Nato Arms Co Operation A Study In Economics And Politics:

NATO Arms Co-operation Keith Hartley, 2021-01-26 This book first published in 1983 examines weapons standardisation as one aspect of NATO's efficiency. It analyses the economic arguments for weapons standardisation, the limitations of the analysis and the available evidence. A political economy or public choice approach is used with its emphasis on policy developments in the political market place of voters, political parties, bureaucracies and interest groups. These agents are central to understanding the function of weapons procurement policy within the Alliance. NATO's Conventional Defences Stephen J. Flanagan, 1988-10-07 A review of the full range of recent official and non official schemes for improving NATO's conventional posture from exploitation of emerging technologies to non provocative defences in the light of prevailing military, political, economic and demographic trends. The Political Economy of the Arms Race R.T. Maddock, 1990-06-18 Written by the author of The Political Economy of Soviet Defence Spending and co author of The Growth of the British Economy, this book looks at the international dimension: the American and the Soviet defence economy, the NATO alliance, the Warsaw Pact and the international arms trade. European Armaments Collaboration Ron Matthews, 2013-10-15 First published in 1992, the changing strategic environment of the 1990s has been characterised by events such as the Middle East conflagration and super power disarmament which represent the two opposing ends of the present security spectrum. The framing of appropriate defence policies now depends on increased NATO industrial defence restructuring and cooperation, especially within Europe. This book identifies, explains and analyses the key issues involved in Europe's defence industrial reorganisation progress. It tackles head on controversial issues such as divergences between practice and policy in NATO, US, European positions, the high costs of collaborative ventures, competition vs concentration and the complexities of adopting an European defence consensus within NATO. At a time when the diminution of NATO's defence industrial base goes hand in hand with product reorientation and specialization, this book provides concise critical and contemporary assessment of European and NATO collaborative issues. The European Armaments Market and Procurement Cooperation Pauline Creasey, Simon May, Pauline Creasey, 1988-06-18 North Atlantic Treaty Organization Phil Williams, 2024-11-01 This volume consists of major books written in the English language on NATO as well as an extensive listing of journal articles that deal with various aspects of the Alliance. All the major debates that have taken place over the last forty years are discussed. The Rise of European Security Cooperation Seth G. Jones, 2007-02 A systematic and comprehensive analysis of the significant increase in security cooperation among European states. Routledge Revivals: Defence Industries (1988) Daniel Todd, 2018-02-01 Originally published in 1989, Defence Industries presents a worldwide survey of defence industries. It argues that modern weapon systems and electronic warfare have led to the transition of the military industrial enterprise into a multifaceted entity where electronics production is the key. It analyses the extent of defence industries showing that large portions of the aerospace, shipbuilding, motor vehicle and electronics industries are devoted to defence and discusses where the defence industries are located It examines the differences in government policies contrasting the superpowers with newly industrialised countries French Security and Defence Policy Fredrik

Wetterqvist,1993-05 The Changing Face of Military Power A. Dorman,M. Smith,M. Uttley,2002-03-13 With the end of the Cold War perceptions of the role of armed forces in the international environment changed dramatically and have led to a critical re evaluation of defence budgets defence bureaucracies and defence roles The Changing Face of Military Power brings together some of the most eminent scholars in the field of defence studies to assess the changing dynamics of military power It focuses in particular on the move towards joint service cooperation as a way of minimising costs and increasing efficiency
