Nationalisme Algerien Et Les Femmes:

Le nationalisme algérien et les femmes Monique Gadant, 1995-01-01 Le Maghreb des femmes Rita El Khayat, 2001

Psychiatre et anthropologue l'auteur pose ici la problématique de l'émancipation de la femme au sein de la société maghrébine. À partir des nombreux clivages observés notamment entre la ville et la campagne, une étude de la place des femmes dans cinq pays : Mauritanie, Maroc, Algérie, Tunisie et Libye.

The French empire between the wars Martin Thomas, 2017-03-01

By considering the distinctiveness of the inter-war years as a discrete period of colonial change, this book addresses several larger issues such as tracing the origins of decolonization in the rise of colonial nationalism and a re-assessment of the impact of inter-war colonial rebellions in Africa, Syria and Indochina. The book also connects French theories of colonial governance to the lived experience of colonial rule in a period scarred by war and economic dislocation.

Women and Resistance in the Maghreb Nabil Boudraa, Joseph Ohmann Krause, 2021-07-29

This book studies women's resistance in the three countries of the Maghreb, concentrating on two questions. First, what has been the role of women artists since the 1960s in unlocking traditions and emancipating women on their own terms? Second, why have Maghrebi women rarely been given the right to be heard since Algeria, Morocco and Tunisia gained national independence? Honouring the artistic voices of women that have been largely eclipsed from both popular culture and political discourse in the Maghreb, the work specifically examines resistance by women since the 1960s in the Maghreb through cinema, politics and the arts. In an ancillary way, the volume addresses a wide range of questions that are specific to Maghrebi women related to upbringing, sexuality, marriage, education, representation, exclusion and historical memory. These issues in their broadest dimensions opened the gates to responses in different fields in both the humanities and the social sciences. The research presents scholarship by not only leading scholars in Francophone studies, cultural history and specialists in women studies, but also some of the most important film critics and practicing feminist advocates. The variety of periods and disciplines in this collection allow for a coherent and general understanding of Maghrebi societies since decolonization. The volume is a key resource to students and scholars interested in women's studies, the Maghreb and Middle East studies.

Immigration and National Identity Rabah Aissaoui, 2009-03-30

Immigration is at the heart of social, cultural and political debate in France, a country still struggling to come to terms with its postcolonial legacy. Here Aissaoui provides a radical re-examination of the assumptions about immigrants and ethnic and national identity through a study of the Maghrebis, especially their political mobilisation from the colonial to the postcolonial period. Combining insights from the archive and interviews with political activists, he examines the diaspora's voice and their struggle against racism and oppression. Through a study of key political movements, he shows how they constructed a powerful and consistent political tradition and charts the development in France of the Algerian anti-colonial and nationalist movement as well as new forms of political activism during the 1970s. Immigration and National Identity foregrounds the migrants' perspective and the necessary historical background to the fraught contemporary context.

of immigrant communities in France It will be valuable for all those concerned with immigration colonialism and postcolonialism cultural studies sociology and the study of contemporary France Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus Wolfgang Behn,2004-09-01 This first of the ultimately three volume Who's Who in Islamic Studies presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus the author Wolfgang Behn Berlin has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980 This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies It enables the user to quickly gain knowledge on the life work and professional background of almost every major and minor author and thus to place each author in his/her proper perspective A tremendous achievement and a true must for every library Postcoloniality Margaret A. Majumdar,2007 Postcolonial theory is one of the key issues of scholarly debates worldwide debates so the author argues which are rather sterile and characterized by a repetitive reworking of old hackneyed issues focussing on cultural questions of language and identity in particular She explores the divergent responses to the debates on globalization

Women Fight, Women Write Mildred Mortimer,2018-11-29 Today the fight to write the struggle to become the legitimate chronicler of one's own story is being waged and won by women across mediums and borders But such battles of authorship extend well beyond a single cultural moment In her gripping study of unsung female narratives of the Algerian War Mildred Mortimer excavates and explores the role of women's individual and collective memory in recording events of the violent anticolonial conflict Presenting close readings of published works spanning five decades from Assia Djebar's 1962 Children of the New World to Zohra Drif's 2014 Inside the Battle of Algiers Memoir of a Woman Freedom Fighter Women Fight Women Write traces stylistic and material transformations in Algerian women's writings as it reveals evolving attitudes toward memory trauma historical objectivity and women's political empowerment Refuting the stale binary of men in battle women at home these testimonial texts let women lay claim to the Algerian War story as participants and also as chroniclers through fiction historical studies and memoir Algeria's patriarchal norms long kept women from speaking publicly about private matters silencing their experiences of the war Still the conflict has ceaselessly sparked creative work The country's dark decade of violent struggle between the Algerian army and Islamist fundamentalists in the 1990s brought the liberation struggle back into focus inspiring and emboldening many more women to defiantly write Women Fight Women Write advances the broken silence illuminating its vital historical revisions and literary innovations Separate and Dominate Christine Delphy,2015-06-02 Feminist Christine Delphy co-founded the journal Nouvelles questions féministes with Simone de Beauvoir in the 1970s and became one of the most influential figures in French feminism Today Delphy remains a prominent and controversial feminist thinker a rare public voice denouncing the racist motivations of the government's 2011 ban of the Muslim veil Castigating humanitarian liberals for demanding the cultural assimilation of the women they are purporting to save Delphy shows how criminalizing Islam in the name of feminism is fundamentally paradoxical Separate and Dominate is Delphy's manifesto lambasting liberal hypocrisy and calling for a fluid understanding of political identity that does not place different political struggles in a false opposition She dismantles the absurd claim that Afghanistan was invaded to save women and that homosexuals and immigrants alike should reserve their self expression for private settings She calls for a true universalism that sacrifices no one at the expense of others In the aftermath of the Charlie Hebdo massacre her arguments appear more prescient and pressing than ever

Changing Female Literacy Practices in Algeria

Anne Laaredj-Campbell, 2015-12-10 From an ethnological standpoint this study contends that the construction and implementation of a gender based literacy program that empowers adult education learners in rural or semi rural hybrid areas in Algeria must consider the context of the Arabic Islamic tradition In her research Anne Laaredj Campbell examines the educational situation of women in the Haut Plateau by using methods derived from the field of ethnology The author endeavors to take a look at the literacy practices and their theoretical implications for empowering women in Algeria To date there are no empirical studies on adult female literacy in Algeria that focus on the cultural construction of gender and empowerment A gender approach to education is committed to establishing reasons for the deficiencies of literacy among women
