Nationalism and Classicism A. Leoussi,1998-07-08 This is a comparative study of the national significance of the classical revival which marked English and French art during the second half of the nineteenth century It argues that the main focus of artists interest in classical Greece was the body of the Greek athlete It explains this interest first by artists contact with the art of Pheidias and Polycletus which portrayed it and second by the claim made by physical anthropologists that the classical body typified the race of the European nations
