Lost Art Of Caring:

The Lost Art of Caring Leighton E. Cluff, Robert H. Binstock, 2003-05-01 In The Lost Art of Caring Leighton E Cluff M D and Robert H Binstock Ph D bring together experts to address the importance of caring the reasons why it has eroded and measures that can strengthen caring as provided by health professionals families communities and society Doing the Right Thing John R. Peteet, 2007-05-03 Here is the first practical guide for dealing with the moral issues that regularly confront clinicians in their work Written for all mental health professionals Doing the Right Thing An Approach to Moral Issues in Mental Health Treatment offers a framework both for making moral decisions concerning the treatment of patients and for helping patients deal with their own moral concerns Drawing on current thinking in several disciplines Doing the Right Thing introduces the concept of moral functioning as a basis for therapeutic influence Numerous case examples illustrate how to Assess patients ability to function morally Learn how six basic capacities needed for moral functioning develop and how identifying problems in an individual s moral functioning can help guide the formulation of a treatment plan Treat patients with problems functioning morally Appreciate when it is time to set aside neutrality as a therapeutic stance in favor of a more direct approach to helping patients make moral commitments decisions and self assessments and develop moral character Deal with the moral aspects of clinical decision making Develop a framework for making moral choices in planning the direction of treatment confronting resistance and addressing problems in caring effectively Help patients address moral challenges Learn how to take into account your own and the patient s values in reasoning through moral dilemmas Understand more clearly how to help patients deal with unfair pain caused by others as well as the guilt and shame caused by their own moral failures Employ the therapeutic potential of moral growth transformation and integration Discover the role of a clinician in helping demoralized patients reformulate their ideals for better outcomes Recognize where a moral paradigm is useful in improving the delivery of mental health care Concise clear and clinically relevant Doing the Right Thing is a valuable thought provoking guide for both new and seasoned mental health practitioners who live and work in a morally complex environment It is also an excellent supplementary text for courses dealing with the practice of psychotherapy and the ethical aspects of mental health care Let Me Heal Kenneth M. Ludmerer, 2014-09-01 In Let Me Heal prize winning author Kenneth M Ludmerer provides the first ever account of the residency system for training doctors in the United States He traces its development from its nineteenth century roots through its present day struggles to cope with new bureaucratic work hour regulations for house officers and more important to preserve excellence in medical training amid a highly commercialized health care system Let Me Heal provides a highly engaging richly contextualized account of the residency system in all its dimensions It also brilliantly analyzes the mutual relationship between residency education and patient care in America The book shows that the quality of residency training ultimately depends on the quality of patient care that residents observe but that there is much that residency training can do to produce doctors who practice in a better more affordable fashion Let Me Heal is both a stunning work of scholarship and a highly engaging account of how one becomes a doctor in the United States It is indispensable reading for those who wish to understand what it means to learn and practice medicine and what is needed to make medical education and patient care in America better The definitive work on the subject it is destined to become a classic that will be consulted by readers far into the future

Taking Water to the Thirsty Al Hagy Sr,Rev. Matthew Ricks,2016-01-26 From the beginning our instincts and reflexes are tuned to survival Over a lifetime we learn and hone those skills but there comes a point when we of necessity surrender to the search of the ultimate goal spiritual peace This search is best done with family support and friends as they bring the message of grace and the mercy of God But all too often loneliness blocks this message and spiritual emptiness and suffering remain as companions Mother Teresa wrote Loneliness and the feeling of being unwanted is the most terrible poverty The authors of this short book believe this to be true We wish to relieve this distress and need your help Loneliness does occur in many places even the crowded streets of the cities of the world In this book we are focused on spiritual poverty in long term care facilities where we believe the problem exists in significant numbers despite the best efforts of those charged with recreation and socialization In addition we believe loneliness travels with a paucity of spiritual attention which must mean unrest The combination of being alone and spiritually weak or disconnected when peace is the goal for those in their last days is the challenge Part of the problem is our lack of awareness of these people and their situation which brings us to our mission to prod beg and stimulate people of faith to become involved in passing their faith and peace to those in need The Fifteen Minute Hour Marian R. Stuart, Joseph A. Lieberman III, Jane Seymour, 2008-09-25 By incorporating therapeutic talk into daily practice family doctors can solve and often prevent many psychological and behavioural problems The approaches described in this text are designed not only to enhance the therapeutic relationship but also to make practice more productive and pleasurable In particular they can be applied in the conte Life and Death in Intensive Care Joan Cassell, 2005 A penetrating look at the values systems and life and death dramas in the world of the surgical intensive care unit
