Sailing Directions for Nova Scotia, Bay of Fundy, and South Shore of Gulf of St. Lawrence Richardson Clover, 1891 Sailing South Philip Sanford Marden, 1921 The Physical Geography and Meteorology at the South Atlantic Together with Sailing Directions William Henry Rosser, 1870 Sailing South (Classic Reprint) Philip Sanford Marden, 2018-01-14

Sailing South is a one man travel log by Philip Sanford Marden in which he details his sailing trips from the United States mostly to islands in Central America Philip Sanford Marden was an ardent sailor who lived during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He was an accomplished seaman but not one who fancied himself an explorer Thus the locations travelled to and detailed in this text are not exotic and undiscovered but rather islands that many people have had the opportunity to visit Marden s objective in writing Sailing South was to create a pleasant book that could serve as a light diversion for the reader This work is not an instructional nor is it full of technical details The book is divided into three parts each of which highlights a different country or region that Marden sailed to Cuba Panama Puerto Rico and Jamaica are the nations that receive the most space with cursory details provided about a few other regions the author visited Sailing South achieves its goal of providing the reader with a piece of light reading Perhaps even more so today than when it was originally published the book has a romantic sense to it that glorifies travel sailing in particular The details Marden provides about the people he met are typically positive in nature and the author is able to paint a convincing picture of these island nations with his prose If you are looking for a book to accompany you on your next travel adventure Marden s work here is a great choice About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Marino Sanudo Torsello, The Book of the Secrets of the Faithful of the Cross Peter Lock, 2016-05-06 This is the first full translation of Marino Sanudo Torsello s Secreta fidelium Crucis to be made into English The work itself is a piece of crusading propaganda following the fall of Acre in 1291 written between 1300 and 1321 but it includes much of historical relevance along with interesting observations on the early history of Jerusalem and the Crusader Kingdom The translation is based upon the text edited by Jacques Bongars in 1611 There is an introduction that contextualises the book its author his sources and his audience The notes provide essential information to clarify internal textual references and allusions as well as the role of Biblical references in Sanudo s grand design The index is designed to make this detailed text usable and accessible In this his major work Sanudo advocated the conquest of Egypt as the means to regain Jerusalem for the Latins and worked through his points with considerable detail alongside references to 13th century

Mediterranean history especially involving Louis IX of France and Charles of Anjou king of Naples Books I and II give considerable detailed discussion of the concept plan and costs of his proposed crusade Book III provides an outline history of the crusades and the crusader states It is derived from a wide reading of other sources especially of William of Tyre and for events after 1184 on the Eracles the letters of James of Vitry and Sanudo s own experiences in the east Throughout the work contains a staggering amount of cartographical ethnographical geographical and nautical information as well as numerous unique insights into historical events and personalities of the late 13th century not only in Outremer but in Western Europe

Heavy Weather Sailing 8th edition Martin Thomas, Peter Bruce, 2022-09-01 For over 50 years Heavy Weather Sailing has been regarded as the ultimate international authority on surviving storms at sea aboard sailing and motor vessels In this book former Commodore of the Ocean Cruising Club Martin Thomas brings together a wealth of expert advice from many of the great sailors of the present including fresh accounts of yachts overtaken by extreme weather from Ewan Southby Tailyour Alex Whitworth and Dag Pike to Larry and Lin Pardey Matt Sheahan and Andrew Claughton The expert advice section has been updated in line with current thinking with major new additions tackling preventing or coping with lightning strikes navigating in heavy weather with both paper and electronic charts the choice and use of tenders in severe weather and special problems faced by the new generation of foiled cruising boats For the first time the book also covers the unique challenges presented by weather in high latitudes with more yachts crossing the Drake Passage and attempting the North West Passage These revisions ensure that Heavy Weather Sailing is as relevant useful and instructive for today s sailor venturing offshore as it ever was This is the definitive book for crews of any size contemplating voyages out of sight of land anywhere in the world whether racing or cruising It gives a clear message regarding the preparations required and the tactics to consider when it comes on to blow

Living the Dream Vern and Connie Madison, 2005-08-10 About our Book Living the Dream is the true life adventure story of our seven year cruise from Newport Oregon to Phuket Thailand in the 35 foot steel hulled sailboat Tainui This book gives a true picture of what it s really like for a retired couple to live their dream of full time cruising to far away places the highs of beautiful sailing days snorkeling off pristine coral anchoring in tropical lagoons exotic cultural experiences and the fellowship of the cruising community but also fear in storms the exhaustion of sleepless night watches discouragement of endless boat maintenance and a rusting through of Tainui s hull Although we wrote Living the Dream for a general audience serious sailors will find a wealth of helpful cruising information and steel boat owners will profit from our significant learning experiences in our maintenance of Tainui s steel hull About us We began our lives far apart Connie in parts of Californis that were far from the sea and with no aspirations to cross oceans and Vern in the busy seaport city of Seattle dreaming of sailing away some day We eventually met at the University of Washington married started our family and careers Vern as a social worker and Connie as a teacher It was our four years of living with our family in Malaysia while Vern was on the staff of the Peace Corps there that sparked our desire to one day be full time world
