Media Talk Spoken Discourse On Tv And Radio:

Media Talk Andrew Tolson, 2005-09-12 Over the past twenty years a focus on broadcast talk has emerged as an innovative approach to studying the media Adapting perspectives derived from Discourse and Conversation Analysis this approach investigates distinctive forms of mediated speech on TV and radio It provides original insights into the ways in which broadcasting stages discourse events interviews debates commentaries and verbal performances which are designed to attract and involve overhearing audiences Media Talk is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of this important work in terms which are accessible to students and non specialist readers It is however much more than a textbook being augmented throughout by the author's own research into contemporary sometimes controversial developments An introduction to this area of media studies and its distinctive methodologies is followed by chapters on news talk political talk sports talk radio DJ talk talk shows celebrity interviews and reality TV The book is illustrated with examples from British and American radio and television Particular themes include the so called dumbing down of news and current affairs in increasingly conversational forms the design of forms of talk to appeal to particular target audiences the development of new forms of reality programming featuring unscripted verbal performances by ordinary people Talking with Television

Helen Wood, 2009 Television talk shows have fueled debates about television's faltering role as a medium for social interaction but this book points out that many viewers don't just absorb the shows they react to them and even talk back to their televisions By observing and analyzing the daily viewing habits of a dozen women viewers Helen Wood interprets these experiences as daily rituals of self reflexivity focusing on the performance of gender as a doubling of place in contemporary conditions of modernity Directly challenging the fundamental assumption that new media forms are uniquely interactive Talking with Television reveals that televisual styles particularly talk based TV have always sought to encourage a participatory relationship with viewers at home Media Discourse Mary Talbot, 2007-09-15 This lively and accessible study of media and discourse combines theoretical reflection with empirical engagement and brings together insights from a range of disciplines Within media and cultural studies the study of media texts is dominated by an exclusive focus on representation This book adds long overdue attention to social interaction The book is divided into two sections The first outlines key theoretical issues and concepts including informalisation genre hybridisation positioning dialogism and discourse The second is a sustained interrogation of social interaction in and around media Re-examining issues of representation and interaction it critically assesses work on the para social and broadcast sociability then explores distinct sites of interaction production communities audience communities and interactivity with audiences Media Talk and Political Elections in Europe and America A. Tolson, M. Ekstrom, 2013-10-17 This book makes an important contribution to the study of political communication Its chapters analyse forms of media talk associated with contemporary political elections Key topics include changing forms of political interview televised political debates and the use of multimedia in promotional discourse The Cultural Histories of Radio Luxembourg and Europe n°1 Richard Legay, 2023-12-30 This book focuses on two commercial radio stations Radio Luxembourg and Europe n 1 which were popular institutions in Western Europe throughout the Long Sixties working across media and broadcasting transnationally It argues that the existence of an overarching dispositif of commercial radio stations enabled them to operate on various dimensions and differentiated them from other broadcasters The book therefore answers current calls in media history to look beyond national and single medium borders and contributes to the cultural and media history of Western Europe Media, Policy and Interaction William Housley, Richard Fitzgerald, 2016-04-29 Situated within the field of discourse oriented approaches to policy and media this collection explores the interface between government media and the public highlighting the increasing importance placed on media channelled public opinion as part of a democratic process The authors use a variety of discourse analytic methods including CA MCA Discourse Analysis and Interactionism to provide discussions around the social organization of policy debate in media sites including news interviews public access broadcasts broadcast debates panel discussions mediated government initiatives newspapers and news broadcasts The book s geographical coverage spans the USA Canada the UK Europe Asia and Australia This volume offers a major contribution to discourse analysis and its emphasis on policy substance will appeal to a broad audience in social and public policy political communication journalism and politics Transnationalizing Radio Research Golo Föllmer, Alexander Badenoch, 2018-10-02 Transnationalizing Radio Research presents a theoretical and methodological guide for exploring radio s multiple global ages from its earliest years through its recent digital