Pradeep Kumar P. Mohan Reddy, The Cultural and Demographic Aspects of the Islamic Financial System and the Potential for Islamic Financial Products in the German Market Holger Timm, 2005-02-07 Inhaltsangabe Abstract The aim of this thesis is to show the potential Muslims in Germany have concerning their number and financial power As assumed whilst developing the idea for this work no financial institution is existent in Germany which offers banking services in compliance with Islamic law Would it not make sense to introduce such instruments in a market which accommodates more than 3 million Muslims Are the hurdles for introduction too high or is the financial potential of the Muslim population too low to care about such questions They will be answered in this thesis To gather information necessary for writing this thesis the author read various books about Islam its roots and its financial systems The World Wide Web was a valuable source especially publications of data by statistical offices ministries and institutions dealing with the topic For certain parts specific data were not accessible to the author For investigation purposes he wrote letters and mails to various institutions to find out that specific data were not available and certain statistical investigations were not undertaken In that case approximations and extrapolations were used and marked as such The author has divided the thesis in four parts The first chapter Chapter A Islam History Cultural Aspects and Principles for the Financial System introduces Islam its roots and foundation about 1 400 years ago In that chapter basic Islamic principles are explained and their relevance in all aspects of Muslim life is shown With those principles underlying a financial system developed which is different from the Western one The development of the financial system is described as are various Islamic financial tools explained In Chapter B Muslims in Germany it is shown how the Muslim community in Germany developed It is explained when processes of migration started and to what extent they developed The cultural and educational Status Quo of the Muslim community is analysed and it is looked at their stand concerning school work associations etc Thereby Islamically cultural distinctions are outlined and resulting obstacles for integration deduced Following that the financial Status Quo is looked at Facts about Muslim savings are provided and examples of instruments available at the German market which are in compliance with Islamic law are described Out of the outlined facts in the Status Quos a potential analyses is Outlook Profit, 2008-04-19 Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1919 Author Under Sail James (Jay) W. Williams, 2014-11-01 In Author Under Sail Jay Williams offers the first complete literary biography of Jack London as a professional writer engaged in the labor of writing It examines the authorial imagination in London s work the use of imagination in both his fiction and nonfiction and the ways he defined imagination in the creative process in his business dealings with his publishers editors and agents In this first volume of a two volume biography Williams traverses the years 1893 to 1902 from London s Story of a Typhoon to The People of the Abyss The Jack London who emerges in the pages of Author Under Sail is a writer whose partnership with publishers most notably his productive alliance with George Brett of Macmillan was one of the most formative in American literary history London pioneered many author models during the heyday of realism and naturalism blurring the boundaries of these popular genres by focusing on absorption and theatricality and the representation of the seen and unseen London created an impassioned sincere and extremely personal realism unlike that of other American writers of the time Author Under Sail is a literary tour de force that reveals the full range of London as writer creative citizen and entrepreneur at the same time it sheds light on the maverick side of machine age literature Financial Statements
