Natural Connections Perspectives On Communitybased Conservation:

Natural Connections David Western, Michael Wright, 2013-03-19 Both realism and justice demand that efforts to conserve biological diversity address human needs as well. The most promising hope of accomplishing such a goal lies in locally based conservation efforts: an approach that seeks ways to make local communities the beneficiaries and custodians of conservation efforts. Natural Connections focuses on rural societies and the conservation of biodiversity in rural areas. It represents the first systematic analysis of locally based efforts and includes a comprehensive examination of cases from around the world where the community based approach is used. The book provides an overview of community based conservation in the context of the debate over sustainable development, poverty and environmental decline; case studies from the developed and developing worlds: Indonesia, Peru, Australia, Zimbabwe, Costa Rica, the United Kingdom; that present detailed examples of the locally based approach to conservation; a review of the principal issues arising from community based programs; an agenda for future action.

Natural Connections: Perspectives in Community-based Conservation David Western, R. Michael Wright, Shirley C. Strum, 1994 Human and Social Perspectives in Natural Resource Management, 2002 Communities and Conservation J. Peter Brosius, Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing, Charles Zerner, 2005-07-14

A group of distinguished environmentalists analyze and advocate for community based natural resource management (CBNRM). They offer an overview of this transnational movement and its links between environmental management and social justice agendas. This book will be valuable to instructors, practitioners and activists in environmental anthropology, justice and policy in cultural geography, political ecology, indigenous rights, conservation biology and community based cultural resource management. Communities and Conservation Peter J. Brosius, Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing, Charles Zerner, 2005-07-21 The distinguished environmentalists in this collection offer an in depth analysis and call to advocacy for community based natural resource management (CBNRM). Their overview of this transnational movement reveals important links between environmental management and social justice agendas for sustainable use of resources by local communities. In this volume, leaders who have been instrumental in creating and shaping CBNRM describe their model programs, the countermapping movement and collective claims to land and resources, legal strategies for gaining rights to resources and territories, biodiversity conservation and land stabilization priorities and environmental justice and minority rights. This book will be of value to instructors, practitioners and activists in anthropology, cultural geography, environmental justice, environmental policy, political ecology, indigenous rights, conservation biology and CBNRM. Ecology, Uncertainty and Policy John Handmer, 2017-09-29 A broad and comprehensive exploration of the role of the ecological sciences in sustainability for undergraduates.
