Racialized Visions Vanessa K. Valdés, 2020-12-01 As a Francophone nation Haiti is seldom studied in conjunction with its Spanish speaking Caribbean neighbors Racialized Visions challenges the notion that linguistic difference has kept the populations of these countries apart instead highlighting ongoing exchanges between their writers artists and thinkers Centering Haiti in this conversation also makes explicit the role that race and more specifically anti blackness has played both in the region and in academic studies of it Following the Revolution and Independence in 1804 Haiti was conflated with blackness Spanish colonial powers used racist representations of Haiti to threaten their holdings in the Atlantic Ocean In the years since white elites in Cuba the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico upheld Haiti as a symbol of barbarism and savagery Racialized Visions powerfully refutes this symbolism Across twelve essays contributors demonstrate how cultural producers in these countries have resignified Haiti to mean liberation An introduction and conclusion by the editor Vanessa K Vald s as well as foreword by Myriam J A Chancy provide valuable historical context and an overview of Afro Latinx studies and its futures

The Social Life of Spirits Ruy Blanes, Diana Espírito Santo, 2013-11-22 Spirits can be haunters informants possessors and transformers of the living but more than anything anthropologists have understood them as representations of something else symbols that articulate facets of human experience in much the same way works of art do The Social Life of Spirits challenges this notion By stripping symbolism from the way we think about the spirit world the contributors of this book uncover a livelier more diverse environment of entities with their own histories motivations and social interactions providing a new understanding of spirits not as symbols but as agents The contributors tour the spiritual globe the globe of nonthings in essays on topics ranging from the Holy Ghost in southern Africa to spirits of the people of the streets in Rio de Janeiro to dragons and magic in Britain Avoiding a reliance on religion and belief systems to explain the significance of spirits they reimagine spirits in a rich network of social trajectories ultimately arguing for a new ontological ground upon which to examine the intangible world and its interactions with the tangible one

Secularisms in a Postsecular Age? José Mapril, Ruy Blanes, Emerson Giumbelli, Erin K. Wilson, 2017-02-24 This volume ethnographically explores the relation between secularities and religious subjectivities As a consequence of the demise of secularization theory we live in an interesting intellectual moment where the so called post secular coexists with the secular which in turn has become pluralized and historicized This cohabitation of the secular and post secular is revealed mainly through political dialectical processes that overshadow the subjective and inter subjective dimensions of secularity making it difficult to pinpoint concrete sites agents and objects of expression Drawing on cases from South America Africa and Europe contributors apply key insights from religious studies debates on the genealogies and formations of both religion and secularism They explore the spaces persons and places in which these categories emerge and mutually constitute one another

Spirited Things Paul Christopher Johnson, 2014-05-07 The word possession is anything but transparent especially as it developed in the context of the African Americas There it referred variously to spirits material goods and people It served as a watershed term marking both transactions in which people were made into things via slavery and ritual events by which the thingification of people was revised In Spirited Things Paul Christopher Johnson gathers together essays by leading anthropologists in the Americas that reopen the concept of possession on these two fronts in order to examine the relationship between African religions in the Atlantic and the economies that have historically shaped and continue to shape the cultures that practice them Exploring the way spirit possessions were framed both by material things including plantations the Catholic church the sea and the phonograph as well as by the legacy of slavery they offer a powerful new way of understanding the Atlantic world

La brujería cubana Joel James Figarola, 2006 This book sets out to take apart the elements of abstract thinking that are found in Cuba s magical religious system Through an autochthonous philosophy the book explores the cause and culture behind some of Cuba s strongest spiritualist practices and beliefs Este libro se propone desentra ar los elementos del pensamiento abstracto presentes en este sistema m gico religioso cubano en busca de lo que pudiera llamarse una filosofía aut ctona

Pensar a Ifá. Aproximaciones a una propedéutica Manuel de Jesús Rabaza Torres, 2024-10-30. Es plural y complejo el panorama de la práctica de If en la Cuba contemporánea y ante la amenaza de mayores fracturas. Manuel de Jesús Rabaza Torres propone este texto que si bien puede resultar controversial por cuestionar verdades asentadas en el tiempo, tiene como principal objetivo fortalecer la identidad cultural de la sociedad cubana. Este estudio interdisciplinario tiene como eje de fuerza el diálogo entre la práctica cubana de If y el recientemente introducido If tradicional nigeriano. A través de un análisis de la evolución del ifatismo desde sus orígenes hasta su presencia actual en la Isla, el autor no solo discurre sobre su carácter dialéctico como proceso cultural, sino que además eleva la teología de If y el pensamiento africano en general a su justo lugar en la concepción filosófica de los valores nacionales.
