

Lost Love

Tell me young man
Why are you so numb?
You don't care if I die
Yet you tell me I'm dumb

My heart is shouting at your ear
You're so deaf that you can't hear
Now I'm paralyzed with fear
'Coz all things are so unclear

Why did you leave me for her?
Though she can't love you truly
Please come back my long lost love
And I'll cherish you dearly

Tonight if you're not back
I'll just cut my wrist and die
My heart will be as hard as rock
And I'll keep these feelings in a lie

Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Pastoral

Tradition Donna L. Potts, 2012-01-01 In Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Pastoral Tradition Donna L. Potts closely examines the pastoral genre in the work of six Irish poets writing today Through the exploration of the poets and their works she reveals the wide range of purposes that pastoral has served in both Northern Ireland and the Republic a postcolonial critique of British imperialism a response to modernity industrialization and globalization a way of uncovering political and social repercussions of gendered representations of Ireland and more recently a means for conveying environmentalism's more complex understanding of the value of nature Potts traces the pastoral back to its origins in the work of Theocritus of Syracuse in the third century and plots its evolution due to cultural changes While all pastoral poems share certain generic traits Potts makes clear that pastorals are shaped by social and historical contexts and Irish pastorals in particular were influenced by Ireland's unique relationship with the land language and industrialization due to England's colonization For her discussion Potts has chosen six poets who have written significant collections of pastoral poetry and whose work is in dialogue with both the pastoral tradition and other contemporary pastoral poets Three poets are men John Montague Seamus Heaney Michael Longley while three are women Eavan Boland Medbh McGuckian Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill Five are English language authors while the sixth Ní Dhomhnaill writes in Irish Additionally some of the poets hail from the Republic while others originate from Northern Ireland Potts contends that while both Irish Republic and Northern Irish poets respond to a shared history of British colonization in their pastorals the 1921 partition of the country caused the pastoral tradition to evolve differently on either side of the border primarily because of the North's more rapid industrialization its more heavily Protestant population whose response to environmentalism was somewhat different than that of the Republic's predominantly Catholic population as well the greater impact of the world wars and the Irish Troubles In an important distinction from other studies of Irish poetry Potts moves beyond the influence of history and politics on contemporary Irish pastoral poetry to consider the relatively recent influence of ecology Contemporary Irish poets often rely on the motif of the pastoral retreat to highlight various environmental threats to those retreats whether they be high rises motorways global warming or acid rain Potts concludes by speculating on the future of pastoral in contemporary Irish poetry through her examination of more recent poets including Moya Cannon and Paula Meehan as well as other genres such as film drama and fiction Lost Worlds Chitra Joshi, 2005 A study of Indian labour and its forgotten histories A Field Guide to the Poetry of Theodore Roethke William Barillas, 2020-12-29 A constellation of essays that reanimates the work of this pivotal twentieth century American poet for a new century This volume is the first to reconsider Roethke's work in terms of the expanded critical approaches to literature that have emerged since his death in 1963 Editor William Barillas and over forty contributors including highly respected literary scholars critics and writers such as Peter Balakian Camille Paglia Jay Parini and David Wojahn collectively make a case for Roethke's poetry as a complete unified and evolving body of work The accessible essays employ a number of approaches including formalism ecocriticism reader response and feminist critique to explicate the poetics themes and the biographical historical cultural and literary contexts of Roethke's work New Worlds, Lost Worlds Susan Brigden, 2002-09-24 No period in British history has more resonance and mystery today than the sixteenth century New Worlds Lost Worlds brings the atmosphere and events of this great epoch to life Exploring the underlying religious motivations for the savage violence and turbulence of the period from Henry VIII's break with Rome to the overwhelming threat of the Spanish Armada Susan Brigden investigates the actions and influences of such near mythical figures as Elizabeth I Thomas More Bloody Mary and Sir Walter Raleigh Authoritative and accessible New Worlds Lost Worlds the latest in the Penguin History of Britain series provides a superb introduction to one of the most important compelling and intriguing periods in the history of the Western world The Divine Will and Other Poems Yogesh Singh Mohan, From times immemorial poetry has been an outlet of emotions impulses and ideas in innovative styles As far as my association with poetry goes I would say that writing poems suits me as I always intend to speak less and often in rhythms of my thoughts The moment the rhythm breaks the poem ends As far as I can understand it there's no specific theory to my writing of poetry The poems I wrote have a diverse range of subjects and are mostly written in different states of mind Idylls Theocritus, 2003 Eucritus and I and pretty Amyntas turned aside To the farm of Phrasidamus where we sank down With pleasure on deep piled couches of sweet rushes And vine leaves freshly stripped from the bush The Greek poet Theocritus of Syracuse first half of the third century BC was the inventor of bucolic poetry These vignettes of country life centred on competitions in song and love are the foundational poems of the western pastoral tradition They were the principal model for Virgil in the Eclogues and their influence can be seen in the work of Petrarch and Milton Although it is the pastoral poems for which he is chiefly famous Theocritus also wrote hymns to the gods brilliant mime depictions of everyday life short narrative epics epigrams and encomia of the powerful The great variety of his poems illustrates the rich and flourishing poetic culture of what was a golden age for Greek poetry SCIENCE FICTION Ultimate Collection: 140+
