Translation and Culture Katherine M. Faull, 2004 How we view the foreign presented either in the interrelated forms of culture language or text determines to a large degree the way in which we translate This volume of essays examines the cultural politics of translation that have determined the production and dissemination of the foreign in domestic cultures as varied as contemporary North America Europe and Israel The essays address from a variety of theoretical perspectives the question posed almost two hundred years ago by the German philosopher Friedrich

Schleiermacher of whether the translator should foreignize the domestic or domesticate the foreign Untrodden Regions of the Mind Ghislaine McDayter, 2002 An extensive collection of essays on Romantic literature written from a psychoanalytic perspective With essays on both Continental and British Romantic writers this volume explores not only the complex operations of gender and subjectivity but also how textual analysis reveals the ways in which the unconscious of the literary body resists and denies interpretive analysis just as forcefully as the individual unconscious

Modernity, Sexuality, and Ideology in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2011-06-01 In Iran since the mid nineteenth century one issue has been a common concern how should Iran become modern More than a century of struggle for or against modernity has constituted much of the social political and cultural history of the country In the decades since the 1979 Revolution the question has become even more critical In Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran Talattof finds that the process of modernity never truly unfolded due in large part to Iran's reluctance to embrace the seminal subjects of gender and sexuality Talattof's approach reflects a unique look at modernity as advancement not only in industry and economy but also toward an open intellectual discourse on sexuality Exploring the life and times of Shahrzad a dancer actress filmmaker and poet Talattof illuminates the country's struggle with modernity and the ideological traditional and religious resistance against it Born in 1946 she performed in several theater productions became an acclaimed film star in the 1970s and pursued a career as a journalist and poet Following the revolution she was imprisoned and eventually became homeless on the streets of Tehran Her success and eventual decline as a female artist and entertainer illustrate the conflict between modernity and tradition and Iran's failure to embrace an overt expression of sexuality Talattof also profiles several other female artists of the 1970s analyzing their lives and work as windows through which to examine what Iranian culture allowed and what it repudiated A pioneering and timely work Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran explores the integral role of popular culture and female artists in the shaping of modern Iran constructing a new framework for understanding such crucial concepts as ideology and modernity Points of Contact Amy Golahny, 2004 This collection of eight essays examines specific cases of contacts between Pacific Rim and western European cultures to explore the phenomena of appropriations intersections transculturations and discrete identities The exchanges in ideas religion and culture resulting from contacts among these areas whether through actual or virtual travel indicate mutual affinities and occasionally interdependencies but also separate and independent identities Each of these essays concerns the portability mutability and adaptability of aspects of the exchange of ideas and in nearly all cases here examined an affirmation of identity on the part of each culture in the exchange The cases of intersections examined here generally indicate developments of cultures approaching one another and then retrenching
