National And Class Conflict In The Horn Of Africa:

National and Class Conflict in the Horn of Africa John Markakis, 2012 National and Class Conflict in the Horn of Africa, 1987 The Ethiopian Army Fantahun Ayele, 2014-10-30 The Ethiopian popular revolution of 1974 ended a monarchy that claimed descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba and brought to power a military government that created one of the largest and best equipped armies in Africa In his panoramic study of the Ethiopian army Fantahun Ayele draws upon his unprecedented access to Ethiopian Ministry of Defense archives to study the institution that was able to repel the Somali invasion of 1977 and suppress internal uprisings but collapsed in 1991 under the combined onslaught of armed insurgencies in Eritrea and Tigray Besides military operations The Ethiopian Army discusses tactical areas such as training equipment intelligence and logistics as well as grand strategic choices such as ending the 1953 Ethio American Mutual Defense Agreement and signing a treaty of military assistance with the Soviet Union The result sheds considerable light on the military developments that have shaped Ethiopia and the Horn in the twentieth century China and Middle East Conflicts Guy Burton, 2020-07-30 How do aspiring and established rising global powers respond to conflict Using China the book studies its response to wars and rivalries in the Middle East from the Cold War to the present Since the People's Republic was established in 1949 China has long been involved in the Middle East and its conflicts from exploiting or avoiding them to their management containment or resolution Using a conflict and peace studies angle Burton adopts a broad perspective on Chinese engagement by looking at its involvement in the region's conflicts including Israel Palestine Iraq before and after 2003 Sudan and the Darfur crisis the Iranian nuclear deal the Gulf crisis and the wars in Syria Libya and Yemen The book reveals how a rising global and non Western power handles the challenges associated with both violent and nonviolent conflict and the differences between limiting and reducing violence alongside other ways to eliminate the causes of conflict and grievance Contributing to the wider discipline of International Relations and peace and conflict studies this book will be of interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies Chinese foreign policy and the politics and international relations of the Middle East State Crises, Globalisation and National Movements in North-East Africa Asafa Jalata, 2004-08-02 By identifying the critical central contradictions that are built into the politics of the Horn of Africa this book demonstrates that the crises of the Horn states stem from their political behaviour and structural forces such as internal social forces and global forces that have become involved on the sides of these states without requiring accountability the rule of law or the implementation of at least limited democracy The contributors provide a deep understanding of structural and conjunctural forces that have interacted in the processes of state power the role of intervention of global powers and the consequent failure to build state as a public domain The book also enriches our social scientific knowledge that is essential to develop pragmatic policy measures to address these problems A Strategic Vision for Africa Francis M. Deng, I. William Zartman, 2004-06-23 Increasingly marginalized since the end of the Cold War the continent of Africa is struggling to identify both the root causes and possible solutions to the maladies that continue to plague it. The problems read like a laundry list of misrule in the aftermath of decolonization: rampant political corruption, internecine wars, widespread disease, underdevelopment and economic collapse. In the early 1990s a group of statesmen, academics and civil leaders from all over Africa gathered to put together a comprehensive plan to make the continent become less dependent on the rest of the world and prepare it to compete in the new globalizing economy. Those who gathered to write what would come to be known as the Kampala Document envisioned an organization which would succeed where the Organization for African Unity (OAU) had failed. This new organization, the Conference on Security, Stability, Development and Cooperation in Africa (CSSDCA), will provide a forum for discussion of democratization, security issues and sustainable development. This new book by noted scholars Francis Deng and I William Zartman provides a mid course appraisal of the progress of the CSSDCA as well as charting its future in relation to other regional organizations. With a preface by President Olusegun Obasanjo, this book will undoubtedly become an important tool in understanding Africa's present and future. Francis Deng is a nonresident senior fellow in the Foreign Policy Studies program at the Brookings Institution. His books include Masses in Flight: The Global Crisis of Internal Displacement (Brookings, 1998) with Roberta Cohen. I William Zartman is Jacob Blaustein Professor of International Organizations and Conflict Resolution and Director of African Studies at the Paul H. Nitze School of Advanced International Studies.

Crisis and Terror in the Horn of Africa Pietro Toggia, Pat Lauderdale, 2017-03-02. Contemporary social life in the Horn of Africa is generally a state orchestrated experience that terrorizes the majority of the people. The result is a far reaching and important book which critically examines a state terror manifested in the violation of human rights, democracy, justice and freedom. Severed States Robert K. Schaeffer, 1999. Russia, Bosnia, Palestine, Ireland and many other nations are torn by seemingly intractable conflict in which partition has played a major role.

Tillema, 2019-04-08. International Armed Conflict Since 1945 is a bibliographic handbook that briefly describes each of 269 international wars and other war threatening conflicts occurring between 1945 and 1988. Soldiers, Martyrs, Traitors, and Exiles Tricia M.
