Introduction to Social Work, Fourth Edition Ira Colby,Sophia F. Dziegielewski,2015-06 There are certain questions that all students considering social work ask Who are social workers What is it that social workers do How is the social work profession changing What does it take to become a social worker Ira Colby and Sophia Dziegielewski bring their decades of experience in social work practice and education to answer these questions. This engaging text gives readers a practical guide to the many ways in which social workers effect change in their communities and the world. The authors offer an overview and history of the profession, introduce readers to the practice of social work at the micro, mezzo, and macro level, and finally look closely at the many settings and populations that social workers work with. While realistically portraying the pressures and obstacles that social workers face, Colby and Dziegielewski communicate their own passion for social work.

Effective Management of Long-Term Care Facilities
Douglas A. Singh, 2021-11-10

Effective Management of Long Term Care Facilities Fourth Edition examines the complex operations of the long term care facility and offers critical skills to current and future long term care administrators for delivering quality cost effective services. An excellent resource for both new and seasoned long term care managers, this logically organized text begins with an understanding of what long term care is and why it is an integral part of the health care delivery system. It moves on to explore the legal and regulatory parameters and payment constraints within which long term care facilities must be managed, each of the main functional departments that administrators must understand and oversee, and effective governance and leadership and management of human resources, marketing, and quality, much of which is unique to nursing home administration. The final section of the book offers case studies to simulate situations that the administrator is likely to encounter in practice.
