

The book cover features a central black rectangular box containing the title and editor's name. The background is a vibrant red with intricate Indigenous Australian art patterns in purple, white, and yellow. These patterns include wavy lines, dotted paths, and circular motifs. A white grid is overlaid on the red background, with the letters 'O', 'C', 'E', and 'A' positioned at the intersections. The top and bottom edges of the cover are decorated with horizontal bands of purple and white. The right edge features a vertical black band with a white geometric pattern.

Nation Culture Text:

Nation, Culture, Text Graeme Turner, 1993 The first collection of cultural studies essays from Australia selected and introduced for an international readership The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities

Nation Games Benjamin Zachariah, 2020-08-10 This volume examines the tension between the nation idea as a necessary language of legitimacy with which to claim liberation and its role in disciplining people and their identities in India in the name of national liberation It is an attempt to open up new lines of thinking and ways of reading Indian history

Cultural Visions: Essays in the History of Culture , 2022-03-07 This collection opens with an inquiry into the assumptions and methods of the historical study of culture comparing the new cultural history with the old Thirteen essays follow each defining a problem within a particular culture In the first section Biography and Autobiography three scholars explore historically changing types of self conception each reflecting larger cultural meanings essays included examine Italian Renaissance biographers and the autobiographies of Benjamin Franklin and Mohandas Gandhi A second group of contributors explore problems raised by the writing of history itself especially as it relates to a notion of culture Here examples are drawn from the writings of Thucydides Jacob Burckhardt and the art historians Alois Riegl and Josef Strzygowski In the third section Politics Nationalism and Culture the essays explore relationships between cultural creativity and national identity with case studies focusing on the Holy Roman Emperor Maximilian I the place of Castile within the national history of Spain and the impact of World War I on work of Thomas Mann The final section Cultural Translation raises the complex questions of cultural influence and the transmission of traditions over time through studies of Philo of Alexandria s interpretation of the Hebrew Bible Erasmus use of Socrates Jean Bodin s conception of Roman law and adaptations of the Hebrew Bible for American children Native to the Nation Allaine Cerwonka, 2004 In a world increasingly marked by migration and dislocation the question of displacement and of establishing a sense of belonging has become ever more common and ever more urgent But what of those who stay in place How do people who remain in their place of origin or ancestral homeland rearticulate a sense of connection of belonging when ownership of the territory they occupy is contested Focusing on Australia Allaine Cerwonka examines the physical and narrative spatial practices by which people reclaim territory in the wake of postcolonial claims to land by indigenous people and new immigration of foreigners As a multicultural postcolonial nation whose claims to land until recently were premised on the notion of the continent as empty terra nullius Australia offers an especially rich lens for understanding the reterritorialization of the nation state in an era of globalization To this end Native to the Nation provides a multisited ethnography of two communities in Melbourne the Fitzroy Police Station and the East Melbourne Garden Club allowing us to see how bodies are managed and nations physically constructed in everyday confrontations and cultivations Allaine Cerwonka is assistant professor of women s studies and political science at Georgia State University

Nationalism and the Politics of Culture in Quebec Richard Handler,1988 Richard Handler s pathbreaking study of nationalistic politics in Quebec is a striking and successful example of the new experimental type of ethnography interdisciplinary in nature and intensively concerned with rhetoric and not only of anthropologists but also of scholars in a wide range of fields and it is likely to stir sharp controversy Bringing together methodologies of history sociology political science and philosophy as well as anthropology Handler centers on the period 1976 1984 during which the independantiste Parti Qu b ois was in control of the provincial government and nationalistic sentiment was especially strong Handler draws on historical and archival research and on interviews with Quebec and Canadian government officials as he addresses the central question Given the similarities between the epistemologies of both anthropology and nationalist ideology how can one write an ethnography of nationalism that does not simply reproduce and thereby endorse nationalistic beliefs Handler analyzes various responses to the nationalist vision of a threatened existence He examines cultural tourism ideology of the Quebec government legislations concerning historical preservation language legislation and policies towards immigrants and cultural minorities He concludes with a thoughtful meditation on the futility of nationalisms

Text, Theory, Space Kate Darian-Smith,Sarah Nuttall,1996 Focusing on two white settler societies South Africa and Australia this book investigates the meaning of the South as an aesthetic political geographical and cultural space This is a landmark in post colonial theory and criticism

The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick,2014-08-22 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans national expansion in the study of culture Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society Australian National Cinema Tom O'Regan,2005-08-10 Situates Australian cinema in its historical and cultural perspective offering detailed critiques of key films from 1970 onwards and using them to illustrate the recent theories on the cinema industries JNCI, Journal of the National Cancer Institute National Cancer Institute (U.S.),1987
