Knut A. Jacobsen, Pratap Kumar

Nation And Migration The Politics Of Space In The South Asian Diaspora:

Nation and Migration Peter van der Veer, 1995 Peter van der Veer and the contributors to this volume explore the relationship between South Asian nationalism migration ethnicity and the construction of religious identity Although nationality and diaspora seem to represent opposite ideas and values the authors argue that nationalism is strengthened even produced by migration

South Asians in the Diaspora Knut A. Jacobsen, Pratap Kumar, 2018-08-14 This volume deals with a phenomenon of increasing global significance the South Asian diaspora In particular it deals with the role of religion The diversity of religious life in South Asia is remarkable and much of this diversity is replicated in the diaspora communities around the world The case studies in this book explore and analyse the social religious and cultural reality of people in the diaspora belonging to Jainism Buddhism Hinduism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Zoroastrianism and originating from four of the South Asian nation states India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The book highlights the religious diversity that exists in the diaspora communities both across the traditions and within the particular religions

A Companion to Feminist Geography Lise Nelson, Joni Seager, 2025-07-28 A Companion to Feminist Geography captures the breadth and diversity of this vibrant and substantive field Shows how feminist geography has changed the landscape of geographical inquiry and knowledge since the 1970s Explores the diverse literatures that comprise feminist geography today Showcases cutting edge research by feminist geographers Charts emerging areas of scholarship such as the body and the nation Contributions from 50 leading international scholars in the field Each chapter can be read for its own distinctive contribution

Homelands and Diasporas Andreh Le'i, Alex Weingrod, 2005 This collection focuses fresh attention on the relationships between homeland and diaspora communities in today's world Based on in depth anthropological studies by leading scholars in the field the book highlights the changing character of homeland diaspora ties Homelands and Diasporas offers new understandings of the issues that these communities face and explores the roots of their fascinating yet sometimes paradoxical interactions The book provides a keen look at how homeland and diaspora appear in the lives of both Israeli Jews and Israeli Palestinians and also explores how these issues influence Pakistanis who make their home in England Armenians in Cyprus and England Cambodians in France and African Americans in Israel The critical views advanced in this collection should lead to a reorientation in diaspora studies and to a better understanding of the often contradictory changes in the relationships between people whose lives are led both at home and away

Indian Classical Dance and the Making of Postcolonial National Identities Sitara Thobani, 2017-03-27 Indian Classical Dance and the Making of Postcolonial National Identities explores what happens when a national cultural production is reproduced outside the immediate social political and cultural context of its origin Whereas most previous studies have analysed Indian classical dance in the context of Indian history and culture this volume situates this dance practice in the longstanding transnational linkages between India and the UK What is the relation between the contemporary performance of Indian classical dance and the constitution of national diasporic and multicultural identity Where and how does Indian dance derive its productive power in the postcolonial moment How do diasporic and nationalist representations of Indian culture intersect with depictions of British culture and politics It is argued that classical Indian dance has become a key aspect of not only postcolonial South Asian diasporic identities but also of British multicultural and transnational identity Based on an extensive ethnographic study of performances of Indian classical dance in the UK this book will be of interest to scholars of anthropology sociology South Asian studies Postcolonial Transnational and Cultural studies and Theatre and Performance studies Transcultural Europe U. Meinhof, 2006-06-23 What are the key issues facing the makers of European cultural policy in the 21st century How is cultural policy at the metropolitan national and European level addressing recent developments that are complicating the cultural and social realities of contemporary Europe This book offers an innovative assessment of these questions and aims to provoke debates about the way forward for cultural policy in Europe Based on extensive theoretical and empirical research by an interdisciplinary team of international scholars this volume critically addresses the way in which cultural policy has evolved until now and develops new conceptual and theoretical perspectives for reimagining cultural change and complexity The book offers an interesting set of studies on transcultural flows between some major European metropolises such as Berlin London and Paris on the rather closed realities of other European capitals like Rome or Ljubljana as well as on new cultural trends emerging in cities both at the heart and at the periphery of Europe Vienna and Belgrade Each contribution questions the relationship between cultural diversity cultural policy and immigration The book thus provides new insights into the limitations of the national framework for cultural policy and into the emerging transnational dynamics in European cities Indian Liberalism between Nation and Empire Elena Valdameri, 2022-03-10 This book analyses the political thought and practice of Gopal Krishna Gokhale 1866-1915 preeminent liberal leader of the Indian National Congress who was able to give a global voice to the Indian cause Using liberalism nationalism cosmopolitanism and citizenship as the four main thematic foci the book illuminates the entanglement of Gopal Krishna Gokhale's political ideas and action with broader social political and cultural developments within and beyond the Indian national frame The author analyses Gokhale's thinking on a range of issues such as nationhood education citizenship modernity caste social service cosmopolitanism and the women's question which historians have either overlooked or inserted in a rigid nation bounded historical narrative The book provides new enriching dimensions to the understanding of Gokhale whose ideas remain relevant in contemporary India A new biography of Gokhale that brings into consideration current questions within historiographical debates this book is a timely and welcome addition to the fields of intellectual history the history of political thought Colonial history and Indian and South Asian history Callaloo or Tossed Salad? Viranjini P. Munasinghe, 2018-09-05 Callaloo or Tossed Salad is a historical and ethnographic case study of the politics of cultural struggle between two traditionally subordinate ancestral groups in Trinidad those claiming African and Indian descent Viranjini Munasinghe argues that East Indians in Trinidad seek to become a legitimate part of the nation by redefining what it means to be Trinidadian not by changing what it means to be Indian In her view Indo Trinidadians recent and ongoing struggle for national and cultural identity builds from dissatisfaction with the place they were originally assigned within Trinidadian society The author examines how Indo Trinidadian leaders in Trinidad have come to challenge the implicit claim that their ethnic identity is antithetical to their national identity Their political and cultural strategy seeks to change the national image of Trinidad by introducing Indian elements alongside those of the dominant Afro Caribbean Creole culture Munasinghe analyzes a number of broad theoretical issues the moral political and cultural dimensions of identity the relation between ethnicity and the nation and the possible autonomy of New World nationalisms from European forms She details how principles of exclusion continue to operate in nationalist projects that celebrate ancestral diversity and multiculturalism Drawing on the insights of theorists who use creolization to understand the emergence of Afro American cultures Munasinghe argues that Indo Trinidadians can be considered Creole because they like Afro Trinidadians are creators and not just bearers of culture

We Are Now a Nation Daphne Winland, 2013-06-17 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatsstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place