transformations It offers radio scholars theoretical tools and concrete case studies for moving beyond national research frames It gives radio practitioners inspiration for production and archiving and offers scholars from many disciplines new ways to incorporate radio s vital voices into work on transnational institutions communities histories and identities News and Politics Stephen Cushion, 2015-03-24 News and Politics critically examines television news bulletins still the primary source of information for most people and asks whether the wider pace and immediacy of 24 hour news culture has influenced their format and style over time Drawing on the concepts of mediatization and journalistic interventionism Stephen Cushion empirically traces the shift from edited to live reporting from a cross national perspective focussing on the two way convention in political coverage and the more interpretive approach to journalism it promotes Challenging prevailing academic wisdom Cushion argues that the mediatization of news does not necessarily reflect a commercial logic or a lowering of journalism standards In particular the rise of live two ways can potentially enhance viewers understanding of public affairs moving reporters beyond their visual backdrops and reliance on political soundbites by asking journalists to scrutinize the actions of political elites interpret competing source claims and to explain the broader context to everyday stories Considering the future of 24 hour news a final discussion asks whether new content and social media platforms including Twitter and BuzzFeed enhance or weaken democratic culture This timely analysis of News and Politics is ideal for students of political communication and journalism studies as well as communication studies media studies and political science Language and Manipulation in House of Cards Sandrine Sorlin, 2016-08-12 This book is to date the first monograph length study of the popular American political TV series House of Cards It proposes an encompassing analysis of the first three seasons from the unusual angles of discourse and dialogue The study of the stylistic idiosyncrasies of the ruthless main protagonist Frank Underwood is completed by a pragmatic and cognitive approach exposing the main characters manipulative strategies to win over the other Taking into account the socio cultural context and the specificities of the TV medium the volume focuses on the workings of interaction as well as the impact of the direct address to the viewer The book critically uses the latest theories in pragmatics and stylistics in its attempt at providing a pragma rhetorical theory of manipulation Digimodernism Alan Kirby, 2009-05-01 Almost without anybody noticing a new cultural paradigm has come center stage displacing an exhausted and increasingly marginalised postmodernism Dr Alan Kirby calls this cultural paradigm digimodernism a name comprising both its central technical mode and its privileging of the fingers and thumbs in its use The increasing irrelevancy of postmodernism requires a new theory to underpin our current digital culture Style, Mediation, and Change Janus Mortensen, Nikolas Coupland, Jacob Thøgersen, 2017 Technologically mediated talk is organized around familiar styles styles of person relationship and genre But media also consistently remake and re style these familiar patterns This book brings together original research on media styling in different national contexts and languages written by authors at the forefront of sociolinguistic research on mediated talk It highlights and theorizes how creative acts of mediated styling can promote social and sociolinguistic change The globalized world is already massively mediatized what we know about language people and society is necessarily shaped through our engagement with media But talking media are caught up in wider currents of rapid change too Creative innovations in media styling can heighten reflexive awareness but they can also unsettle existing understandings of language society relations In reporting new investigations by expert researchers this book gives an original and timely account of how style media and change need to be integrated further to advance the discipline of sociolinguistics The Handbook of Language, Gender, and Sexuality Susan Ehrlich, Miriam Meyerhoff, Janet Holmes, 2014-03-19 Significantly expanded and updated the second edition of The Handbook of Language Gender and Sexuality brings together a team of the leading specialists in the field to create a comprehensive overview of key historical themes and issues along with methodologies and cutting edge research topics Examines the dynamic ways that women and men develop and manage gendered identities through their talk presenting data and case studies from interactions in a range of social contexts and different communities Substantially updated for the second edition including a new introduction 24 newly commissioned chapters ten updated chapters and a comprehensive index Includes new chapters on research in non English speaking countries from Asia to South America and cutting edge topics such as language gender and popular culture language and sexual identities and language gender and socio phonetics New sections focus on key themes and issues in the field such as methodological approaches to language and gender incorporating new chapters on conversation analysis critical discourse analysis corpus linguistics and variation theory Provides unrivalled geographic coverage and an essential resource for a wide range of disciplines from linguistics psychology sociology and anthropology to communication and gender studies

