Mary Magdalena And Me Rethy Devi,2021-08-31 I m pleased to introduce my novel I have invested last 10 years of my life researching writing and rewriting this book More than 500 books I have read before I wrote this novel Born out of diversity each of these women lived apart for centuries without any meeting finally provides a context and a narrative style unique to this novel And it unravels a freshness of spirit The tug of war between the ideologies of the east and west the interplay of similarities in human nature spread over a vast expanse of time help interpret and understand herself The story draws its inspiration from my interest in the intriguing nature of feminist ideas alongside spirituality and sexuality It was a sincere effort to highlight my passion for feminist philosophies psychology and politics I chose to write a fiction as I enjoy telling stories and found it a good medium to weave in my other interests in sociology history metaphysics and quantum physics The first part of the novel deals with the recital of life experiences of Mary Magdalene who lived nearly two thousand years ago there was a noble woman called Lexmi who lived in modern era In the second part Lexmi relates to Mary Magdalene her woes as a philosopher and her frustrations reflective of life in today s world War is just like terrorism 20 million people died in the two world Wars and 10 million people vanished at the time of partition of India My novel is seriously discussing these issues 5000 Years of Popular Culture Fred E. H. Schroeder,1980 This collection of insightful essays by outstanding artists anthropologists historians classicists and humanists was developed to broaden the study of popular culture and to provide instances of original and innovative interdisciplinary approaches Its first purpose is to broaden the study of popular culture which is too often regarded in the academic world as the entertainment and leisure time activities of the 20th century Second the collection gives recognition to the fact that a number of disciplines have been investigating popular phenomena on different fronts and it is designed to bring examples of these disciplines together under the common rubric of popular culture. Related to this is a third purpose of providing instances of original and innovative interdisciplinary approaches. Last, the collection should be a worthwhile contribution to the component disciplines as well as to the study of popular culture.

Building Bridges of Time, Places and People: Volume I J. Marc Merrill, 2012-05-03. Mysteries associated with ancient Egypt are not confined to the pyramids of Giza. For example, consider these: One Egyptian hieroglyph is patterned after a bird known as the jabiru; another is an image of a saguaro cactus. Both the jabiru and the saguaro are found only in the Western Hemisphere, so how did they become hieroglyphs? Tutankhamen is referred to as the boy king by Egyptologists. Why then were statues found in the tomb? Portraits of a young woman, Hatshepsut, is said to have been a female pharaoh who reigned for 22 years but then disappeared from the scene. What happened to her? And why was her image expunged from the walls of temples? Senenmut, a favorite of Hatshepsut, wrote that he had access to all the writings of the prophets. Which prophets did he mean? Why does the face of the mummy of Ramesses II not match the statues of this great pharaoh? Also, why did the embalmers remove the stomach and place the heart on the right side of the thorax? And why were diced tobacco leaves from the Western Hemisphere used to line the chest cavity? Why was Yuya supposedly the father of the great Queen Tiye, buried with three coffins while his wife had only two? Moreover, why did the mask that covered his face along with the face on the innermost coffin look totally different from the mummy and from each other? Death masks were found not just in Egypt but in Greece as well. The most famous of these came from grave 5 at Mycenae. Each eye of this gold mask has double eyelids. In addition, like the Sphinx at Giza and the Shroud of Turin, the left eye is higher than the right and the mouth is not centered. How can such similarities be explained? Turning to Italy, on the underside of the right wrist of the Prima Porta statue of Augustus, there is the distinct impression of the head of a spike. According to historians, this statue depicts the first emperor of Rome, but what if it is instead a portrait of a man who was crucified? These mysteries, along with many others, are examined in detail and then convincingly explained in this first of two volumes to explore crucial links between Egypt, Israel, Greece, and Italy.

Being Human - A Guide to Metaphysics Vaughan Wynne-Jones, 2000-12-20. It's an exploration of humanity from its early beginnings to the precarious situation we find ourselves in now. It's a study of the world's religions and mores and how they all point back to a single starting point. It's an attempt to make people think for themselves for a change and to see that whatever our outward differences, we are all ultimately the same.

Bounded Choice Janja A. Lalich, 2020-11-30. Heaven's Gate, a secretive group of celibate monks awaiting pickup by a UFO, captured intense public attention in 1997 when its members committed collective suicide. As a way of understanding such perplexing events, many have seen those who join cults as needy, lost souls unable to think for themselves. This book, a compelling look at the cult phenomenon, written for a wide audience, dispels such simple formulations by explaining how normal, intelligent people can give up years of their lives and sometimes their very lives to groups and beliefs that appear bizarre and irrational. Looking closely at Heaven's Gate and at the Democratic Workers Party a radical political group of the 1970s and 1980s Janja Lalich gives us a rare insider's look at these two cults and advances a new theoretical framework that will reshape our understanding of those who join such groups Lalich's fascinating discussion includes her in depth interviews with cult devotees as well as reflections gained from her own experience as a high ranking member of the Democratic Workers Party Incorporating classical sociological concepts such as charisma and commitment with more recent work on the social psychology of influence and control she develops a new approach for understanding how charismatic cult leaders are able to dominate their devotees She shows how members are led into a state of bounded choice in which they make seemingly irrational decisions within a context that makes perfect sense to them and is in fact consistent with their highest aspirations In addition to illuminating the cult phenomenon in the United States and around the world this important book also addresses our pressing need to know more about the mentality of those true believers who take extreme or violent measures in the name of a cause Building Bridges of Time, Places and People J. Marc. Merrill, 2012-05
