Rights Mechanism in South Asia Shveta Dhaliwal, 2016-10-04 This book provides an ideological framework for the establishment of a comprehensive human rights system in South Asia Presents theoretical bases for a human rights mechanism Studies existing international frameworks under United Nations and regional initiatives in Europe the Americas Africa and Asia especially the Arab world and East Asia Examines the state of human rights in 8 countries in South Asia including the SAARC region Afghanistan Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal Maldives Pakistan and Sri Lanka Uses a multi disciplinary approach bringing together law religion culture and contemporary political theories of regionalism

Nationalism, Ethnicity and the State John Coakley, 2012-11-12 This exciting new book is the first to offer a truly comprehensive account of the vibrant topic of nationalism Packed with a series of rich illustrative examples the book examines this powerful and remarkable political force by exploring Definitions of nationalism Language and nationalism Religion and Nationalism Nationalist history The social roots of ideologies and the significance of race gender and class Nationalist movements from dominant majorities to peripheral minorities socio economic and sociological perspectives State responses to nationalism Supported by a number of helpful illustrations tables and diagrams the text is both engaging and highly informative Nationalism Ethnicity and the State Making and Breaking Nations will prove an insightful read for both undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers in the area of Politics and International Relations The State and Ethnic Politics in SouthEast Asia David Brown, 2003-09-02 Ethnic tensions in Southeast Asia represent a clear threat to the future stability of the region David Brown s clear and systematic study outlines the patterns of ethnic politics in Burma Singapore Indonesia Malaysia Thailand The study considers the influence of the State on the formation of ethnic groups and investigates why some countries are more successful in managing their ethnic politics than others Government Policies and Ethnic Relations in Asia and the Pacific Michael E. Brown, Sumit Ganguly, 1997-10-20 Efforts to contend with tensions inherent in multiethnic societies case studies of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia Ethnic conflict one of the most serious and widespread problems in the world today can undermine efforts to promote political and economic development as well as political economic and social justice It can also lead to violence and open warfare producing horrifying levels of death and destruction Although government policies on ethnic issues often have profound effects on a country the subject has been neglected by most scholars and analysts This volume analyzes different policies governments have pursued in their efforts to contend with the tensions inherent in multiethnic societies The book focuses on Asia and the Pacific the most populous and economically vibrant part of the world The heart of the book is a set of case studies of government policies in sixteen countries India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia the Philippines China Australia New Zealand Papua New Guinea Fiji Vanuatu and the Federated States of Micronesia The studies consider a wide range of political economic educational linguistic and cultural policies and how these policies have evolved over time Using a broad comparative perspective to assess the effectiveness of different governmental approaches the authors offer policy recommendations that cut across individual countries and regions

Kashmir and Sindh Suranjan Das,2001 Professor Das provides a fascinating study on the issue of ethnic politics in multi ethnic Third World countries and the non convergence of state and nation in this discussion of the Kashmir and Sindh questions The artificial de colonization process in the South Asian sub continent resulted in the construction of national frontiers for its two successor states that did not rest on a synchronization of ethnic and state boundaries Consequently cross border loyalties amongst significant sections of the population survived the boundaries imposed between the two successor states When in the context of centralizing nation building strategies ethnic political assertions occur in outlying or frontier areas of these nation states the distinction between domestic and external affairs or between home and foreign politics tends to lose its significance in the traditional sense Political actors from across the borders of neighbouring state can then deny the marks of their different objective nationalities and treat themselves as members of a single loyalty group Thus ethnic politics transcends its domestic contours and helps foment regional tensions In such circumstances ethnic assertions tend to constitute vital local or domestic ingredients that define the national security priorities within a particular region The current insurrection in Kashmir and turmoil in Sindh superbly demonstrate this pattern

Peace Processes and Peace Accords Samir Kumar Das,2005-11-05 The second volume in the South Asian Peace Studies series Peace Processes and Peace Accords looks at the political question of peace from three perspectives the process of peace the contentious issues involved in the peace process and the ideologies that come in conflict in this process Arguing that peace is not a one time event to be achieved and rejoiced over but a matter to be sustained against various odds the contributors show that the sustainability of peace depends on a foundation of rights justice and democracy Peace accords they maintain are only a moment in the process the very act of signing an accord could mark either a continuation of the same conflict or simply its metamorphosis Therefore as this volume shows negotiation should be redefined as joint problem solving on a long term sustained basis rather than one off hard bargaining