The Contemporary Goffman Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2010-01-26 The Contemporary Goffman highlights the continued relevance of Goffman to sociology and related disciplines to theoretical discussions as well as to substantive empirical research through contributions dealing with a variety of topics and themes Radio Audiences and Participation in the Age of Network Society Tiziano Bonini, Belén Monclús, 2014-12-05 This book maps describes and further explores all contemporary forms of interaction between radio and its public with a specific focus on those forms of content co creation that link producers and listeners Each essay will analyze one or more case studies piecing together a map of emerging co creation practices in contemporary radio Contributors describe the rise of a new class of radio listeners the networked ones Networked audiences are made up of listeners that are not only able to produce written and audio content for radio and co create along with the radio producers even definitively bypassing the central hub of the radio station by making podcasts but that also produce social data calling for an alternative rating system which is less focused on attention and more on other sources such as engagement sentiment affection reputation and influence What are the economic and political consequences of this paradigm shift How are radio audiences perceived by radio producers in this new radioscope What s the true value of radio audiences in this new frame How do radio audiences take part in the radio flow in this age Are audiences interactions and co creations overrated or underrated by radio producers To what extent listeners generated content can be considered a form of participation or free labour exploitation What s the role of community radio in this new context These are some of the many issues that this book aims to explore Visit <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Radio-Audience-and-Participation-in-the-Age-of-Network-Society/869169869799842> for the book s Facebook page Studies in Political Humour Villy Tsakona, Diana Elena Popa, 2011-11-15 If politics is a serious matter and humour a funny one this volume investigates how and why the boundaries between the two are blurred politics can be represented in a humorous manner and humour can have a serious intent Political humour conveys criticism against the political status quo and or recycles and reinforces dominant views on politics The data analysed comes from European states with different sociopolitical histories and traditions and the methodologies adopted originate in different fields discourse analysis folklore and cultural studies media studies sociolinguistics sociology theatre semiotics The first part of the volume is dedicated to politicians humour as a means of public positioning deliberation and eventually attack against political adversaries while the second one involves political satire as realised in different genres animation impersonation and cartoons Last but not least the third part shows how political humour can be manipulated in public debates or become an integral part of postmodern art A Critical Public Relations Approach to Crisis Communication and Management Huabin Wang, 2022-10-19 This book proposes a critical public relations approach to analyzing crisis communication with Malaysia Airlines flight 370 MH370 disappearance 2014 2018 as a case study It examines the discursive process of Malaysia s crisis response and image building tracing Malaysia Airlines during the immediate response and the Malaysian establishment until the official suspension of the underwater search The study features a critical discourse analysis of 84 national media texts and 85 response statements focusing on three aspects the national media representations of Malaysia s image the national carrier and the government s rhetorical strategies of delivering stances and actions and the dynamic process of image reconstruction and national recovery The present project contributes to the current research area by integrating both linguistic and public relations perspectives and more importantly by highlighting the ideological impact instead of merely behavioral effectiveness in modern communication research Target readers may find their interest in corporate crisis communication critical inquiry about political public relations and the MH370 incident in general

The Language of Journalism Angela Smith, Michael Higgins, 2013-06-20 The Language of Journalism aims to provide an accessible wide ranging introductory textbook for a range of students The book explores the significance of a range of linguistic practices occurring in journalism demonstrating and facilitating the use of analysis in aiding professional journalistic and media practice The book introduces the differences in language conventions that develop across media platforms It covers all the key journalistic mediums available today including sport online and citizen journalism alongside the more standard chapters on magazine newspaper and broadcast journalism Clearly written and structured this will be a key text for journalism students
