Medieval Womans Mirror Of Honor The Trea:

A Medieval Woman's Mirror of Honor Christine (de Pisan), Christine De Pizan, 1989 A fifteenth century instruction book for women provides an inside look at life in medieval France and discusses the role of women on each economic level

A Short History of Rudeness Mark Caldwell, 1999 In his thought provoking new book literary social critic Mark Caldwell gives us a history of the demise of manners and charts the triumphant progress of rudeness in America Touching on aspects of both our public and private lives including work family and sex he examines how the rules of behavior inevitably change and explains why no matter how hard we try we can never return to a golden era of civilized manners and mores

Art, Power, and Resistance in the Middle Ages Pamela A. Patton, 2025-01-07 This volume addresses a vital point of intersection between images in the Middle Ages and those in the modern world the potential of medieval works of art to convey messages of power and resistance Provoked by the misuse of medieval imagery in modern discussions the contributors to this volume assess how medieval images connect to discourses of power in both the past and the present The contributors each began with a single question In the eyes of their makers and viewers how were medieval images understood to assert or to resist forces of power Their case studies come from a wide range of cultural geographic and historical contexts the Byzantine Ottonian and Valois courts the Umayyad and Castilian regimes of the Iberian Peninsula the pluralistic military and commercial zones of the eastern Mediterranean and the metaphorical as well as personal battlegrounds linked to medieval courtly love culture Over eight chapters the authors highlight patterns of visual rhetoric still evident in art today They invite readers to contemplate how modern priorities and sensibilities might amplify mute or transform the discourses related to power and resistance that were threaded through the visual culture of the Middle Ages This insightful book should be of value to anyone interested in medieval art history and art s relationship to power and authority in society In addition to the editor the contributors include Heather A Badamo Elena N Boeck Thomas E A Dale Martha Easton Eliza Garrison Anne D Hedeman Tom Nickson and Avinoam Shalem

Medieval Conduct Kathleen M. Ashley, Robert L. A. Clark, 2001 Focusing on a broad range of texts from England France Germany and Italy conduct and courtesy books advice poems devotional literature trial records the contributors to Medieval Conduct draw attention to the diverse ways in which readers of this literature could interpret such behavioral guides appropriating them to their own ends Medieval Conduct expands the concept of conduct to include historicized practices and theorizes the connection between texts and their concrete social uses what emerges is a nuanced interpretation of the role of gender and class inscribed in such texts By bringing to light these subtleties and complexities the authors also reveal the ways in which the assumptions of literary history have shaped our reception of such texts in the past two centuries

The Book of Gladness / Le Livre de Leesce Jehan Le Fèvre, 2013-10-24 The Book of Gladness ca 1380 contains one of the most powerful original and influential pro feminine voices of the late Middle Ages In a spirited riposte to the misogynist tradition Le Fevre with the help of Gladness his lady persona boldly reinterprets the Bible while questioning ancient authorities in the light of true experience especially his own Despite its foundational importance this work has never been translated into English The present prose translation is lively and accessible yet thoroughly grounded in scholarship An Introduction explains the textual challenges hindering the full recognition of this classic up to now and elucidates its contribution to the medieval debate on the nature and status of women and marriage Also included is the first ever English translation and discussion of a newly discovered scribal interpolation on Christine de Pizan in a manuscript of Jehan Le Fevre s Lamentations The bibliography provides the first complete list of manuscripts containing the French Lamentations and Le Livre de Leesce Debating Women, Politics, and Power in Early Modern Europe S. Jansen, 2008-04-14 The sixteenth century was an age of politically powerful women Queens acting in their own right and female regents acting on behalf of their male relatives governed much of Western Europe Yet even as women ruled and ruled effectively their right to do so was hotly contested Men s voices have long dominated this debate but the recovery of texts by women now allows their voices long silenced to be heard once again Debating Women Politics and Power in Early Modern Europe is a study of texts and textual production in the construction of gender society and politics in the early modern period Jansen explores the gynecocracy debate and the larger humanist response to the challenge posed by female sovereignty The Allegory of Female Authority Maureen Quilligan, 2018-08-06 The first professional female writer Christine de Pizan 1363 1431 was widowed at age twenty five and supported herself and her family by enlisting powerful patrons for her poetry Her Livre de la Cit des Dames 1405 is the earliest European work on women s history by a woman An allegorical poem that revises masculine traditions it asserts and defends the authority of women in general and of its author in particular In this generously illustrated book Maureen Quilligan provides a persuasive and penetrating interpretation of the Cit

