Institutions, Ideas and Leadership in Russian Politics Julie Newton, William Tompson, 2010-06-23 A stimulating and thought provoking collection that challenges some of the emerging conventional wisdom about contemporary Russia It examines the role of leadership institutions and ideas and the interactions among them in shaping Russia s post Soviet transformation State against Civil Society Cameron Ross, 2017-10-02 Over the period December 2011 July 2013 a tidal wave of mass protests swept through the Russian capital and engulfed scores of cities and regions These demonstrations came as a great shock to the Russian political establishment After decades of passive acceptance of the status quo it appeared that civil society was at last awakening The protests came in the wake of the Arab Spring revolts which toppled authoritarian dictators in Tunisia Egypt and Libya However by the end of 2013 the number of mass protests in Russia and their size had declined precipitously President Putin on returning to office in 2012 had quickly regained the upper hand over the protestors This book examines the reasons for the rise and fall of the mass protests in the Russian Federation Internationally renowned experts in the field of Russian politics from Russia and the UK provide important new insights into the nature of the mass opposition movement the non systemic opposition its strengths and its weaknesses A key novel aspect of the study is its focus on the national and regional dimensions of the protest movement and its class and ethnic dimensions This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies Narrating the Soviet Era in Russian School History Textbooks Olga Konkka,2025-09-03 This study focuses on how Russian history textbooks published between 1992 and 2021 dealt with the topic of the Soviet period 1917 1991 Representations of this part of Russia s past in school manuals have provoked vivid debates and bolstered government intervention in the field while a gradual shift towards a less critical narrative of the USSR in more recent textbooks is often presented as directed by Vladimir Putin This study combines research into these texts and inquiry into those who write publish approve or criticize them Bringing together these perspectives provides a more complex view of school textbooks as final products of both top down and bottom up processes This volume is aimed at postgraduates researchers and academics specializing in Soviet history contemporary Russian politics and society and history education and textbooks Informal Nationalism After Communism Abel Polese,Oleksandra Seliverstova,Emilia Pawlusz,Jeremy Morris,2018-03-20 Since the collapse of the Soviet Union nation building and identity construction in the post socialist region have been the subject of extensive academic research The majority of these studies have taken a top down approach focusing on the variety of ways in which governments have sought to define the nascent nation states and in the process have often oversimplified the complex and overlapping processes at play across the region Drawing on research on the Balkans Central Asia the Caucasus and Eastern Europe this book focuses instead on the role of non traditional non politicised and non elite actors in the construction of identity Across topics as diverse as school textbooks turbofolk and home decoration contributors each an academic with extensive on the ground experience identify and analyse the ways that individuals living across the post socialist region redefine identity on a daily basis often by manipulating and adapting state policy In the process Nation Building in the Post Socialist Region demonstrates the necessity of holistic trans national and inter disciplinary approaches to national identity construction rather than studies limited to a single state territory This is important reading for all scholars and policymakers working on the post socialist region Childhood and Education in the United States and Russia Katerina Bodovski,2019-07-29 This book considers the place of education in childhood and provides a cross country and cross cultural perspective on the importance of education in childhood comparing experiences in the US and Russia It conceptualizes the discussion in sociological theory particularly theories pertaining to the sociology of education Languages of Islam and Christianity in Post-Soviet Russia Gulnaz

Sibgatullina,2020-06-08 In her book Gulnaz Sibgatullina examines the intricate relationship of religion identity and language related beliefs against the background of socio political changes in post Soviet Russia Focusing on the Russian and Tatar languages she explores how they simultaneously serve the needs of both Muslims and Christians living in the country today Mapping linguistic strategies of missionaries converts and religious authorities Sibgatullina demonstrates how sacred vocabulary in each of the languages is being contested by a variety of social actors often with competing agendas These linguistic collisions not only affect meanings of the religious lexicon in Tatar and Russian but also drive a gradual convergence of Russia s Islam and Christianity

New Russian Nationalism Kolsto Pal Kolsto,2016-03-24 Russian nationalism previously dominated by imperial tendencies pride in a large strong and multi ethnic state able to project its influence abroad is increasingly focused on ethnic issues In 2014 Russia s annexation of Crimea and the subsequent violent conflict in Eastern Ukraine utterly transformed the nationalist discourse in Russia This book provides an up to date survey of Russian nationalism as a political social and intellectual phenomenon by leading Western and Russian experts in the field of nationalism studies It includes case studies on migrantophobia the relationship between nationalism and religion nationalism in the media nationalism and national identity in economic policy nationalism in the strategy of the Putin regime as well as a survey based study of nationalism in public opinion
