the world s strongest mountaineers discovered Mallory s body lying facedown frozen into the scree and naturally mummified at 27 000 feet on Everest s north face The condition of the body as well as the artifacts found with Mallory including goggles an altimeter and a carefully wrapped bundle of personal letters are important clues in determining his fate Seventeen days later Anker free climbed the Second Step a 90 foot sheer cliff that is the single hardest obstacle on the north ridge The first expedition known to have conquered the Second Step a Chinese team in 1975 had tied a ladder to the cliff leaving unanswered the question of whether Mallory could have climbed it in 1924 Anker s climb was the first test since Mallory s of the cliff s true difficulty In treacherous conditions Anker led teammate Dave Hahn from the Second Step to the summit Reflecting on the climb Anker explains why he thinks Mallory and Irvine failed to make the summit but at the same time he expresses his awe at Mallory s achievement with the primitive equipment of the time Stunningly handsome and charismatic Mallory charmed everyone who met him during his lifetime and continues to fascinate mountaineers today He was an able writer a favorite of the Bloomsbury circle and a climber of legendary gracefulness The Lost Explorer is the remarkable story of this extraordinarily talented man and of the equally talented modern climber who spearheaded a discovery that may ultimately help solve the mystery of Mallory s disappearance Lost on Everest P. L. Firstbrook,2003 Hillary and Sherpa Tensing Norgay became the first men to reach the summit of Everest Or were they Twenty nine years previously George Leigh Mallory and Andrew Sandy Irvine died on their attempt on the summit Many believe they were successful but perished on their return This passionate debate has lasted nearly 75 years and the truth can now be uncovered Lost on Everest P. L. Firstbrook,1999 On 8 June 1924 George Mallory and Andrew Irvine left their tent high on the slopes of Mount Everest and climbed into history They were seen at 12 50 p m just 240 metres from the summit and going strong for the top Within minutes Mallory and Irvine had disappeared in a snowstorm and were never seen alive again What happened to these two pioneering climbers is the most famous mystery in the history of mountaineering For 75 years there has been fierce debate over whether they were the first to reach the summit 29 years before Sir Edmund Hillary and Sherpa Tenzing Norgay In March 1999 an expedition primarily sponsored by the BBC climbed to the North Face of Everest Their discoveries became front page news around the world This gripping story by film producer Peter Firstbrook fully explores the events leading up to Mallory and Irvine s historic attempt to reach the summit of the highest mountain in the world giving a dramatic first hand account of the 1999 search expedition Firstbrook utilises his extensive historical research and the amazing evidence found in 1999 to piece together the final hours of the two brave heroes George Mallory and Andrew Irvine
