Soister, Henry Nicolella, Steve Joyce, 2014-01-10 During the Silent Era when most films dealt with dramatic or comedic takes on the boy meets girl boy loses girl theme other motion pictures dared to tackle such topics as rejuvenation revivication mesmerism the supernatural and the grotesque A Daughter of the Gods 1916 The Phantom of the Opera 1925 The Magician 1926 and Seven Footprints to Satan 1929 were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of highly unlikely Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror science fiction and fantasy in the years from 1913 through 1929 Postmodern Journeys Joseph Natoli, 2001-01-01 Part memoir part cultural criticism this fast paced ride through the postmodern landscape of American popular culture explores how our responses to headline events and popular films help script the ways in which we imagine ourselves and the world around us Popular Mechanics, 1926-08 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Clinical Chaos Linda Chamberlain, Michael R. Butz, 2016-01-28 Psychology and the social sciences are in need of a new foundation one that provides a better model for understanding complex behavior Chaos theory and its newest permutation complexity theory offers an innovative exciting and potentially revolutionary leap forward in the evolution of scientific thought In Clinical Chaos therapists and theoreticians from various areas in the social sciences will explore the relevance and implications for non linear dynamics in observing explaining and understanding human behavior At last the scientific search can again encompass surprise transformation unpredictability and pattern This book is intended to introduce social scientists to chaos through paths that are already familiar By linking chaos theory with existing psychological theories and established areas of clinical pursuit Clinical Chaos emphasizes the relevance of this new science in providing a more flexible useful model for complexities of life San Representation Keyan Tomaselli, Michael Wessels, 2017-12-22 The San or Bushmen of southern Africa have exerted a fascination over generations of writers and scholars from novelists and anarchists to ethnologists and geneticists and also occupy a special place in the popular imagination as the First People and the contemporary remnant of spiritual and natural man The ways in which particular groups of people from southern Africa have been traditionally categorised and positioned as objects of scrutiny by a range of academic disciplines is increasingly being contested and questioned There is a growing awareness of the cultural economic and genetic entanglement of the peoples of the region This book examines how San and Khoe people are represented by others as well as by those who identify as San or Khoe The book interrogates the ways in which disciplines through their methodologies and ways of authorising knowledge not only discover or reveal knowledge but produce it in ways that involve complex and often ambiguous relationships with power structures and forms of intellectual symbolic and cultural capital One major trend that emerges is that the San and Khoe can no longer be seen as people of the past but have to be acknowledged as contemporary and socially situated individuals and communities who are increasingly contesting the representations which others have imposed on them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts A Journal of South North Cultural and Media Studies

Perfumery Steve Van Toller, George H. Dodd, 2013-04-17 THE SENSE OF SMELL The nose is normally mistakenly assumed to be the organ of smell reception It is not The primary function of the nose is to regulate the temperature and humidity of inspired air thereby protecting the delicate linings of the lungs This is achieved by the breathed air passing through narrow passageways formed by three nasal turbinates in each nostril The turbinates are covered by spongy vascular cells which can expand or contract to open or close the nasal pathways The olfactory receptors innervated by the 1st cranial nerve are located at the top of the nose There are about 50 million smell receptors in the human olfactory epithelia the total size of which in humans is about that of a small postage stamp with half being at the top of the left and half at the top of the right nostril The receptive surfaces of olfactory
