Sassine Charlotte Baker, 2010 Williams Sassine "Saint Monsieur Baly" Charlotte Baker, 2010 Carrefour de cultures Régis Antoine, 1993 Body, Sexuality, and Gender Flora Veit-Wild, Dirk Naguschewski, 2005 Contains reflections on body sexuality and gender in African literary texts While the sections Gifted Bodies and Queered Bodies show new developments in viewing body and sexuality as creative powers the sections Tainted Bodies and Violated Bodies comprise essays that investigate the exposure of the body to physical aggression and other traumatic experiences SAINT MONSIEUR BALY Williams Sassine, 1973 Postcolonial Literature and the Impact of Literacy Neil ten Kortenaar, 2011-06-02 Examining images of literacy in African and West Indian novels Neil ten Kortenaar looks at how postcolonial authors have thought about the act of writing itself Writing arrived in many parts of Africa as part of colonization in the twentieth century and with it a whole world of book learning and paper pushing of school and bureaucracy newspapers textbooks and letters candles hurricane lamps and electricity pens paper typewriters and printed type and orthography developed for formerly oral languages Writing only penetrated many layers of West Indian society in the same era The range of writers is wide and includes Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and V S Naipaul The chapters rely on close reading of canonical novels but discuss general themes and trends in African and Caribbean literature Ten Kortenaar's sensitive and penetrating treatment of these themes makes this an important contribution to the growing field of postcolonial literary studies Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack, 1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area Protée Noir Peter Hawkins, Annette Lavers, 1992 Cultures of Colour Chris Horrocks, 2012 Colour permeates contemporary visual and material culture and affects our senses beyond the superficial encounter by infiltrating our perceptions and memories and becoming deeply rooted in thought processes that categorise and divide along culturally constructed lines Colour exists as a cultural as well as psycho physical phenomenon and acquires a multitude of meanings within differing historical and cultural contexts The contributors examine how colour becomes imbued with specific symbolic and material meanings that tint our constructions of race gender ideal bodies the relationship of the self to others and of the self to technology and the built environment By highlighting the relationship of colour across media and material culture this volume reveals the complex interplay of cultural connotations discursive practices and socio psychological dynamics of colour in an international context

Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia-Pia Célérier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engaged literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia Célérier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Sembène and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop Vronique Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and L'onora Miano among others L'autre en mémoire Dominique Laporte, 2006 European language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa edited by Albert S Gérard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms Gérard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Historical Dictionary of Guinea Thomas O'Toole, Janice E. Baker, 2005-03-16 Thoroughly updated and extensively revised this 4th edition provides a very solid and substantial guide to a better understanding of this richly endowed but poorly understood nation. Students and others seeking information about the country will find an introductory narrative accounting of Guinea's political and economic history, a chronology that spans the earliest known history of the area to the present-day Republic of Guinea, 400 dictionary entries covering the personalities and events that made contemporary Guinea, and an extensive bibliography of current publications.

Nation-Building, Propaganda, and Literature in Francophone Africa Dominic Thomas, 2002-11-19 The relationship between literature and the state is examined in this discussion of Francophone African literature. Dominic Thomas considers the case of the Congo where the recent transition to democracy was in part inspired by the works of Sony Labou Tansi. Henri Lopes, Emmanuel Dongala, among others.

Historical Dictionary of Guinea Mohamed Saliou Camara, Thomas O'Toole, Janice E. Baker, 2013-11-07 The most significant thing about Guinea is its potential. It is strategically located in West Africa with a well-educated and hardworking population and endowed with considerable natural resources, indeed enough to make it reasonably affluent if properly utilized. But this potential has never really been tapped, due mainly to bad politics with military men following a charismatic politician until finally democracy has been achieved. So more than half a century after achieving independence, the question remains unanswered: which way will Guinea turn? This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of Guinea covers the full scope of Guinea's history. This is done through a chronology, an introductory essay, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 800 cross-referenced entries on key events, leaders, governmental, international, religious, and other private organizations, policies, political movements, and parties, economic elements, and many other areas that have shaped the country's trajectory. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Guinea.

Les représentations hybrides de la mort dans le roman africain francophone Bomaud Hoffmann, 2014-11-01 Cette présente s'intéresse aux représentations de la mort dans le roman africain francophone, notamment aux symboles, aux espaces, aux personnages ou encore aux formes de la mort. Contrairement à d'autres travaux, cet ouvrage met en évidence non seulement l'influence de la culture nigro-africaine et occidentale, mais aussi celle de la culture islamique. De même, il s'agit d'une analyse synchronique et diachronique qui se concentre sur le caractère hybride des représentations de la mort et qui prend aussi en considération leur évolution dans le roman africain francophone. Dans ce contexte, ce travail propose de répondre à plusieurs questions : D'une part, comment les romanciers africains utilisent-ils les représentations de la mort nigro-africaines, occidentales et/ou islamiques ? Comment les actualisent-ils ? Les romanciers africains développent-ils des représentations de la mort spécifiques par rapport à leurs collègues masculins ? D'autre part, existe-t-il diverses façons de représenter la mort selon les générations auxquelles appartiennent les auteurs africains ?

une volution depuis la premi re g n ration de prosateurs ou faut il au contraire reconnaitre des similitudes chez l ensemble des crivains africains Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam,Alicia L. Kerfoot,2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index
