Mimesis and the Human Animal Robert Storey, 1996-12-16 In Mimesis and the Human Animal Robert Storey argues that human culture derives from human biology and that literary representation therefore must have a biological basis As he ponders the question What does it mean to say that art imitates life he must consider both What is life and What is art A unique approach to the subject of mimesis Storey's book goes beyond the politicizing of literature grounded in literary theory to develop a scientific basis for the creation of literature and art On Biblical Poetry F. W.

Dobbs-Allsopp, 2015 On Biblical Poetry considers the characteristics of biblical Hebrew Poetry beyond its currently best known feature parallelism F W Dobbs Allsopp demonstrates the many interesting and valuable interpretations that yield from a series of programmatic essays on major facets of biblical verse careful attention to prosody and close reading Epic

Frederick Turner, 2017-07-28 Epic does many things Among others it defines the nature of the human storyteller recalls the creation of the world and of the human race describes the paradoxical role of the hero as both the Everyman and the radical exception and establishes the complex quest underlying all human action Epic illustrates that these ingredients of epic storytelling are universal cultural elements in existence across multiple remote geographical locations historical eras ethnic and linguistic groups and levels of technological and economic development Frederick Turner argues that epic despite being scoffed at and neglected for over sixty years is the most fundamental and important of all literary forms and thereby deserves serious critical attention It is the source and origin of all other literature the frame within which any story is possible The mission of this book is to repair gaps in the literary understanding of epic studies and offer permission to future epic writers and composers The cultural genres of Marvel Comics gothic anime manga multi user dungeon gaming and superhero movies reprise all the epic themes and motifs Consider The Wizard of Oz Star Wars The Lord of the Rings Lost The Matrix Superman Harry Potter and Narnia Here can be found the epic beast man the miraculous birth of the hero the creation myth the founding of the city the quest journey the descent into the land of the dead the monsters and the trickster This book will be of interest to all readers fascinated by folklore oral tradition religious studies anthropology mythology and enthusiastic about literature in general Thoreau and the Sociological Imagination Shawn Chandler Bingham, 2008 Disciplinary disobedience

radicalism In Evolution and Literary Theory Joseph Carroll vigorously attacks the foundational principles of poststructuralism and offers in their stead a bold new theory that situates literary criticism within the matrix of evolutionary theory The Mind and its Stories Patrick Colm Hogan, 2003-09-29 There are profound extensive and surprising universals in literature which are bound up with universals in emotion Hogan maintains that debates over the cultural specificity of emotion are misdirected because they have ignored a vast body of data that bear directly on the way different cultures imagine and experience emotion literature This is the first empirically and cognitively based discussion of narrative universals Professor Hogan argues that to a remarkable degree the stories people admire in different cultures follow a limited number of patterns and that these patterns are determined by cross culturally constant ideas about emotion In formulating his argument Professor Hogan draws on his extensive reading in world literature experimental research treating emotion and emotion concepts and methodological principles from the contemporary linguistics and the philosophy of science He concludes with a discussion of the relations among narrative emotion concepts and the biological and social components of emotion
