Salmon Country:

Country Life, 1904 Salmon Country Doug Underhill, 2011 In a stunning combination of superb colour images and lively personal essays Salmon Country takes us on an excursion along New Brunswick's famous salmon rivers. Marrying the essays of Doug Underhill and the photographs of Andr Gallant, Salmon Country explores the people, the rivers, the traditions, history and mythology of this sport of sports. And there's drama around every bend in the river. Underhill tells of becoming one with the river, of treading deep pools, of wading shallow rapids and gravelly shoals in search of the king of fish. Gallant shows the splashy thrill of the catch, breathtaking tree-canopied rivers and the people who make the experience memorable. Written with keen observation, wit and verve, Salmon Country brings to life a world centred on fly fishing, paying tribute to all who share the joy of fishing the Miramichi, Restigouche, Nepisiguit, Cains and Saint John rivers. Report on the Condition

Commission, 1896 River of No Return wilderness proposals United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Subcommittee on Parks, Recreation, and Renewable Resources, 1979 The >Epigramma Paulini< Roberto Chiappiniello, 2023-01-30 This is the first full scale critical edition of the Epigramma Paulini with English translation and commentary. The Epigramma Paulini 110 hexameters is a late antique poem of unknown date and authorship, arguably written during the first decade of the fifth century AD, preserved by only one Carolingian manuscript. While the outside world is torn by outbreaks of war and social unrest, the poem's three characters discuss people's behavior and reaction to the crisis. What should one change to stop social and political decline? What hope does one have to end the crisis and to rebuild a new society? These are some of the questions the three characters of the poem strive to answer. In recent years, scholars have paid some attention to this piece, mainly drawn to it by a singular insertion of satire within the frame of Vergil's pastoral model; however, no close study of the poem had been published. This first critical edition provides an in-depth exploration of the poem's message and its innovative contribution to the reception of classical pagan literature in a Christian context.

Nature's Allies Larry Nielsen, 2017-02-02 It's easy to feel powerless in the face of big environmental challenges, but we need inspiration now more than ever. In Nature's Allies, Larry Nielsen presents the inspiring stories of eight conservation pioneers who show that through passion and perseverance, we can each make a difference, even in the face of political opposition. Nielsen's vivid biographies of John Muir, Ding Darling, Aldo Leopold, Rachel Carson, Chico Mendes, Billy Frank Jr, Wangari Maathai, and Gro Harlem Brundtland are meant to rally a new generation of conservationists to follow in their footsteps and inspire students, conservationists, and nature lovers to speak up for nature and prove that individuals can affect
