Nathaniel Hone The Elder:

N. Hone Adrian Le Harivel,1992-01-01 "Exhibiting Outside the Academy, Salon and Biennial, 1775-1999 "

Andrew Graciano,2017-07-05 In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in the history of museums academies and major exhibitions There has been however little to no sustained interest in the histories of alternative exhibitions single artwork solo artist artist mounted entrepreneurial privately funded ephemeral etc with the notable exception of those publications that deal with situations involving major artists or those who would become so for example J L David s exhibition of Intervention of the Sabine Women 1799 and The First Impressionist Exhibition of 1874 despite the fact that these sorts of exhibitions and critical scholarship about them have become commonplace and no less important in the contemporary art world The present volume uses and contextualizes eleven case studies to advance some overarching themes and commonalities among alternative exhibitions in the long modern period from the late eighteenth to the late twentieth centuries and beyond These include the issue of control in the interrelation and elision of the roles of artist and curator and the relationship of such alternative exhibitions to the dominant modes structures of display and cultural ideology

Image, Identity and John Wesley Peter S. Forsaith,2017-08-18 The face of John Wesley 1703 91 the Methodist leader became one of the most familiar images in the English speaking and transatlantic worlds through the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries After the dozen or so painted portraits made during his lifetime came numbers of posthumous portraits and moralising scene paintings and hundreds of variations of prints It was calculated that six million copies were produced of one print alone an 1827 portrait by John Jackson R A as frontispiece for a hymn book Illustrated by nearly one hundred images many in colour with a comprehensive appendix listing known Wesley images this book offers a much needed comprehensive and critical survey of one of the most influential religious and public figures of eighteenth century Britain Besides chapters on portraits from the life and after scene paintings and prints it explores aspects of Wesley s and Methodism s attitudes to art and the personality cult which gathered around Wesley as Methodism expanded globally It will be of interest to art historians as a treatment of an individual sitter and subject as well as to scholars engaged in Wesley and Methodist studies It is also significant for the field of material studies given the spread and use of the image on artefacts as well as on paper The Life and Work of Thomas MacGreevy Susan Schreibman,2013-05-23 As a poet and literary critic

Thomas MacGreevy is a central force in Irish modernism and a crucial facilitator in the lives of key modernist writers and artists The extent of his legacy and contribution to modernism is revealed for the first time in The Life and Work of Thomas MacGreevy Split into four sections the volume explains how and where MacGreevy made his impact in his poetry his role as a literary and art critic during his time in Dublin London and Paris and through his relationships with James Joyce Samuel Beckett Wallace Stevens Jack B Yeats and WB Yeats With access to the Thomas MacGreevy Archive contributors draw on letters his early poetry and contributions to art and literary journals to better understand the first champion of Jack B Yeats and Beckett's chief correspondent and closest friend in the 1930s This much needed reappraisal of MacGreevy the linchpin between the main modernist writers fills missing gaps not only in the story of Irish modernism but in the wider history of the movement

Art and the Nation State Róisín Kennedy, 2021 Explores the contribution of Irish modernist art to post independence cultural debate and notions of Irish national identity Through analysis of major controversies it argues that the reception of modern art in the Republic of Ireland was moulded by demands of modernization dynamics of the international art world and competing ideologies

A Reluctant Memoir Robert Ballagh, 2018-09-20 A fiercely honest and unvarnished autobiography from Ireland's most successful and controversial living artist Making his name as a Pop artist in the late 1960s and 70s Robert Ballagh quickly achieved an international reputation With little formal artistic training he triumphed in his field despite often formidable hostility His work was also strikingly topical and political playing with classic images by Goya or Delacroix to express outrage about the situation in Northern Ireland But it is his series of realistic portraits of writers politicians and fellow artists often searingly inquisitive and moving in equal measure that have won him lasting fame His subjects include Brian Friel Seamus Heaney Samuel Beckett James Watson Francis Crick Harold Pinter and Fidel Castro And his remarkable self portraits unsparingly document the process of his own ageing This memoir is also a story of Ireland over the past sixty years its violence hypocrisy and immobility as well as its creativity and generosity
