Losing And Fusing Borderline Transitional Object And Self Relations:

Losing and Fusing Roger A. M.D. Lewin, Clarence G. Schulz, 1992 Presents a self relations approach to the borderline syndrome The authors look at these difficult patients as having core disorders of affective self identity The therapeutic relationship is the crucial crucible for transformation in the patient's form of his relationship to himself , Rethinking Freedom C. Alford, 2005-05-12 This book examines the use and abuse of the term freedom Based on interviews with people concerning the nature of freedom the author compares what the people he talked with said about freedom with what writers and thinkers such as Jean Paul Sartre Herbert Marcuse and Iris Murdoch have to say about freedom He concludes that the political is not the answer and that most of the people interviewed for the book and those like them would be better served by learning the political and social skills necessary to carve out small spaces of freedom in a rationalized world Strong

Anticipation: Compensating Delay And Distance Susie Vrobel, 2023-12-06 This book is concerned with the notion of strong anticipation Clearly defined necessary and sufficient conditions are laid out The focus lies on strong anticipation as delay and distance compensation as in temporal recalibration and synchronization of coupled systems Of particular interest are delays which correspond to a boundary shift between a systemic whole and its context Such boundary shifts result from assignment conditions which determine what belongs to the systemic whole and what belongs to its context Delay and distance compensation is described along with long range correlations against the background of a theory of time capable of describing anticipative systems My Theory of Fractal Time describes anticipatory systems in terms of two temporal dimensions succession and simultaneity which are defined and measured in tdepth tlength and tdensity These extensions form an extended present and allow a quantified comparison of obserpant's observer participants temporal interfaces Compensated delays are revealed as phenomenal blind spots which result in a new kind of relativity What may be compensated for obserpant A is delayed for obserpant B Compensated delays are ubiquitous and can be found in both cognitive and physical processes Examples are temporal recalibration to restore degraded visuomotor adaptation coupling environment and brain biosemiotics and homeostatic processes dynamical diseases embedded and situated robots control loops with inserted or removed delays cellular automata analog and digital notions of trust transitional objects and potential spaces our perception of time and judgement of duration It is proposed that compensated delays emerge as natural laws

After Winnicott Harry Karnac, 2018-06-13 This bibliography is based on the plethora of ideas introduced into the psychoanalytic lexicon by Donald Woods Winnicott It demonstrates amply how wide the range is of Winnicott scholarship and facilitates post Freudian Bion and Winnicott studies Quest for Answers Salman Akhtar, 1994-12-01 Q A format discusses the as if personality malignant narcissism projective identification cumulative trauma etc The Damaged Core Salman Akhtar, 2009-04-13 This book deals with the process through which a coherent self evolves the various ways such development fails to occur and the therapeutic measures to put things back together It deals with the psychotic core the schizoid wish to die and be reborn the fantasies related to unresolved separation individuation the sociopathic tendency to lie and the impact of excessive narcissism on love relations This book also provides a unique perspective on the treatment of these conditions insofar as it not only elucidates the ways that a therapist listens and talks to his patients but also the subtle but deep impact of his ongoing attitude toward psychotherapeutic work Book Jacket Aggression and Destructiveness

Celia HARDING,2006-09-27 Why when and how does aggression go wrong How can we make sense of apparently meaningless destructiveness and violence Aggression is a part of human nature that energises our relationships acts as an impetus for psychic development and enables us to master our world More often we focus on its more destructive aspects such as the violence individuals inflict on themselves or others and overlook the positive functions of aggression In Aggression and Destructiveness Celia Harding brings together contributions from experienced psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists to explore the roots of aggression and the clinical dilemmas it presents in psychotherapy Beginning with accounts of aggression and destructiveness from a range of developmental and theoretical perspectives the book provides useful insights into subjects including Bullying and abusive relationships Male and female violence and destructiveness Depressive perverse and psychotic states of mind Attacks on therapeutic treatment This book makes a valuable contribution to the attempt to make sense of human aggression destructiveness and violence perpetrated against the self others and reality It will be of great interest to trainee and qualified psychodynamic counsellors psychoanalytic psychotherapists and psychoanalysts Selected Papers of Salman Akhtar
