

Disasters

Waves crash against the shore,
No warning, no encore.
Homes lost in water's sweep,
Dreams drowned in a salty heap.

Yet hands reach through the foam,
Together building a makeshift home.
Though walls are gone, spirits lift,
In ruin, we find an unexpected gift.

Survivors gather, faces worn,
Yet in each eye, a new day's born.
From tragedy, life's worth we glean,
In wreckage, we find ways to dream.

Wycherley V. Gumbs

Natural Disasters Poems:

Wonderful Wasteland and other natural disasters Elidio La Torre Lagares, 2019-09-30 When Hurricane Mar a unleashed its devastation onto Puerto Rico thousands of lives were lost to the storm in what was the island's worst natural disaster on record With so much of the recovery still underway and the scars still fresh its citizens continue to contend with the reality that life on the island has fundamentally changed In his first collection of poems written in English La Torre Lagares journeys through his memory in an effort to recompose his shattered land Together these poems form a poignant personal account of a man facing the tragic destinies of his family and his country in the aftermath of a natural disaster For example the deaths of the mother and the father are resignified as the death of the poet's personal relationship which at the same time evokes the rupture between individuals and their sense of place Drawing from both American and Latin American poetry as well as global influences to articulate a language of loss and devastation in search of a new identity this collection illuminates a chaotic and confusing landscape that is not only physical but also cultural social and political Taken together this work serves as a stirring reminder of the dislocation and fractured attachment that speaks to many Americans including transnationals and immigrants Ultimately it speaks to coping with physical loss and emotional pain in the face of human adversity

Natural Disasters Erica Rivera, 2016-05-13 In NATURAL DISASTERS award winning poet Erica Rivera explores the parallels between volatile relationships and the environment Like seasons lovers arrive unbidden leave abruptly and cycle back Long distance desire loaded secrets and unpredictable temperaments further complicate the narrative Inspired by the landscape of Minnesota with nods to New Mexico New York and California this evocative collection of poetry plumbs the depths of the places we live and the people we love and in the process discovers the beauty and brutality inherent in both

Natural Disasters Andrea MacPherson, 2007 Natural Disasters is the first poetry collection from Andrea MacPherson It explores memory and history asking if it is possible to inherit the past and the generational complexities that come along with it Stories of lost sisters and marriages based on card games combine with the immediate and personal responses to wild fires and collapsed schoolhouses The collection is also concerned with place from the dry land of the interior of British Columbia to the rugged beauty of the west coast shoreline These settings affect not only language and mood but tangible links to the past the dusky valleys and planks stained with fish blood Here the tragic mingles with the everyday allowing shadowy figures and hazy memory to once again become real

Natural Disasters Clint Dooley, 2017-05-24 Book of Poetry Natural Disasters Andrea MacPherson, 2008-01 In Andrea MacPherson's first volume of poetry memories of love and loss intertwine on a poetic journey that covers both personal and family history from the dry golden plains of British Columbia's Interior and the salty spray of the Pacific Ocean in Vancouver to the history laden countryside of Ireland Pain distance and risk dictate the fates the relationships women in this family have with men and with one another Whether it be marriage on a dare or the anguish of discovering infidelity these poems map out the quiet territory of grief of natural disasters that binds the family together as events play themselves out over and over in succeeding generations George McWhirter writes that the poems capture the core of Andrea MacPherson's Scots Irish Canadian heritage where even spite is a delight and dread delight and devotion all feed on the lush B C criss cross of cedar cloak on tartan and saffron lines Each poem serves as a kind of ultrasound that lets us peer into the heart of the matter to discover the shapes and movements associated with a particular memory of a family member or a former lover The results are confessional and cathartic

A Year of Terror and Natural Disaster Wycherley V. Gumbs, 2007 In this thoughtful and moving volume of poetry Wycherley V Gumbs has paid tribute to those who have fallen victims to terrorism and tsunamis hurricanes and human rights debacles With great sympathy and eloquence Dr Gumbs work shows that the human spirit possesses remarkable resilience under the most devastating circumstances With this Dr Gumbs hopes prevent further victimization by instilling international unity
