Natos Mediterranean Initiative Policy Issues And Dilemmas:

NATO's Mediterranean Initiative F. Stephen Larrabee, 1998 The Future of NATO's Mediterranean Initiative Ian O. Lesser, 2000 NATO's Mediterranean Initiative is acquiring new significance with changes in the strategic environment and changes in NATO itself Greater attention is being devoted to developments on the southern periphery of the Alliance Members of the NATO Dialogue will have a shared stake in addressing new security challenges many of which are transregional and require cooperative strategies in response A longer term vision is essential to further development Policy recommendations include reinforcement of the nongovernmental dimensions of the Dialogue establishment of a region specific agenda that can include defence training and exercises and increasing resources devoted to the Initiative commensurate with the region's growing importance Individual Dialogue members should be free to engage at their own pace in more ambitious cooperation with NATO NATO Review, 1996 NATO's Security Discourse After the Cold War Andreas Behnke, 2013 This book provides a critical investigation into the discursive processes through which the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation NATO reproduced a geopolitical order after the end of the Cold War and the demise of its constitutive enemy the Soviet Union Dividing Africa with Policy Lara Hierro, 2020-06-08 This book addresses timely concerns of rising African nationalism and the 2nd decolonisation in Africa The wholesale rejection of all things considered Western is seen to be a result of integrationalism defined as the specific kind of methodology by which EU foreign policy engagement may be interpreted Using complexity theory and panarchy a specific arrangement of interacting complex adaptive systems together with a resilience assessment the EU's foreign policy is shown to be undermining the aims of the premier African institution the AU created to provide unity and security on the continent the EU pursues these objectives in its own image rather than honouring African values This book raises awareness of these issues as well as to widen the application of the theoretical framework in international relations and politics which is becoming increasingly important in a complex world The aim of this book is to show that the negative isolationism pursued in order to counteract western influence is not the answer and can be avoided through this awareness Dialogue with the Mediterranean Gareth Mark Winrow, 2002-05-03 The first examination of the importance of NATO's Mediterranean Initiative for the security and stability of the Euro Mediterranean area this book discusses the challenges risks and possible threats to NATO member states which may stem from the southern and eastern Mediterranean Recasting NATO's Strategic Concept Christopher S. Chivvis, 2009 The revision of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's strategic concept offers an excellent opportunity to build an alliance capable of addressing the shared problems that its member states face To spur debate over concrete problems this paper examines five possible future directions for the alliance Security and Environment in the Mediterranean Hans Günter Brauch, Peter H. Liotta, Antonio Marquina, Paul F. Rogers, Mohammad El-Sayed Selim, 2012-12-06 In this volume security specialists peace researchers environmental scholars demographers as well as climate desertification water food and urbanisation specialists from the Middle East and North Africa Europe and North America review security and conflict prevention in the Mediterranean They also analyse NATO s Mediterranean security dialogue and offer conceptualisations on security and perceptions of security challenges as seen in North and South The latter half of the book analyses environmental security and conflicts in the Mediterranean and environmental consequences of World War II the Gulf War the Balkan wars and the Middle East conflict It also examines factors of global environmental change population growth climate change desertification water scarcity food and urbanisation issues as well as natural disasters Furthermore it draws conceptual conclusions for a fourth phase of research on human and environmental security and peace as well as policy conclusions for cooperation and partnership in the Mediterranean in the 21st century

Twenty Years of Euro-Mediterranean Relations Richard Youngs, 2017-10-02 The creation of the Euro Mediterranean Partnership in 1995 was seen at the time as a forward thinking foreign policy which would strengthen ties between Europe and the Mediterranean Arab states Since that time however almost none of this initial ambition has been translated into positive successful policy Twenty years on from the creation of the Euro Mediterranean Partnership now the Union for the Mediterranean this book collects some of the most influential articles published in the Mediterranean Politics journal since 1995 and suggests what these articles tell us about the state of relations between Europe and the Middle East The selection of articles gives a sense of the way in which analytical debate has changed in the journal s lifetime a lifetime which has seen the journal at the forefront of academic study on a variety of issues in the Mediterranean region As such the selection is naturally a reflection of the different periods from which the articles are taken and taken together they paint a picture of how the Euro Mediterranean partnership has been reshaped over time

Transnational Islam and Regional Security Frederic Volpi, 2013-09-13 This volume investigates the impact of a new brand of transnational terrorism and political violence produced by radical Islamist groups from the Maghreb on the regional security dynamics It describes the causes of the problems and the strategies devised by European and North African states in order to address it and details the successes and failures of co operation between states and society on both shores of the Mediterranean Investigating the grand security strategies that have been devised for the Mediterranean after the Cold War and after 9 11 the contributors focus on the role of police and military apparati in securitizing the new threats that have become prominent after 9 11 and the unintended consequences of these strategies In addition the contributors analyze the relationship between Islamist groups the state and society and highlight some key causes of political violence and radicalism They outline how a better use of the law migration and intercultural dialogue might provide useful alternatives or complements to the mostly securitarian strategies that are currently dominant in the region
