Nashville Chronicles The Making Of Robert Altman's Masterpiece:

The Nashville Chronicles Jan Stuart, 2003 The Nashville Chronicles is a fascinating journalistic tour de force of the movie that legendary film critic Pauline Kael called The funniest epic vision of America ever to reach the screen In writing this book Jan Stuart enjoyed the benefit of full cooperation from Altman who sat for many hours of interviews as well as most of the motley crew of cast and characters Illustrated throughout with behind the scenes photos Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling Mark Minett, 2021 Robert Altman and the Elaboration of Hollywood Storytelling reveals an Altman barely glimpsed in previous critical accounts of the filmmaker This re examination of his seminal work during the Hollywood Renaissance or New Hollywood period of the early 1970s including M A S H Brewster McCloud McCabe Mrs Miller Images The Long Goodbye Thieves Like Us California Split and Nashville sheds new light on both the films and the filmmaker reframing Altman as a complex pragmatic innovator whose work exceeds but is also grounded in the norms of classical Hollywood storytelling rather than someone who rejected those norms in favor of modernist art cinema Its findings and approach hold important implications for the study of cinematic authorship Largely avoiding thematic exegesis it employs an historical poetics approach robust functionalist frameworks archival research and formal and statistical analysis to demystify the essential features of the standard account of Altman's filmmaking history and profile lax narrative form heavy reliance on the zoom sound design replete with overlapping dialogue improvisational infidelity to the screenplay and a desire to subvert based in his time in the training grounds of industrial filmmaking and filmed television The book provides a clear example of how a filmmaker might work collaboratively and pragmatically within and across media institutions to elaborate upon their sanctioned practices and aims We misunderstand Altman's work and the creative work of Hollywood filmmakers in general when we insist on describing innovation as opposition to institutional norms and on describing those norms as simply assimilating innovation Robert Altman's Soundtracks Gayle Sherwood Magee, 2014 Robert Altman's Soundtracks offers a compelling new look at this celebrated director's films through his innovative uses of music and sound As author Gayle Sherwood Magee illustrates Altman's considerable and varied output speaks to the changing film industry over decades from Nashville 1975 to A Prairie Home Companion 2006 The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Allison Graham, Sharon Monteith, 2011-09-12 This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture examines how mass media have shaped popular perceptions of the South and how the South has shaped the history of mass media An introductory overview by Allison Graham and Sharon Monteith is followed by 40 thematic essays and 132 topical articles that examine major trends and seminal moments in film television radio press and Internet history Among topics explored are the southern media boom beginning with the Christian Broadcast Network and CNN popular movies television shows and periodicals that have shaped ideas about the region including Gone with the Wind The Beverly Hillbillies Roots and Southern Living and southern media celebrities such as Oprah Winfrey Truman Capote and Stephen Colbert The volume details the media's involvement in southern history from depictions of race in the movies to news coverage of the civil rights movement and Hurricane Katrina. Taken together, these entries reveal and comment on the ways in which mass media have influenced, maintained, and changed the idea of a culturally unique South. The Persistence of Hollywood Thomas Elsaesser, 2012-05-22 While Hollywood's success, its persistence, has remained constant for almost one hundred years, the study of its success has undergone significant expansion and transformation. Since the 1960s, Thomas Elsaesser's research has spearheaded the study of Hollywood, beginning with his classic essays on auteurism and cinephilia, focused around a director's themes and style up to his analysis of the corporate authorship of contemporary director James Cameron. In between, he has helped to transform film studies by incorporating questions of narrative, genre, desire, ideology, and more recently, Hollywood's economic, technological infrastructure and its place within global capitalism. The Persistence of Hollywood brings together Elsaesser's key writings about Hollywood filmmaking. It includes his detailed studies of individual directors, including Minnelli, Fuller, Ray, Hitchcock, Lang, Altman, Kubrick, Coppola, and Cameron, as well as essays charting the shifts from classic to corporate Hollywood, by way of the New Hollywood, and the resurgence of the blockbuster. The book also presents a history of the different critical theoretical paradigms central to film studies in its analysis of Hollywood, from auteurism and cinephilia to textual analysis, Marxism, psychoanalysis, and post-industrial analysis. American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-06-25 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero, this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day. Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry, from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film, from the impact of the civil rights, feminist, and LGBT movements to that of 9/11. Features a student-friendly structure, dividing coverage into the periods 1960-1975, 1976-1990, and 1991 to the present day, each of which opens with an historical overview. Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars, combining broad historical, social, and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films, including Midnight Cowboy, Nashville, Cat Ballou, Chicago, Back to the Future, Killer of Sheep, Daughters of the Dust, Nothing But a Man, Ali, Easy Rider, The Conversation, The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, Longtime Companion, The Matrix, The War Tapes, the Batman films, and selected avant-garde and documentary films, among many others. Additional online resources, such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses, will be available online. May be used alongside American Film History: Selected Readings, Origins to 1960, to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium. Ten Years in the Tub Nick Hornby, 2016-04-12 How often do you begin reading a book that makes you immediately, urgently, desperately want to read more books? Booklist Nick Hornby has managed to write just such a book in this hilarious, insightful, and infectious volume. Ten Years in the Tub chronicles Hornby's journey through a decade's worth of books as related in his wildly popular Believer column Stuff I've Been Reading Ten Years in the Tub is a one way ticket into the mind of one of the most beloved contemporary writers on his favorite pastime but it's also a meditation on what Celine Dion can teach us about ourselves a warning about how John Updike can ruin our sex lives and a recommendation for the way Body Shop Vanilla Shower Gel can add excitement to our days This decade long addiction for many makes standing in line at the bank a blessed interval for snorting another page the New York Times Book Review

More Than a Method Cynthia Baron, Diane Carson, Frank P. Tomasulo, 2004 Insightful focused case studies of screen performance from diverse directors with a range of contemporary styles and approaches Focus On: 100 Most Popular English-language Film Directors Wikipedia contributors, Poetics of Cinema David Bordwell, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty five years of work on what he has called the historical poetics of cinema David Bordwell presents an extended analysis of a key question for film studies how are films made in particular historical contexts in order to achieve certain effects For Bordwell films are made things existing within historical contexts and aim to create determinate effects Beginning with this central thesis Bordwell works out a full understanding of how films channel and recast cultural influences for their cinematic purposes With more than five hundred film stills Poetics of Cinema is a must have for any student of cinema
