National Liberation

Tor Sellström

National Liberation:

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa: Formation of a popular opinion (1950-1970) Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 Arab Marxism and National Liberation Mahdi Amel, 2020-12-15 Mahdi Amel 1936 87 was a prominent Arab Marxist thinker and Lebanese Communist Party member This collection brings for the first time to an English audience lengthy excerpts from six major works by Mahdi Amel These include the two founding texts on colonialism and underdevelopment in which Amel began to grapple with the question of dependency his treatise on sectarianism and the state his critique of Edward Said s analysis of Marx his exposure of emerging Islamised bourgeois trends of thought as part of a broader critique of everyday thought and his reflection on cultural heritage as perceived by Arab bourgeoisie Amel s writings serve as a reminder of the need to renew Marxist thought based on the concrete and particular social realities like colonialism Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 National Liberation Movements as Government in Africa Redie Bereketeab, 2017-09-08 Africa is well known for the production of national liberation movements NLMs stemming from a history of exploitation colonisation and slavery NLMs are generally characterised by a struggle carried out by or in the name of suppressed people for political social cultural economic territorial liberation and decolonisation Dozens of NLMs have ascended to state power in Africa following a successful violent popular struggle either as an outright military victory or a negotiated settlement National Liberation

Movements as Government in Africa analyses the performance of NLMs after they gain state power The book tracks the initial promises and guiding principles of NLMs against their actual record in achieving socio economic development goals such as peace stability state building and democratisation The book explores the various different struggles for liberation whether against European colonialism white minority rule neighbouring countries or for internal reform or regime change Bringing together case studies from Somalia Somaliland Uganda Ethiopia Eritrea South Sudan Namibia Angola Mozambique South Africa Zimbabwe and Algeria the book builds a comprehensive analysis of the challenges NLMs face when ascending to state power and why so many ultimately end in failure This is an ideal resource for scholars policy makers and students with an interest in African development politics and security studies

The National Liberation Struggle in South Africa Gregory F. Houston, 2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume follows the interactions between the United Democratic Front UDF and the African National Congress ANC and Pan Africanist Congress PAC which had adopted more revolutionary strategies after their banning in 1960 over the period 1983-87 Only a few studies of the UDF have aimed to link revolutionary developments in 1980s South Africa with theories of revolutionary strategy and tactics This volume focuses on the relation between revolutionary theory praxis and the formation aims policies and practices of the UDF Houston argues that the formulation of the UDF met certain strategic and tactical requirements of Lenin and Gramsci's theories of revolutionary strategy repositioning the UDF as becoming a Leninist vanguard party with its affiliate membership operating largely underground The volume features 6 detailed maps of the Cape Town area the Republic of South Africa in the 1980s the Johannesburg area the Durban area the Pretoria area and the Northern Transvaal

The Soviet Union and National Liberation Movements in the Third World Galia Golan, 2022-12-28 The Soviet Union and National Liberation Movements in the Third World 1988 is a systematic comparison of Soviet theory about and actual behaviour toward movements for national liberation in the Third World In this definitive study Professor Golan demonstrates that Soviet behaviour toward such movements is consistent with Soviet theory as stated in the writings and speeches of high level influential within the Party military and academic communities In so doing she advances our understanding of the rules of thumb that Soviet leaders appeared to follow in deciding whether and how to assist the varied types of anti imperialist and separatist movements in the developing world The first part of the book provides a detailed analysis of the various schools of thought among Soviet writers concerning different aspects of national liberation movements and the second part analyses actual Soviet behaviour toward numerous movements around the world

National Liberation in Postcolonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 This book traces the South West Africa People's Organization SWAPO across its three decades in exile through rich local histories of the camps where Namibian exiles lived in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Christian A Williams highlights how different Namibians experienced these sites as well as the tensions that developed within SWAPO as Namibians encountered one another and as officials asserted their power and protected their interests within a national community The book then follows Namibians who lived in exile into post colonial Namibia examining the extent to which divisions and hierarchies that emerged in the camps continue to shape how Namibians relate to one another today undermining the more just and humane society that many had imagined In developing these points about SWAPO the book draws attention to Southern African literature more widely suggesting parallels across the region and defining a field of study that examines post colonial Africa through the camp

Regulating the Use of Force in Wars of National Liberation: The Need for a New Regime Noelle Higgins, 2009-12-14 This work reconsiders and critically evaluates the complex international legal framework which seeks to regulate wars of national liberation in the light of two fascinating case studies It tests the effectiveness of both the jus ad bellum and jus in bello aspects of the current legal framework by applying it to self determination wars waged in the South Moluccas and Aceh by armed groups against Indonesia The book highlights the various difficulties inherent in the current legal framework as well as the ad hoc and unpredictable practice of States in relation to its application The work concludes with recommendations on how the current framework should be updated and enhanced so that it can adequately deal with modern self determination conflicts

Norway and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tore Linné Eriksen, Nordiska Afrikainstitutet, 2000 This book documents and analyses the involvement of Norway in the liberation struggle in Southern Africa Apart from focussing on the formulation of official policies and the extensive cooperation with the liberation movements in the field of humanitarian assistance mainly based on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs records the study highlights the popular involvement and commitment to the struggle Separate chapters are concerned with the churches trade unions and solidarity movements such as the Norwegian Council for Southern Africa and the Namibia Committee The book also includes a case study on the battle for sanctions The Study forms part of the Nordic Africa Institute's research and documentation project National Liberation in Southern Africa The Role of the Nordic Countries

Denmark and National Liberation in Southern Africa Christopher Munthe Morgenstierne, 2003 The book describes and documents the development of Danish support to national liberation in Southern Africa including Namibia and the two sided humanitarian and political character of this support It is based on previously restricted Danish ministry records and on NGO archives and interviews Key questions are how Danish support was established as a purely humanitarian facility that later developed into supporting the liberation movements and how boycott was first considered to be an issue for the individual but eventually became national policy The study seeks to describe why support and sanctions developed in the way and at the pace they did
