National Gallery Technical Bulletin National Gallery (Great Britain), 2012 The National Gallery Review National Gallery (Great Britain), 2003 The Biomarker Guide: Volume 1, Biomarkers and Isotopes in the Environment and Human History K. E. Peters, C. C. Walters, J. M. Moldowan, 2007-08-16 The second edition of The Biomarker Guide is a fully updated and expanded version of this essential reference. Now in two volumes it provides a comprehensive account of the role that biomarker technology plays both in petroleum exploration and in understanding Earth history and processes. Biomarkers and Isotopes in the Environment and Human History details the origins of biomarkers and introduces basic chemical principles relevant to their study. It discusses analytical techniques and applications of biomarkers to environmental and archaeological problems. The Biomarker Guide is an invaluable resource for geologists, petroleum geochemists, biogeochemists, environmental scientists and archaeologists.

Unseemly Pictures Helen Pierce, 2008 This engaging book is the first full study of the satirical print in seventeenth century England from the rule of James I to the Regicide. It considers graphic satire both as a particular pictorial category within the wider medium of print and as a vehicle for political agitation, criticism and debate. Helen Pierce demonstrates that graphic satire formed an integral part of a wider culture of political propaganda and critique during this period and she presents many witty and satirical prints in the context of such related media as manuscript verses, ballads, pamphlets and plays. She also challenges the commonly held notion that a visual iconography of politics and satire in England originated during the 1640s, tracing the roots of this iconography back into native and European graphic cultures and traditions. Published for the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art.

Michelangelo Matthias Wivel, 2017 Published to accompany the Credit Suisse exhibition Michelangelo Sebastiano held at the National Gallery in London, March 15 through June 25, 2017.

Giotto to Dürer Jill Dunkerton, Susan Foister, Dillian Gordon, Nicholas Penny, 1991-01-01 This book provides a survey of European painting between 1260 and 1510 in both northern and southern Europe, based largely on the National Gallery collection. Some 70 of the finest and best known paintings in the Gallery are examined in detail.

Flemish Manuscript Painting in Context Elizabeth Morrison, Thomas Kren, 2007-01-08 A companion to the Getty's prize-winning exhibition catalogue Illuminating the Renaissance: The Triumph of Flemish Manuscript Painting in Europe, this volume contains thirteen selected papers presented at two conferences held in conjunction with that exhibition. The first was organized by the Getty Museum and the second was held at the Courtauld Institute of Art under the sponsorship of the Courtauld Institute and the Royal Academy of Arts. Added here is an essay by Margaret Scott on the role of dress during the reign of Charles the Bold. Texts include Lorne Campbell's research into Rogier van der Weyden's work as an illuminator, Nancy Turner's investigation of materials and methods of painting in Flemish manuscripts, and trenchant commentary by Jonathan Alexander and James Marrow on the state of current research on Flemish illumination. A recurring theme is the structure of collaboration in manuscript production The essays also reveal an important new patron of manuscript illumination and address the role of illuminated manuscripts at the Burgundian court A series of biographies of Burgundian scribes is featured

At Home in Renaissance Bruges Julie De Groot, 2022-03-29 Domestic materiality in a remarkable European city How did citizens in Bruges create a home What did an ordinary domestic interior look like in the sixteenth century And more importantly how does one study the domestic culture of bygone times by analysing documents such as probate inventories These questions seem straightforward yet few endeavours are more challenging than reconstructing a sixteenth century domestic reality from written sources This book takes full advantage of the inventory and convincingly frames household objects in their original context of use Meticulously connecting objects people and domestic spaces the book introduces the reader to the rich material world of Bruges citizens in the Renaissance their sensory engagement their religious practice the role of women and other social factors By weaving insights from material culture studies with urban history At Home in Renaissance Bruges offers an appealing and holistic mixture of in depth socio economic cultural and material analysis In its approach the book goes beyond heavy handed theories and stereotypes about the exquisite taste of aristocratic elites focusing instead on the domestic materiality of Bruges middling groups Evocatively illustrated with contemporary paintings from Bruges and beyond this monograph shows a nuanced picture of domestic materiality in a remarkable European city

Early Modern Color Worlds , 2016-09-07 Color has recently become the focus of scholarly discussion in many fields but the categories of art craft science and technology unreflectively defined according to modern disciplines have not been helpful in understanding color in the early modern period Color worlds consisting of practices concepts and objects form the central category of analysis in this volume The essays examine a rich variety of color worlds and their constituent engagements with materials productions and the ordering and conceptualization of color Many color worlds appear to have intersected and cross fertilized at the beginning of the seventeenth century the essays focus especially on the creation of color languages and boundary objects to communicate across color worlds or indeed when and why this failed to happen Contributors include Tawrin Baker Barbara H Berrie Fokko Jan Dijksterhuis Karin Leonhard Andrew Morrall Doris Oltrogge Valentina Pugliano Anna Marie Roos Romana Sammern Filzmoser and Simon Werrett
