Marketing Cases in Emerging Markets Sanjit Kumar Roy, Dilip S. Mutum, Bang Nguyen, 2016-09-08 This casebook provides students and academics in business management and marketing with a collection of case studies on services marketing and service operations in emerging economies It explores current issues and practices in Asia across different areas countries commercial and non commercial sectors This book is important and timely in providing a framework for instructors researchers and students to understand the service dynamics occurring in these countries It serves as an invaluable resource for marketing and business management students requiring insights into the operationalization of services across different geographical areas in Asia Students will find it interesting to compare and contrast different markets covering important aspects related to services Socially Responsible Consumption and Marketing in Practice Jishnu Bhattacharyya, M. S. Balaji, Yangyang Jiang, Jaylan Azer, Chandana R. Hewege, 2022-01-31 The book provides an overview of socially responsible consumption and marketing as well as a collection of teaching cases that discuss and emphasize how 21st century organizations both for profit and non profit are addressing socially responsible consumers and meeting their changing needs while remaining profitable Consumers governments academics and practitioners are becoming more interested in promoting positive social changes through consumption As a result this book aims to understand the practice of marketing in bringing about positive social change through real life case studies Consumption by socially responsible consumers who care about the social good is unique not only because of its inter disciplinary and substantive subject matter but also because it presents challenges and pushes organizations to make significant changes in the ways they have been accomplishing organizational activities in the twenty first century from procurement to production to sales and services The book goes beyond individual consumers and their lifestyles to promote the scope of discussing marketing strategies It seeks to comprehend how people consume and how socially responsible consumption is conceived The case studies present and pursue integrated solutions for more sustainable consumption This is a must read for marketers who want to reach out to socially responsible consumers Casebook in Abnormal Psychology Timothy A. Brown, David H. Barlow, 1997 Using cases taken from the authors case files or from case files of other working clinicians this casebook portrays the rich and arresting nature of disorders as they are displayed in real people Cases illustrate every major DSM IV category and are followed by a therapy outcome section which gives the rest of the story of what happened to these clients The authors draw on an extremely current and thorough database look at the multiple causes of disorders and incorporate developmental and cultural issues in each case Two complex cases are included without a diagnosis to give students an opportunity to come up with diagnoses on their own The cases are designed to give students an appreciation for the complexity of the diagnostic process Catalog of Copyright Entries. Services Marketing Christopher H. Lovelock, Lovelock Patterson & Walker, 2007 A combination of text reader and casebook this book explores the concepts and techniques of services marketing using a broad range of service categories in the Asia Pacific and Australian region Back cover

The Global Corporation Laura P. Hartman, Patricia H. Werhane, 2013-12-19 This text brings together case studies focusing on specific instances of corporate best practices All too often we showcase cases based on questionable or unethical corporate behavior Instead the editors bring together in this book examples of how some firms got it right Certainly there is no claim that the companies in these case are perfect some of them may have histories that include questionable practices But these are companies that work to foster trust both internally and in their relationships with customers suppliers shareholders and the communities in which they operate The book is not however merely a descriptive iteration of effective corporate conduct The editors conclude with an analysis of frameworks for corporate and managerial ethical decision making frameworks that help to establish models for best practices These frameworks then can be generalized and applied to other corporate situations and replicated by other companies in their search for excellence and the resulting avoidance of misconduct