Medievalism in Europe Leslie J. Workman, 1994 Concentrating on Europe this volume s sixteen essays discuss different forms of medievalism in Germany France Italy Spain and Serbia Medievalism the whole spectrum of post medieval response to the middle ages is now accepted as a vital key to the understanding of Western culture and society from 1500 to the present pervading every aspect of our time from the popular and artistic to the scholarly Studies in Medievalism now published annually is the one series to provide a regular forum for discussion of medievalism This volume is devoted to medievalism in Europe excluding England the subject of Volume IV 1992 Contributors from Europe and America consider medievalism in Germany Italy France Spain and Serbia over a wide range of topics from eighteenth century French politics and nineteenth century German nationalism to contemporary Italian film The Treasure of the City of Ladies Christine de Pizan, 2003-10-30 Written by Europe s first professional woman writer The Treasure of the City of Ladies offers advice and guidance to women of all ages and from all levels of medieval society from royal courtiers to prostitutes It paints an intricate picture of daily life in the courts and streets of fifteenth century France and gives a fascinating glimpse into the practical considerations of running a household dressing appropriately and maintaining a reputation in all circumstances Christine de Pizan's book provides a valuable counterbalance to male accounts of life in the middle ages and demonstrates often with dry humour how a woman's position in society could be made less precarious by following the correct etiquette A Hidden Wisdom Christina van Dyke, 2022 Christina Van Dyke brings to light a rich and neglected philosophical tradition the writings of mystical and contemplative thinkers mainly women from the 13th to the 15th century She shows us how much we can learn today from their ideas on self knowledge reason and its limits love persons and immortality and the afterlife Dear Sister Karen Cherewatuk, Ulrike Wiethaus, 1993-04 Dear Sister Medieval Women and the Epistolary Genre explores women's contributions to letter writing in Western Europe from the sixth to the sixteenth centuries The essays represent the first attempt to chart medieval women's achievements in epistolarity and the contributors to this volume situate the women writers in a solidly historical context and employ a variety of feminist approaches Both religious and secular writers are discussed including Radegund Hildegard of Bingen Heloise Catherine of Siena the women of the Paston family Christine de Pizan and Maria de Hout Reason and Sexuality in Western Thought David West, 2005-05-06 This book traces the genealogy of ideas of reason self and sexuality in the West opening the way to a richer and more diverse understanding of sexual experience Western philosophy and religion have distorted and continue to distort our experience of sex and love through three far reaching constellations of reason self and sexuality Thinkers like Plato Aquinas and Kant helped to fashion an ascetic ideal of reason hostile to bodily pleasures and sexual diversity By contrast philosophical hedonism advocates a less demanding conception of rationality and defends sexual pleasure But this approach of thinkers like Hume Bentham La Mettrie and de Sade is still one sided and limiting A third constellation Romanticism avoids the limitations of both forms of rationalism but in the name of a religion of love and passion that ultimately threatens the integrity of the self In Reason and Sexuality in Western Thought a richer understanding of sexual experience is traced to a dissident philosophical tradition In their different ways Montaigne Spinoza Hegel and Kierkegaard Marcuse and Foucault contribute to a more holistic multi layered and open conception of reason sexuality and the self This book will be essential reading for all students of philosophy and gender studies The Political Theory of Christine de Pizan Kate Langdon Forhan, 2017-07-05 Few medieval or Renaissance political writers male or female wrote more works on politics than Christine de Pizan none of them addressed audiences so varied in class or gender Yet until now there has been no comprehensive full length study of Christine de Pizan's political thought With The Political Theory of Christine de Pizan Kate Forhan rectifies this oversight situating de Pizan in the history of political thought while discussing traditional concerns of political theorists such as justice obligation law equality and just war Forhan also addresses the question of whether Pizan's work is original or derivative whether she is a theorist or merely a political writer Between 1400 and 1429 at a time of great civil strife in France Christine de Pizan wrote ten books for the instruction and guidance of those engaged in political life Her theory is focused on a politics of inclusion which validates the essential contribution of each member of the body politic to the whole despite socially and politically mandated difference of class nationality and gender ideas not without significance to the modern era As Forhan demonstrates through analysis of her work the thought of Christine de Pizan has true relevance for modern times First hers was a society in transition new class structures new occupations and new aspirations were appearing behind the crumbling structures of the late medieval world Secondly Christine de Pizan was an outsider a woman in a world dominated by men an Italian in France a member of the meritocracy at a court that was rigidly hierarchical Her difference gave her the perspective to observe her society objectively Her personal vulnerability allowed her to see politics more clearly as those who are most vulnerable might see our own Thirdly she was a shrewd observer in a country that was emerging as a nation state where new concepts and practices of law justice administration and politics in general were in the process of development This book will be of interest to political theorists and political scientists medieval historians historians of women and gender and scholars of comparative literature

