Motherhood" Kori Bridget Flower, 1996 Safeguarding Motherhood Sol Theron De Lee, 1953 Intensive Mothering:

The Cultural Contradictions of Modern Motherhood Linda Rose Ennis, 2014-12-01 To celebrate the twentieth anniversary of Sharon Hays' landmark book The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood, this collection will revisit Hays' concept of intensive mothering as a continuing yet controversial representation of modern motherhood. In Hays' original work, she spoke of intensive mothering as primarily being conducted by mothers centered on children's needs with methods informed by experts which are labour-intensive and costly simply because children are entitled to this maternal investment. While respecting the important need for connection between mother and baby that is prevalent in the teachings of Attachment Theory, this collection raises into question whether an over-investment of mothers in their children's lives is as effective a mode of parenting as being conveyed by representations of modern motherhood. In a world where independence is encouraged, why are we still engaging in intensive motherhood? Safeguard Motherhood, 1939 Women, the Family, and Freedom Susan G. Bell, Karen M. Offen, 1983 This is the second book in a two-part collection of 264 primary source documents from the Enlightenment to 1950, chronicling the public debate that raged in Europe and America over the role of women in Western society. The present volume looks at the period from 1880 to 1950. The central issues: motherhood, women's legal position in the family, equality of the sexes, the effect on social stability of women's education and labor extended to women, the struggle by men for personal and political liberty. These issues were political, economic and religious dynamite. They exploded in debates of philosophers, political theorists, scientists, novelists and religious and political leaders. This collection emphasizes the debate by juxtaposing prevailing and dissenting points of view at given historical moments: e.g. Madame de Staël vs Rousseau, Eleanor Marx vs Pope Leo XIII, Strindberg vs Ibsen, Simone de Beauvoir vs Margaret Mead. Each section is preceded by a contextual headnote pinpointing the documents' significance. Many of the documents have been translated into English for the first time. Safeguarding the future, 2021-12-03 In 2019 WHO and Coalition for Children Affected by AIDS convened a learning session of scientific and programmatic experts to consolidate the evidence on why HIV affected adolescent mothers and their children are being left behind and to deliberate on the multiple level changes needed.

to improve their outcomes This technical brief follows on from that session and will be useful to HIV programme managers in health ministries and other adolescent and youth linked line ministries especially those in in sub Saharan Africa in implementing monitoring and evaluating adolescent and youth responsive and friendly health services for young mothers living with HIV This technical brief aims to inform and support global dialogue and accelerate action on prioritizing services and support for adolescent and young mothers living with HIV It details core programmatic examples and key strategies actions from across sub Saharan Africa that demonstrate how governments health facilities social services communities families and adolescent and young mothers are working together to bridge the gap between adolescent and adult focused HIV and maternal health services The programme examples provided serve to highlight potential and ongoing learnings in countries *Safeguarding Motherhood ... constitutions and international agreements to principles of ordre public of forum and their protection with measures of private public and penal law This allows readers including legislators and judges the better understanding of the fundamental legal problems that surrogate motherhood brings both in states where law creates them in a narrower or wider extent and in other countries of the world to which these problems can be imported with the movement of people and with de lege lata and de lege ferenda postulates
