Nation Building In Central Europe:

State and Nation Building in East Central Europe John S. Micgiel, 1996 Literary Canon Formation as Nation-Building in Central Europe and the Baltics, 2021-02-15 In this volume seventeen scholars from Estonia Hungary Lithuania Poland and Slovakia present their research on the formation and transformation of national literary canons as a practice of nation building in Central Europe and the Baltics The articles focus on the shaping of national identities through literature and analyze the establishment of literary canons by means of language the role of national poets and similar topics Case studies of so called minor literatures reveal common tendencies in the structure of many national canons as well as specific responses and creative decisions in nation building processes This volume rethinks the relations between literature and nationalism from the 19th century to present times and contributes to the field of studies of historical development of nationalism Contributors are Olga Bartosiewicz Nikolaev Renata Beli ov Ramun Bleizgien Pawe Bukowiec Anna R Burzy ska Judit Dobry Gergely F rizs Katre Kikas Aist Ku inskien Helena Markowska Fulara Rados aw Okulicz Kozaryn Jurga Sadauskien Vaidas eferis Viktorija eina Brigita Spei yt Jagoda Wierzejska and Krystyna Zabawa Nation-Building in Central Europe Hagen Schulze, 1987-10-22 This book places German nationalism in its European context and considers how far it reflects interests and ideas common to people of different nationalities confessions and social backgrounds

Nation-Building and Identity in Europe R. Tzanelli, 2008-10-24 This book offers a provocative theorization of nationhood focusing on the key role played by dialogic relations of hegemony resistance and reciprocity in the birth of the modern European nation The relationship between Greece and Britain at the end of the nineteenth century uncovers the linguistic construction of nationalism National Museums and Nation-building in Europe 1750-2010 Peter Aronsson, Gabriella Elgenius, 2014-12-05 Europe s national museums have since their creation been at the centre of on going nation making processes National museums negotiate conflicts and contradictions and entrain the community sufficiently to obtain the support of scientists and art connoisseurs citizens and taxpayers policy makers domestic and foreign visitors alike National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 assess the national museum as a manifestation of cultural and political desires rather than that a straightforward representation of the historical facts of a nation National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 examines the degree to which national museums have created models and representations of nations their past present and future and proceeds to assess the consequences of such attempts Revealing how different types of nations and states former empires monarchies republics pre modern modern or post imperial entities deploy and prioritise different types of museums based on art archaeology culture and ethnography in their making this book constitutes the first comprehensive and comparative perspective on national museums in Europe and their intricate relationship to the making of nations and states The Politics of Nation-Building Harris Mylonas, 2013-02-18 What drives a state s choice to assimilate accommodate or exclude ethnic groups within its territory In this innovative work on the international politics of nation building Harris Mylonas argues that a state's nation building policies toward non core groups individuals perceived as an ethnic group by the ruling elite of a state are influenced by both its foreign policy goals and its relations with the external patrons of these groups Through a detailed study of the Balkans Mylonas shows that how a state treats a non core group within its own borders is determined largely by whether the state's foreign policy is revisionist or cleaves to the international status quo and whether it is allied or in rivalry with that group's external patrons Mylonas injects international politics into the study of nation building building a bridge between international relations and the comparative politics of ethnicity and nationalism Historicizing Roma in Central Europe Victoria Shmidt, Bernadette Nadya

Jaworsky, 2020-09-13 In Central Europe limited success in revisiting the role of science in the segregation of Roma reverberates with the yet unmet call for contextualizing the impact of ideas on everyday racism This book attempts to interpret such a gap as a case of epistemic injustice It underscores the historical role of ideas in race making and provides analytical lenses for exploring cross border transfers of whiteness in Central Europe In the case of Roma the scientific argument in favor of segregation continues to play an outstanding role due to a long term focus on the limited educability of Roma The authors trace the long term interrelation between racializing Roma and the adaptation by Central European scholars of theories legitimizing segregation against those considered non white conceived as unable to become educated or civilized Along with legitimizing segregation sterilization and even extermination theorizing ineducability has laid the groundwork for negating the capacity of Roma as subjects of knowledge Such negation has hindered practices of identity and quite literally prevented Roma in Central Europe from becoming who they are This systematic epistemic injustice still echoes in contemporary attempts to historicize Roma in Central Europe The authors critically investigate contemporary approaches to historicize Roma as reproducing whiteness and inevitably leading to various forms of epistemic injustice The methodological approach herein conceptualizes critical whiteness as a practice of epistemic justice targeted at providing a sustainable platform for reflecting upon the impact of the past on the contemporary situation of Roma Soldered states: nation-building in Germany and Vietnam Claire Sutherland, 2018-04-30 The book examines the power of nationalism to solder nation states back together rather than break them apart In this innovative cross continental comparison of nation building in Germany and Vietnam the focus is on their shared experience of division communism and regional integration offering original insights into how governments go about maintaining nation state legitimacy in the twenty first century Neither German nor Vietnamese governments have succeeded in effacing national division for a host of historical economic psychological sociological and even climatic reasons Yet their efforts tell us a great deal about how national identity is negotiated today The study offers a fresh perspective on nationalist ideology which will be of interest to specialists and students in comparative politics European and Southeast Asian studies as well as nationalism studies For the general reader it provides a fascinating introduction to contemporary nation building in a unique combination of cases across two continents

Nation-Building and Citizenship Reinhard Bendix, 2017-07-05 Nation Building and Citizenship examines how states and civil societies interact in their formation of a new political community Reinhard Bendix directs our attention to relations established between individual and state during nation building While the development of citizenship and the interplay between tradition and modernity are important in this process of social and political change his key theme is the examination of authority patterns Bendix explores in depth the possibilities of an alternative approach to the neo evolutionary orientation many social scientists take in their analyses of the underdeveloped areas of the world The subjects he discusses include transformations of Western European societies since medieval times extension of citizenship to the lower classes bureaucratization in the nation state private and public authority in Western Europe and Russia aristocracies and development in Germany and Japan and the development of public authority in India s political community The book concludes with a reconsideration of ideas widely held about tradition modernity and modernization In a new introduction John Bendix writes that what continues to make this book relevant is not only what it can tell us about past and present nation building including the transformations of the 1980s and 1990s but its more general messages about the nature of social and political transformations Nation Building and Citizenship is a necessary addition to the libraries of political scientists sociologists historians and scholars of comparative studies