Rediscovering the Muses Kimberly Marshall, 1993 This pioneering collection of essays by musicologists ethnographers classicists and historians describes the lost and marginalized musical traditions of women of both non Western and Western cultures

The Literary Subversions of Medieval Women Jane Chance, 2007-08-06 This study of medieval women as postcolonial writers defines the literary strategies of subversion by which they authorized their alterity within the dominant tradition To dismantle a colonizing culture they made public the private feminine space allocated by gender difference they constructed unhomely spaces They inverted gender roles of characters to valorize the female they created alternate idealized feminist societies and cultures or utopias through fantasy and they legitimized female triviality the homely female space to provide autonomy While these methodologies often overlapped in practice they illustrate how cultures impinge on languages to create what Deleuze and Guattari have identified as a minor literature specifically for women as displaced Women writers discussed include Hrotsvit of Gandersheim Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France Marguerite Porete Catherine of Siena Margery Kempe Julian of Norwich and Christine de Pizan

Mirror of the Medieval World Barbara Drake Boehm, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 The publication of this comprehensive catalogue celebrates the distinguished career of William D Wixom at the Metropolitan Highlighted in these pages are more than three hundred purchases and gifts the great majority of which have been on view but many of which have remained unpublished until now Metropolitan Museum of Art website

Reconsidering Boccaccio Olivia Holmes, Dana Stewart, 2018-06-12 Reconsidering Boccaccio highlights the great Florentine writer Giovanni Boccaccio's remarkable achievements in the fourteenth century as a cultural mediator his exceptional social geographic and intellectual range and the influence of his legacy on numerous cultural networks Grounded in Boccaccio's own writings Reconsidering Boccaccio brings a variety of methodologies and critical approaches to the works of one of the three crowns of Italian literature

Containing essays by scholars not only of Italian literature but also history law classics and Middle Eastern literature this collection is part of a vital movement to open up a dialogue among researchers in various areas of study that touch on the works of Boccaccio The volume highlights the necessity of a technical and historical framework when approaching Boccaccio studies while also shedding new light on the lives of women and their role in the reception of Boccaccio's works

A Plural Peninsula: Studies in Honour of Professor Simon Barton, 2023-10-20 A Plural Peninsula embodies and upholds Professor Simon Barton's influential scholarly legacy eschewing rigid disciplinary boundaries Focusing on textual archaeological visual and material culture the sixteen studies in this volume offer new and important insights into the historical socio political and cultural dynamics characterising different yet interconnected areas within Iberia and the Mediterranean The structural themes of this volume the creation and manipulation of historical historiographical and emotional narratives changes and continuity in patterns of exchange cross fertilisation and the recovery of tradition and the management of conflict crisis power and authority are also particularly relevant for the postmedieval period within and beyond Iberia Contributors are Janna Bianchini Jerrilynn D Dodds Simon R Doubleday Ana Echevarra Arsuaga Maribel Fierro Antonella Liuzzo Scorpo Fernando Luis Corral Therese Martin Iaki Mart n Viso Amy G Remensnyder Maya Soifer Irish Teresa Tinsley Sonia Vital Fernandez Alun Williams Teresa Witcombe and Jamie Wood See inside the book

A Companion to Marguerite Porete and The Mirror of Simple Souls Robert Stauffer, Wendy R. Terry, 2017-04-11 Even with growing popularity in the United States there existed no English language scholarly introduction to Marguerite Porete or her sole surviving work Mirror of Simple Souls until now The study of Marguerite and her work touches on so many disciplines from religious and secular histories to theological and literary readings of her book that the scholarship had often been lost in the divides between the disciplines Our contributors are chosen from both sides of the Atlantic and from an array of disciplines in order to bridge this geographical and linguistic divide The interdisciplinary nature of the interest in Marguerite and the Mirror and the implications her book has on medieval scholarship make a collection such as this companion ideal Contributors are Marleen Cr Imke De Gier David Falvey Sean Field Genevieve Hasenohr with Zan Kocher Jonathan Juilfs Zan Kocher Joanne Robinson Elizabeth Scarborough Robert Stauffer Wendy R Terry and Justine Trombley
