Dell, 2019-10-15 The Safety Curtain and Other Stories from Ethel May Dell English trader writer journalist The Safety Curtain, and Other Stories (Classic Reprint) Ethel M. Dell, 2015-07-02 Excerpt from The Safety Curtain and Other Stories He was plainly a man who was accustomed to hew his own way through life despising the trodden paths overcoming all obstacles by grim persistence Louder and louder swelled the tumult It was evident that nothing but a repetition of the wonder dance would content the audience They yelled themselves hoarse for it and when light as air incredibly swift the green Dragon Fly darted back they outdid themselves in the madness of their welcome The noise seemed to shake the building Only the man in the front row with the iron grey eyes and iron hard mouth made no movement or sound of any sort He merely watched with unchanging intentness the face that gleamed ashen white above the shimmering metallic green tights that clothed the dancer s slim body The noise ceased as the wild tarantella proceeded There fell a deep hush broken only by the silver notes of a flute played somewhere behind the curtain The dancer s movements were wholly without sound The quivering whirling feet scarcely seemed to touch the floor It was a dance of inspiration possessing a strange and irresistible fascination a weird and meteoric rush that held the onlookers with bated breath About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Tidal Wave and Other Stories Ethel M.
