National Co Ordination Of Eu Policy:

The National Co-ordination of EU Policy Hussein Kassim, Guy Peters, Vincent Wright, 2000-08-03 This book is one of two volumes in which leading scholars examine the way in which EU member states co ordinate their European policies. Eschewing the Europeanisation problematic within which the issue is usually addressed this book adopts a broader more inclusive approach. It examines domestic processes and investigates co ordination in ten member states: Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Portugal, Spain and the United Kingdom, looking at co ordinating ambitions, the actors involved in EU policy making and the structures and processes by which policy is made. From a comparative perspective the book identifies and assesses the impact of the influences that have shaped systems of national co ordination, the demands exerted by Union membership, the institutional structure of the national polity, the pre-existing balance between domestic institutions, administrative norms and values and attitudes, both popular and elite, the European integration. It assesses the extent to which there has been a convergent response to the administrative challenges posed by membership on the part of the member states or whether a pattern of divergence emerges. The effectiveness of member states in influencing policy outcomes at the European level is also addressed. The companion volume answers similar questions about national administrations in Brussels. Looking at twelve member states it is the first systematic examination of the role played by Permanent Representations in national EU policy making.

The Coordination of the European Union Andrew Jordan, Adriaan Schout, 2008 This work is an assessment of the coordinating potential of new modes of governance in the EU. It attempts to develop policy coordination as a new focus within EU scholarship and to invigorate and substantially re-orientate the theoretical debate about policy networks in the EU.

Governing Europe Jack Ernest Shalom Hayward, Anand Menon, 2003 This comprehensive survey aims to provide an overview of all aspects of politics in western Europe. Aspects of the European Union, the Europeanization of institutions are discussed in detail along with the welfare state, economic issues, the condition of democracy across the continent.

The National Co-ordination of EU Policy Hussein Kassim, Guy Peters, Vincent Wright, 2000-08-03 This is one of two volumes examining how EU member states co ordinate their European policies. It examines domestic processes and co ordination in ten member states, looking at co ordinating ambitions, the actors in EU policy making and the structures and processes by which policy is made.

Finland in the European Union Tapio Raunio, Teija Tiilikainen, 2004-08-02 With a focus on governmental institutions this book explores the ways in which EU membership has altered the balance of power among key political actors. The authors discuss cultural adaptation to integration as well as examining the views of the elite and voters. The transformation in national identity, sovereignty and neutrality are also examined.

Routledge Handbook of European Politics José Magone, 2014-12-17 Since the Treaty of the European Union was ratified in 1993 the European Union has become an important factor in an ever increasing number of regimes of pooled sovereignty. The Politics of the Lisbon Agenda Susana Borrás, Claudio M. Radaelli, 2014-06-03 In the year 2000 in Lisbon the European Union launched an agenda for growth jobs sustainability and competitiveness with a ten year target In 2010 the agenda was re launched with different specific objectives but with the same final goals Why do the European Union leaders engage with these ten year plans What exactly do they commit to when they do so Do they learn from the results or is this a rhetorical exercise that complex organizations need to raise attention to certain issues This volume is the first ever systematic study of the Lisbon agenda of the European Union now called Europe 2020 It explains the rise of the Lisbon agenda as governance architectures and examines its components across time and sectors This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy Coping with Power Dispersion? Mads Jensen, Christel Koop, Michaël Tatham, 2017-10-02 The last decades have witnessed a significant shift in policy competencies away from central governments in Europe The reallocation of competencies spans over three dimensions upwards sideways and downwards This collection takes the dispersion of powers as a starting point and seeks to assess how the actors involved cope with the new configurations Chapters discuss the conceptualization of power dispersion and highlight the ways in which we add to this research agenda Some general conclusions are also outlined indicating future avenues of research Taken together the collection contributes answers to the challenge of defining and measuring in a comparative way the control and coordination mechanisms which power dispersion generates In sum the collection explores the tension between political actors quest for autonomy and the acknowledgement of their interdependence whilst revealing how as power dispersion deepens central governments have sought to both manage and limit it This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy Elgar Encyclopedia of European Union Public Policy Paolo R. Graziano, Jale Tosun, 2022-12-13 A holistic and extensive exploration of both the dynamic and incremental changes in EU public policy and the decision processes surrounding them this Elgar Encyclopedia is the definitive reference work in the field of EU public policy

Negotiations in the EU Council of Ministers Sandrino Smeets, 2016-01-01 Insiders and outsiders agree there is something particular about negotiating in Brussels This book analyses ten years of continuous negotiations about EU enlargement to the Western Balkans answering questions such as When and how are decisions typically reached in the European Union What is this culture of consensus that pervades negotiations in the Council of Ministers And why are some member states more successful than others in making their voices heard Using the metaphor of the Caucus race from Alice in Wonderland Smeets book offers a fresh perspective on the decision making realities in Brussels European Quarter By providing unique empirical insight into behind closed doors debates it explains the faltering accession process of the countries of former Yugoslavia But most of all it reveals the mechanism by which national interests are accommodated so that deals can be reached between the member states
