Faris Cassell

Safe House Holland 1940-1945:

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context A Safe House Maria Jacobs, 2005

Inseparable Faris Cassell, 2023-09-12 See the Holocaust through the Eyes of Children Stefan and Marion Hess's happy childhood was shattered in 1943 Torn from their home in Amsterdam the six year old twins and their parents were deported to a place their mother called this dying hell the infamous concentration camp at Bergen Belsen Inseparable is the vivid account of one family's struggle to survive the Holocaust In the camp the children ran from SS soldiers making it a game to see who could get closest to the guard towers before being warned they would be shot Stefan and Marion witnessed their father beaten beyond recognition dodged strafing warplanes and somehow survived in a place where the children were looking for bread between the corpses Above all this is the unforgettable story of a young mother and father who were willing to sacrifice everything for their children From the Hesses' prosperous pre war life in Germany to their desperate ride in a bulletstrafed boxcar through the rubble of the collapsing Third Reich Faris Cassell weaves Stefan and Marion's personal memories and historical details into a gripping narration of their family's heroic fight for their lives As the number of Holocaust survivors dwindles the Hess twins' account of their childhood ordeal forces the reader to grapple with pure evil And more important it is an opportunity to offer the most meaningful of tributes to victims and survivors of the Third Reich remembrance

The Netherlands at War: 1940-1945 Walter B. Maass, 1970 Record of the Dutch experience under Nazi occupation with emphasis on German and Allied espionage activities

RAF Evaders Oliver Clutton-Brock, 2009-02-19 Stories of the British airmen shot down over Western Europe who evaded capture by the Germans and made their way to Allied territory during World War II During the five years from May 1940 to May 1945 several thousand Allied airmen forced to abandon their aircraft behind enemy lines evaded capture and reached freedom by land sea and air The territory held by the Germans was immense from Norway and Denmark in the north through Holland Belgium Luxembourg to the south of France and initially there was no organization to help the men on the run The first one to assist the evaders and escapers E named after a naval officer Pat O Leary from 1942 it became the PAO line Next was the Comet line from Brussels to the Pyrenees Thousands of brave people were to be involved for whom if caught the penalty was death Theirs is a stirring and awe inspiring story Respected historian Oliver Clutton Brock has researched in depth this secret world of evasion uncovering some treachery and many hitherto unpublished details operations and photos It is a tremendous reference work written in his own colorful style with numerous anecdotes which fills a gap of knowledge formerly unavailable to historians professional or amateur Packed the information key figure biographies and listings 2 094 evaders identified this is a valuable testimony to the courage of all those involved

Shot Down and on the Run Graham Pitchfork,2003-10 This compelling book tells some of the epic stories of the thousands of shot down airmen including many Canadians who got out from behind enemy lines across all theatres of the Second World War Based on special first hand interviews and new research into official debriefing documents held at Britain s National Archives many of these accounts have never been published before This book explores the pivotal role of military intelligence that masterminded the training support and organization of escape and evasion it also features rare photographs of the evaders and their helpers

Escape and Liberation, 1940-1945 Alfred John Evans,1946 Stories of escapes and evasions during the Second World War and descriptions of the liberation of certain prisoner of war camps

Holland at War Against Hitler M. R. D. Foot,2012-10-12 First Published in 1990 The conference on Anglo Dutch relations from 1940 to 1945 held at University College London on 3 4 and 5 April 1989 covered a part not the least interesting nor the simplest part of the diplomatic and military history of the world war against Nazi Germany and imperial Japan The historical context of Anglo Dutch relations close since the fall of the Roman Empire bears setting out at the start The papers that follow are printed almost as they were delivered at a conference attended by a mixture of scholars teachers diplomats journalists students and retired warriors of ages as diverse as their experiences many of whom already knew each other

The Kersten Memoirs, 1940-1945 Felix Kersten,1992

Diary of the German Occupation of Guernsey 1940-1945 J. C. Sauvary,1995 Following the Germans rapid conquest of France the occupation of the Channel Islands became inevitable and the British Government provided ample shipping for anybody wanting to leave Mr Sauvary did not and he began his diary the day his daughter Kit evacuated Mr Sauvary was a member of an old Guernsey family Because of his fourfold role of Builder Grower Churchwarden and Douzenier the diary contains a wealth of his experiences with the occupying forces The five year narrative gives a day to day description of their gradual encroachment on the life and liberty of the Islanders He first had them billeted on him and was then turned out of his house Mr Sauvary s appreciation of nature and his observations of the wildlife and weather run like a thread through the diary and his observations of human nature give an insight into the Islanders reactions to the occupation His wisdom and generosity helped many to come to terms with this daunting experience The book includes information about the Island s unusual administration and vocabulary Publisher s description
